MUSIC AND DRAMA

"The Counterfeiters" didn't counterfeit at the Grand last night. The chief of the gang is sick at Detroit. A message to this effect was received by Manager O'Neil yesterday afternoon.

A BIG AUDIENCE.
The London Opera House was packed last night. From the pit to the gallery there was standing room only, and not much of that. The large audience seemed to be well satisfied, with the performance of the Glick Stock Company, which began its week of repertoire shows with this opening one, "Falsely Accused." The play itself was in which there were many of interest, and the members of the company saw to it that this did not lag at any time. As would be supposed from the title, it was a melodrama, in a way, which gave the players considerable opportunity to show whether they had ability or not. The hero of the play was taken by M. J. Kennedy, in a way that brought forth much applause, while the hisses of the evening were poured upon the villain, played by Jas. C. Godley, both of which were tributes to their acting. A. C. Davis and Robt. Turner were acceptable in their roles. The ladies of the company made a very favorable impression. The vivacious little chick was played by Miss Geraldine Godley in such a manner that she kept the house in laughter a good deal of the time. Miss Virginia Bannister made good in her role, while Miss Glick and Miss May Miller were both possessed of ability. The company altogether is quite up to the average stock theater company, and if their performance of the rest of the week are as satisfactory as their first one they can count on having good-sized audiences. Besides the four acts given last evening, the company will give on Friday and Saturday of this week, a number of special-ty acts, given by the members of the company, among whom was O. Lopez, with his musical glasses, an excellent specialty.

POPULAR PRICES AT THE GRAND
The talk of Willis Bros. Comedy Company, which comes to the Grand Theatre, Friday and Saturday of this week, is the double sextette, in which Misses Helston and Raymond, Messrs Thomas, Raymond and Moore sing New York's latest success, "Florodora," and other musical numbers written around "Florodora," especially written for the congenial roles of the above-mentioned company.

FACTS FOR BUSINESS MEN.

HAD BETTER ADVERTISE IN THE NEWSPAPERS.

A Michigan editor in general, and hailing from Lansing in particular, spins the following yarn, which is worth while repeating: "The other day," he writes, when we were driving down town behind our family rhinoceros, we came across an aged man tearing a bridge to pieces and placing it on a wagon. As the bridge was one needed in our business we asked the aged man what he was doing with it, and in which case why so, or words to that effect. He replied, 'My eyesight is poor and I have no spectacles with which to read the many advertisements that are printed on this bridge, and I am taking it home in order that I may read them and find out where to get my spectacles. The long winter evenings are coming and I want to lay in a supply of bridges and board fences and barn doors, that I may read what the merchants have to say.'

OLD RAILROADER DIES

Late Samuel Phipps Occupied Positions of Importance.

Mr. Samuel Phipps, one of the best known of the older railroad men in Canada, died on Saturday at his home in Alisa, Craig, where he had been living for some time. The late Mr. Phipps was in his 55th year. He came to Canada half a century ago from Bristol, England, and was subsequently locomotive foreman on the Grand Trunk at Brockville and Belleville, and occupied positions of responsibility on the road until his retirement at the age of 51 years. His sons all followed in his father's footsteps and became railway men. Mr. Samuel Phipps, the eldest, is now locomotive foreman on the C. P. R. at Medicine Hat. Mr. George Phipps, of 433 Simcoe street, is passenger engineer on the Grand Trunk, running from this city to Windsor. Arthur is an engineer at Minnedosa; Charles an engineer on the Wisconsin Central at Minneapolis, and Robert is an engineer on the C. P. R. at Winnipeg. A daughter also survives, Mrs. J. W. Armstrong, whose husband is a physician at Chicago and North western at South City, Iowa. The funeral of the late Mr. Phipps will be held from his residence, 433 Simcoe street, on Thursday.

SEVENTH REGIMENT TEAMS GUESTS OF THE SERGEANTS.

Enjoyable Time Spent by the Players and Their Friends.

The hockey team which has succeeded in bringing honor to the Seventh Regiment by its winning of the Carling Cup at Waterloo and its good showing in the O. H. A. series, and the Junior hockey team, which plays for the regiment in the City League, were given a reception last evening at the sergeants' mess room. The early part of the evening was devoted to whist, several tables being in progress. It was, of course, a smoker, and the tobacco provided was highly satisfactory.

Before midnight refreshments were served. Needless to say, these were fully enjoyed. After that the company sat down, resumed smoking and listened to some music and a few speeches. The latter were provoked by that genial presiding officer, Sergt-Major Milligan, who first, however, proposed the toast of the King, which was drunk and sung to with characteristic loyalty. Then followed the toast of the hockey team, and in regard to this the sergt-major expressed himself as more than satisfied with the work this year. He said that the sergeants were glad to be able to entertain the boys who had done so well, including those who had brought the Carling Cup to London. He also spoke of the need of city corps having a meeting place for the men, and he was happy to think that the Seventh Regiment had such a one in the sergeants' mess room, so that they were able to receive the teams that night. He asked the manager of the team to respond to the toast and the coverpoints of both teams, than whom, he said, there were no better on the ice.

The manager, Mr. C. W. Smith, appreciated the words that came from the officers, as expressed by the sergt-major, and told those present that he was satisfied with the work of the team, especially as they had had an up-hill fight, with the exception that the members of the club individually had exhibited the greatest harmony. Being he was glad of was the fact that they had had the same team from start to finish.

Messrs. Gauthier and William Evans, representing respectively the O. H. A. team and the City League team of the Seventh, added a word of thanks to the officers for their treatment. Mr. Foley, assistant trainer of the team, and at the same time manager of the Horton team, was also called upon for a short speech, and this he gave very well.

When the presiding officer invited all to continue the good time they were having, and this they did. The enjoyment of the evening was added to by songs from Sergt-Major Milligan, Mr. Evans, and Sergt. Redge and Chapman, while the pianist was Ex-Col. Sergt. Gerry.

Among those who enjoyed the hospitality of the mess were the following hockey players: Manager Smith, Assistant Trainer Foley, Leddy, Gauthier, Chuck Smith, Slipi, Lawlor and Taylor, of the O. H. A. team, and Messrs. Gull, Gillard, Evans, Tait, Williams and Fysh, of the Juniors.

BUYS ST. THOMAS THEATER

Mr. A. J. Small Adds Another House to His Growing String.

Mr. A. J. Small has taken pity on St. Thomas. He has bought the new Grand Opera House in that city, and will add it to his growing string of Canadian theaters, so that the people there will again be able to see something good in the way of a show. It is understood that Mr. Small will send some of his best companies there from New York. "The Hairy Briar Bush" and others having already been booked. This transaction will be beneficial both to Mr. Small and St. Thomas, as the success of the former's energetic management of his other theaters will undoubtedly be repeated.

The question of why one man succeeds and another fails, is a problem that has puzzled philosophers for centuries. One man attains riches and position, while his neighbor who started with seemingly the same, and better opportunities, exists in poverty and obscurity. No man can win success who is suffering from an irritating and nerve-racking disease, and the man who has the qualities of success within him, would be quick to recognize this fact and seize the best remedy to eradicate the trouble.

A persons afflicted with a serious case of hemorrhoids or piles is handicapped in the race for power and advancement. It is impossible to concentrate the mental energies when this dreadful trouble is sapping the vital forces. To show how easily this success-destroying trouble can be overcome, we publish the following letter from a prominent Indiana man.

"When I received the former letter and booklet on Piles; Their Nature, Cause and Cure, I was in a critical condition. Ulcers to the number of seven had formed on the inside of the rectum, culminating in a large tumor on the outside resembling a stula. I suffered the most excruciating pain, could get no rest day or night. After reading the booklet I sent to my druggist, but he happened to be out of Pyramid Pile Cure just at that time. However, I obtained a pair of a box from my brother-in-law and began their use. Five pyramids completely cured me. I procured a box later, but have had no occasion to use them. I have been waiting to see that the cure was permanent before writing you of its success. I believe Pyramid Pile Cure to be the greatest and best pile cure on the market, and ask you to please accept of my grateful thanks for this invaluable remedy. I take great pleasure in recommending its use to any sufferer along this line. You may use my name if you wish, with reference to anyone afflicted with this disease." J. O. Little, Arthur, Ind.

You can obtain a free sample of this wonderful remedy, also the booklet described above, by writing your name and address plainly on a postal card and mailing it to the Pyramid Drug Company, Marshall, Mich.

DON'T WAIT A DAY

At the First Sign of Cough, Cold or Catarrh Take Peruna.

MISS AMARILDA MIGNAULT.

Miss Amarilda Mignault, Twenty-second street, Claire, Quebec, Can.

"I suffered with catarrh of the head for more than five years. It affected my hearing and caused cracking, buzzing noises in my head with frequent headaches and a most offensive breath. I tried catarrh remedies with guarantees and rewards attached to them and have taken as high as a dozen bottles of some without any benefit whatever. I made up my mind that all were worthless, so it took a great deal of persuasion from a friend to get me to try Peruna, but I finally did and with such success that in a month's time I considered myself entirely cured. I cannot speak too highly of Peruna, especially for catarrh in all its forms. It not only cured me but several of my friends who have tried it speak in the highest terms of it."—Amarilda Mignault.

The following letter is a voluntary testimonial from the wife of late Governor and now United States Senator F. E. Warren, of Wyoming:

Washington, D. C.,
1848 Wyoming street.
The Peruna Medicine Company, Columbus, O.

Gentlemen:—"In the sacred cause of humanity I wish to bear my testimony to the great efficacy of your valuable medicine, Peruna. I am never without it either in my home or in my travels. It is truly a great triumph of scientific medicine."

"I am constantly troubled with colds, cough, etc., but thanks to your good medicine, Peruna, I always find a prompt cure. I have recommended it to my friends, every one of whom reported most enthusiastically of its good work."

"Notably, one gentleman in my home, Cheyenne, who had tried many remedies under different physicians and had given up hope and his business. After taking a portion of the second bottle he was enabled to walk a mile at a time, and has now resumed his business."

"I believe no medicine ever brought before the public has effected so many permanent cures as Peruna."—Mrs. F. E. Warren.

Address Dr. Hartman, President of The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

Catarrh usually begins as a cold in the head or throat and is neglected until it becomes chronic; then it begins to dawn on the victim that he has catarrh. Unless he is very foolish indeed he will not rest easy until the catarrh is entirely cured. Thousands pay no attention to it until it is too late.

If Peruna is used the cold never becomes chronic, and hence catarrh is prevented. But after catarrh has become thoroughly established, Peruna will cure it, but it will take much longer.

Peruna is for sale at all first-class drug stores at $1 per bottle.

If you do not derive prompt and satisfactory results from the use of Peruna, write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving a full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable advice gratis.
