

LOCAL STAGE SET FOR RUGBY REVIVAL

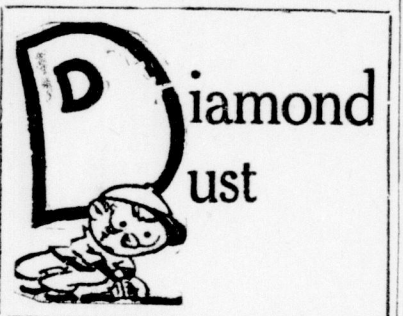

Football Sub-Committee of L. A. A. Meets Tonight To Discuss Plans.

Tonight the rugby sub-committee of the L. A. A. will hold a meeting according to an announcement by Chairman Gordon Marr.

Doug. Heustis, former Argo line-man, who played here last year, has already been appointed player-coach. Heustis' appointment is a wise one. He has a fine reputation, not only as a player but as a student of the game, and he should be able to mold together a team such as London has not seen in a decade.

Jo-Jo Sturteet, star wing of the Argo Big Four team last year, has been moved by his firm to London, and will be available for the team. The arrival of several other stars here through business moves that will prove particularly fortunate for London if they come, indicates that London might hope to justify its ambitions next fall. Sturteet was originally from Petrolia, which would be almost enough to recommend him even if his work since he left the Oil Town had not placed him among the small band of outstanding rugby stars of the Dominion.

London won nothing in the way of rugby honors last season, but great strides in popularizing the game were made. With a more than average team the stage is set to make London the football center it was twenty years ago.

Bryan Harris, Connie Mack's elongated twirler, almost lost his title of the tallest man in the American League in recent competition.

On the Washington Club is Slim McGrew, known to his teammates as "Dangerous Dan." Like Harris, he is a right-handed pitcher.

The first time he was trotted out to the box to face the Athletics, argument was started as to whether he was taller than Harris.

The discussion waxed so warm that the players of both teams had their rival candidates for perpendicular honors line up and be measured.

The result enables Harris to retain his title as champion tall man of the American League. He is just a half-inch higher than McGrew, who measures six feet five and one-half inches.

It will be in the nature of a circus attraction when Harris opposes McGrew on the mound.

Curve ball pitching has for many years been charged with "killing" pitchers arms. Many pitchers whose careers were suddenly terminated blamed their downfall on the "curves" on excessive curve ball pitching. The untimely departure of many pitchers has been explained in baseball circles by the phrase "he pitched himself out of the league." The curve ball has been regarded as the pitcher's curse.

Ty Cobb says the curve ball has been unjustly accused. He denies that curve ball pitching is injurious to the arm.

"No good pitcher has ever been hurt by using the curve ball," says Cobb. "Go down the list of pitchers and see for yourself. There was 'Old Cy' Young, probably the best pitcher the American League ever had. He was one of the greatest of all curve ball pitchers. Look how long he lasted!"

"There was Mordecai Brown! Who ever had a better curve ball than Brown? He pitched the best breaking curve in the history of the game with three fingers and the thumb of his forefinger and he outlasted a flock of pitchers."

"Everyone admits that Joe McGinnity was a great pitcher, and McGinnity was strictly a curve ball pitcher, and still is. Imagine McGinnity pitching baseball today! His hair is gray and he is said to be more than fifty years old, but still pitching. Who ever pitched as much as McGinnity? He worked so often that they nicknamed him 'Iron Man' McGinnity, a name he still carries. And he is entitled to it."

"Want about Chief Bender? And 'Doc' White? And 'Babe' Adams? They all lasted a long time, and they were all curve ball pitchers. Look how long Eddie Plank lasted! Plank was not an out and out curve ball pitcher, but he still pitched a great many curve balls. Christy Mathewson lasted a long time, too. Mathewson did not depend mostly on the curve, but he still threw a lot of them."

At 80 Years of Age Was Troubled With Shortness of Breath Palpitation of the Heart and Fainting Spells

Mrs. M. O'Connor, Whitehouse, Ont., writes: "I have been troubled, Ont., of my life, with shortness of breath, palpitation of the heart and fainting spells. I was advised by a friend to try Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills, which I did, and at once found relief, and I have never had a really bad spell since."

"I am 80 years of age and always keep them in the house, and when I feel any symptoms of my old trouble coming on all I have to do is take a few doses. With the help of your Pills I expect to see many years yet. I always recommend them to any one who is suffering from heart trouble."

Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills are 50c a box at all dealers, or mailed direct on receipt of price, by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.—Adv.

OH, WHERE! O WHERE ARE THEY GONE?

W. O. McGeehan writes: "Ordinarily anonymous communications receive very little attention—if any—in this neck of the Manhattan Woods. Old Subscriber frequently takes a look when I am not looking and Disgusted Fan sometimes sneaks in one below the belt. But there has just come to hand one anonymous communication which I am tempted to publish for the good of the game, as the boys in the fight promotion game would say. Here goes:

"Dear sir: 'I wish to call your attention to a strange coincidence which has some ominous possibilities. First, I would ask you, what has become of Battling Levinsky? Also, what has become of Bill Brennan? Of course you cannot answer offhand, because you do not know. Well, I do know. They have disappeared from the cauliflower ear industry, at least temporarily."

"I have heard, on good authority, that Battling Levinsky is now in Rome, Italy, studying the Italian language and learning to eat spaghetti without the use of the knife. When he becomes proficient in Italian dialect and diet he will return to the United States as Signor Giuseppe Ravioli, the Italian light heavyweight champion.

"As to Bill Brennan, I have learned from sources that cannot be questioned that he is now at Lima, Peru, with a Spanish dictionary and a tutor. Also he has been seen there in the act of consuming chili con carne, enchiladas and tortillas in vast quantities. The scheme is to bring back Bill Brennan as Senor Guillermo Sancho Panza-Quixote and sign him for a series of matches, the last of which will be a bout with Jack Dempsey, the heavyweight champion, provided the senior can remain vertical for the first few bouts.

"I have no doubt that these two will do quite as well as the real importations. I feel better. The only reason I have for squawking on them is that I deplore deception. I am jealous of the status of the American cauliflower ear. My suggestion to rehabilitate the boxing commission should have every American-made cauliflower ear marked in ink with the slogan, 'Made in the U. S. A.' This would prevent the deception which I am quite sure is about to be practiced upon the trusting American fight fans.

"Yours for American-made products,

"COCKEY O'BRIEN"

Far be it from me to even suspect that Dumb Dan Morgan, manager of Battling Levinsky, or the Hon. Leo P. Flynn, manager of Bill Brennan, would resort to such methods to rehabilitate their horizontal gladiators. Yet the temptation must be there. With the Flynns, the Romero Rojasas, the Spallias and the Carpentiers selling for healthy sums in the Measars, Morgan, Flynn and other depressed American fight managers might begin to think of subterfuge of this sort.

The popular taste was for imported wines. In the fighting business the popular taste at present seems to run to foreign fighters.

EXECUTIVE OF JUNIOR LACROSSE LOOP NAMED

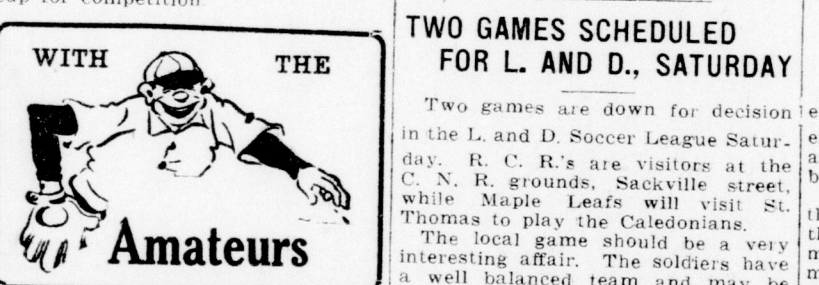

School Boys To Be Supplied With Sticks At Reduced Rates.

At a meeting of those interested in the Schoolboys Lacrosse League, held yesterday, the following officers were elected: Honorary president, Bryden N. Campbell, chairman of the board of education; honorary vice-presidents, M. W. Althouse, principal of Rectory street school; Mark Garrett, principal of Hale street school; W. E. Opper, principal of Lorne avenue school; D. J. Ferguson, principal of Boyle Memorial school; president, George McWhirter, 47 Riverview avenue; secretary, Walter Gurd, 185 Dundas street; executive, Thos. H. Yull, Osborne G. Wallace, Sidney E. H. Johnston, J. W. Jewitt, R. Donohue, E. H. Johnston, J. H. Clark, Charles Grafton, W. H. Rhodes and W. W. Savage.

The executive has arranged to supply lacrosse sticks to the schoolboys at the reduced rate of 75 cents, and boys wishing to purchase sticks may leave their names with the president, Mr. McWhirter. Practices are being held every evening every week at the fair grounds, and the object is to learn the game should be on hand at every practice.

Schools wishing to join the league can do so by communicating with the president or secretary.

The C. A. A. has agreed to furnish the winning team with a set of medals, and it is expected that some of the officials will furnish a silver cup for competition.

The Intercounty senior race sizes up tighter than ever this year. The removals and additions to the teams seem to have balanced things up a little better.

Despite the fact that they appeared in their new black uniforms with white trimmings, the Galt Terriers were walking when the funeral procession was over last Saturday.

An inquiring Galt scribe found out that Johnston, Guelph's new middle guardener, supposed to have come from St. Hyacinthe, Que., has a southern accent. Less than this could start a rumor in the Intercounty.

KNIGHTS OF COLUMBUS PLAY ST. MARTIN'S TONIGHT

The St. Martin's team of the C. A. A. will play the Knights of Columbus at 8:30 at Sunshine Park. The management requests the following players to be on hand: Moisse, Hanlon, Ward, E. Clark, Rickard, Bill O'Rourke, P. Clark, Sanford, Reas, Croteau, Henry, Tom McAuley, Myers and any others wishing for a tryout.

MILLS, L. E. A. C. FIELDER, STARS IN SHORT GAME

The L. E. A. C. youngsters were leading the Tecumsehs in a Juvenile City League game last night by the score of 10 to 5 at Queens Park when the game was called at the end of the third inning on account of darkness.

In the first the Tecumsehs scored four runs off Cook, after he had walked three and allowed one hit. Reeves, who relieved him, pitched stellar ball, and was never in danger in the two innings he pitched. Jimmy Mills, the diminutive right fielder for the east enders, was the best hitter, getting two doubles in the same number of times at bat.

The score: R. H. E. Tecumsehs 4 1 0—5 3 3 L. E. A. C. 1 4 5—10 1 Osborne, Graham, White Bennett; Cook and Howard, Reeves and Coleman.

NEW HIGHWAY SCANDAL LOOMS

Hon. G. S. Henry Intimates Disclosures of Startling Nature May Result From Probe.

CONSTRUCTION WORK

Canadian Press Despatch.

Toronto, May 14.—Hon. George S. Henry, provincial minister of public works and highways, stated today that Ontario has what appears to be a brand new scandal on its hands—a highways scandal.

For months, he said, the department had had investigators out working on the roadways built in the last four or five years, with results, he said, that may prove to be serious. Investigations are being carried out not only on the paved roadways, but on gravel roads, where Mr. Henry's information is that the province has in some cases not received proper returns for the money it paid out.

The department has been measuring the thickness of the concrete roads and comparing the measurements with the contractual undertaking, and making similar calculations on the less expensive roads.

Mr. Henry said today he had no reports before him, and therefore would not give the result of investigations in any detail. He intimated, however, that the indications were that there would be disclosures of a startling nature.

JAPAN DENIES BREAKING PACT

Admiral Okada Says Japanese Naval Strength Is According To Terms.

By E. R. EGGER.

Special Cable To The London Advertiser and Chicago Daily News, Copyright.

Tokio, May 14.—Vice-Admiral Okada, acting minister of the Japanese navy, when interviewed today, expressed surprise and deep concern over the report emanating from British sources in Washington and alleging that American naval circles believe Japan has not fully observed the terms of the Washington conference naval pact.

Categorically denying the implication, Okada said: "Shortly after the Washington conference Japan made public her naval strength, according to the agreement, and detailed her building program. These facts were broadcast throughout the world. Japan is honestly abiding by and carrying out the terms of the pact despite reports and beliefs to the contrary."

The Japanese navy, he said, is strictly within the limits of the Washington conference naval pact. He said that the Japanese navy is strictly within the limits of the Washington conference naval pact.

BURNEY AIRSHIP PLAN WILL BE REJECTED

MacDonald Announces Proposed Service To India Will Be Abandoned.

Associated Press Despatch.

London, May 14.—The British government has decided, after careful examination, to reject the Burney airship scheme, which contemplated bi-weekly service to India.

Prime Minister MacDonald made this announcement in the Commons this afternoon, but said the government had agreed to authorize the air ministry to initiate a comprehensive program of research and experiments at Cardington, including experiments with the existing airship and the construction of a new one with a capacity of 5,000 cubic feet.

The air ministry, he stated, would construct a terminal and an intermediate base overseas with facilities to enable these two airships to be operated with safety between England and India.

SENTENCED FOR MONTH FOR THEFT OF DIAMOND

Owner of Stone Unaware of Loss Until Notified by Police.

Special to The Advertiser.

Sarnia, May 14.—Fred S. Phelps, 17, of Sarnia, was today sentenced to one month imprisonment in the county jail for theft of a diamond ring. Phelps was searched by police, who suspected he was concerned in a local burglary, and the ring was found in his possession. His ownership was traced, and it appears that Phelps took it from a Brock street home one evening when he was visiting a young lady. Phelps pleaded guilty when faced with the theft. The family had been unaware of the fact that the ring was missing until the police communicated with them.

Housewives' Nerves

How to make work like play for half a cent a day

Like thousands of other married women who lead stay-at-home lives, Mary was dull. Her complaint was "Housewives' Nerves." She said she was "fed-up" with dish-washing, grate-cleaning, bed-making, cooking, room-scouring, polishing, dusting, scouring, ironing, and the hundred and two odd jobs of a woman's day.

Dick noticed it. Dick was Mary's husband. Her depression, her lack of vim, her rebellion against the daily round, and those attacks of "Housewives' Nerves" made him wonder if married life were worth while. There was the setting for tragedy in that ordinary little house.

Then came the Woman who Knew.

Domesticity wasn't dull for her.

She looked alive, happy, healthy, pleased with life.

That is the effect which KRUSCHEN SALTS has on the woman worker. All she need do is to cover a 10 cent piece each morning with Kruschen Salts and drop the magic powder into her first cup of coffee or tea. Nature does the rest.
