FISHER BESTED LEONARD RIVALRY WAS INTENSE

Leamington Had a Two-Run Lead in the Eighth

BOSTON, Aug. 13.—Fisher, of New York, won a pitching duel from Leonard, of Boston, 1 to 0 today. Leonard allowed but four hits in seven innings, but lost in the third when he walked Maisel and made a wild pitch after Fisher had sacrificed. Boone's double then scored Maisel. Fisher kept Boston's hits scattered. [Special to The Advertiser.] TILBURY, Aug. 13 .- The ball game here this afternoon between Leamington and Tilbury ended in a lively row and after Leamington refused to play any more, the umpire declared all bets off and awarded the game to Tilbury. 0 1 0 Fisher, p 1 0 1 0 3 There was a crowd of 1,200 present There was a crowd of 1,200 present and the most intense rivalry prevailed
