LOCAL MARKET.

Saturday Dec. 31. ers that today's market would be a more than usually good one, from the it fact that Tuesday's and Thursday's entirely, markets were the smallest on record for this time of the year. The weather was fine and the roads are in good condition, which should have helped swell the attendance. As it was, the market was not up to the ordinary Saturday turnout; sales were brisk in nearly every line represented, and prices were considerably higher.

Grain — Fully 25 loads of oats were on the square; sales brisk at 98c to $1 per cwt for the best loads and 96c to 97c per cwt for the rough loads. Barley went at 90c to 92c per cwt. Hay and Straw-About a dozen loads of hay that had been ordered on the previous day were sold at $9 per ton; a couple of loads of straw sold at $6 per Butter and Eggs - Butter was in great demand today; sales were made at higher prices. Butter in crocks went at 18c to 19c and pound rolls 19c to 21c: creamery, 23c to 25c per pound. Eggs, sold at 25c per dozen wholesale for fresh laid.

Vegetables - Potatoes sold at 70c per bag by the load. New cucumbers, per pozen. Lettuce and radishes, 60c to 75c per dozen. Cabbages, 40c per dozen. Onions, $1 75 per bag. Apples - Not a great many offered; prices were as quoted.

Dressed Hogs—The demand was good for the 20 or 30 hogs offered today. Sales were made at higher prices, viz.: $6 50 to $7 per cwt. Poultry-All kinds of fowl sold well. Turkeys were higher at 15c per pound, wholesale, and 17c to 18c per ound retail; ducks, $1 to $1 25 per pair; chickens, 70c to 90c per pair, or 10c per pound; alive, 8c per pound, or 50c to 65c per pair; geese, 10c per pound, or from 80c to $1 30 each.
Live Hogs—The shipment will be made on Tuesday at $4 50 per cwt. for selects.

He said he did not think himself guilty of being disorderly. He knew the lady to whom he spoke and merely stopped her to ask about a position.

P. C. Greene, who arrested O'Brien, witnessed the incident, and said that the lady appeared to be very anxious to get away from O'Brien. The magistrate stated that if O'Brien had been drunk alone he would have let him go, but when he approached a woman on the street in that condition, whether he knew her or not, he was guilty of a disorderly act. He fined him $5 with an option of 15 days in jail. Frank Harris, who was ordered to ing the property of Jacob Obernesser, some time ago, was given another month, in which to settle the ac-
