THE DAILY FREE PRESS. LONDON. ONT. MONDAY. FEBRUARY 8, 1892.

HEGREAT SHILOH'S CONSUMPTION CURE.

This GREAT COUGH CURE, this success-ful CONSUMPTION CURE is sold by drugvery much for the same, and you will gists on a positive guarantee, a test that no other association for this expression of their Cure can stand successfully. If you have a COUGH, HOARSENESS or LA GRIPPE, it sympathy and interest with us in the work will cure you promptly. If your child has the CROUP or WHOOPING COUGH, use it quickly and relief is sure. If you fear CON-SUMPTION, don't wait until your case is hopeless, but take this Cure at once aud receive immediate help. Large bottles, 5oc. and $1.00. Travelers convenient pocket size 25c. Ask your druggist for SHILOH'S CURE. If your lungs are sore or back lame, use Shiloh's Porous Plasters. Price, 25c.

W T. STRONG, And ... 155 Dundas street.

NANCY.

f have begun my voluminous farewells. I have kissed them all round once, and am be have kissed them all round once, and am be-ginalog again. How can one make up one's min i where to stop? with whom to end? "Never you marry. Barbara!' say I, in a sobbing whisper, as I clasp her in my last embrece, greatly distorting my new bonnet, 'it is so disa-greeable! We are off, followed by a to nado of shoes— one simed with dexterous violence by that up.

one, aimed with dexterous violence by that un-lucky Bobby, goes high to cut the bridegroom's lucky Bobby, goes high to cut the bridegroom's left eye open, as he waves his good byes. As we trot smartly away, I turn round in the carriage and look at them through my tears. There they all are! After all, what a nice looking family! Even Tou Tou! there is something pretty about her, and, standing as she is now, her legs look out on the the the look quite nice and thick.

We reach Dover before dinner time; Sir Roger has gone out to speak to the courier who meets us there. I am left alone in our great, stiff sit-ting-room at the Lord Warden. Instantly I get along with one hired man, for in 1891.

The following letter has been received the Treasurer of St. Paul's W. A. M. Kit-a-wa-sin Indian School, Christ Church

Mission, Peace River, via Edmonton, N.-From a church paper recently received I see that you have sent the sum of $7 to Miss Dixon for this mission. I thank you The Wiarton curlers

The Wiarton curlers are expected here some time this week to play with the winplease tender my sincere thanks to your

the numerous and petty appeals that are continually being made to the churches in changed hands after the Toronto show Ontario, that I have received a very liberal Friday night, Mr. George Scott buying response. I must confess that it was with her for $50. some little fear and trembling that I relinquished my claim upon the Church Missionary Society for stipend, but I came to the conclusion that if the Lord willed me to remain in this field of labor I should not be left very small, still I hope to struggle through. and will be seen at the W. K. C. show. I am hopefu! that after this year I shall be The dates of the Lake Ontario Yacht cannot, of course, be seen on this conable to reduce very considerably the two Racing Association are as follows:-Belleprincipal items in the past year's expendi-ture. Our good Bishop was with us the past fall and he has engaged to supply me 27 and 28.

a school grant that I hope to obtain will pay the said teachers' board and salary without increasing my liabilities. This Mr. T. J. Fitzsimmons of Toronto ting-room at the Lord Warden. Instantly I rush to the writing materials. What, writing already? says my husband, re-entering, and coming over with a smile to-ward me. 'Have you forgotter any of your finery? No, no!' cry I, impulsively, spreading both hands over the sheet: 'do not lock! you must not lock! 'Do you think I should? he says, reproachful-iy, turning quickly aw iy 'Do 'I should like you to! I do not know why 'Do.' I should like you to! I do not know why of those items, but depending one pound of either 'Do.' I should like you to! I do not know why of those items, but depending one pound of either 'Do.' I should like you to! I do not know why of those items, but depending one pound of either 'Do.' I should like you to! I do not know why of those items, but depending one pound of either 'Do.' I should like you to! I do not know why of those items, but depending one pound of either 'Do.' I should like you to! I do not know why of those items, but depending one pound of either 'Do.' I should like you to! I do not know why of those items, but depending one pound of either 'Do.' I should like you to! I do not know why of those items, but depending one pound of either 'Do.' I should like you to! I do not know why

 'THE SPORTSMAN'S COLUMN.

 'THE SPORTSMAN'S COLUMN.

 Notes From the Base Ball Field, and the Bace and Cinder Tracks.

 'Harvard's foot ball expenses last season were $10,175. One of the items was $702 race. The entries for the Queen's Plate, Bueders's Stake, ('93), All Comers' Stake ('93), Maple Leaf ('93), Stanley Produce Stake ('95), close March 1. These races close May 1:-York Handicap, Handicap Steeplechase, Juven-ile Scurry, Dominion Handicap, Queen's Plate (additional entries). Stakes closing May 21:-Trial Stake, Woodbine Steeple-chase, Toronto cup. Free Welter Handichase. Toronto cup, Free Welter Handi-cap, Walker cup, Helter Skelter chase, Roval Canadian Hurdle Handicap, Hunt-some time this week to play with the win-ning clubs of the district. The Maher-Fitzsimmons match will take place as arranged on March 2. Maher will weigh 175 and "Fitz" 162. I shall enclose with this a copy of the balance sheet for the financial year ending June 30th. You will see, that considering the numerous and petty appeals that are continually being made to the other the the sector of the continual of the continuation of the continuatio

Prof. Lewis Swift, of Warner Observa tory, Rochester, writes to the Democrat Feb. 3:-

The next Manchester handicap will be run February 13 and 15, and Collins, the failed to notice of late two stars shining in American, has four and one-half yards the south western evening sky with uncame to the conclusion that if the Lord willed me to remain in this field of labor I should not be left without means of support. It is true that the amount left on account of stipend is and will be seen at the W. K. C. show. sun, the phenomenon of nearest approach with a young man for school work, and he has also guaranteed the sum of $200 annually towards his support. This with Everett C. McClelland, the champion I can find in the astronomical library of runner of the United States, is ready to the Warner observatory, no record of so makes very large demands on my time, and then I shall try for show to compete for the first for the show to compete for the $100 special of-fered for the best of Pitcher's get whelped which will appear as a single star. It is doubtful if history records an appulse so ## for Infants and Children.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that recommend it as superior to any prescription Rown to me "H A Arguna M D I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. ARCHER, M. D., Without injurious medication. 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

CARLOS MARTYN, D. D.

New York City. Late Pastor Bloomingdale Reformed Church

within easy rea

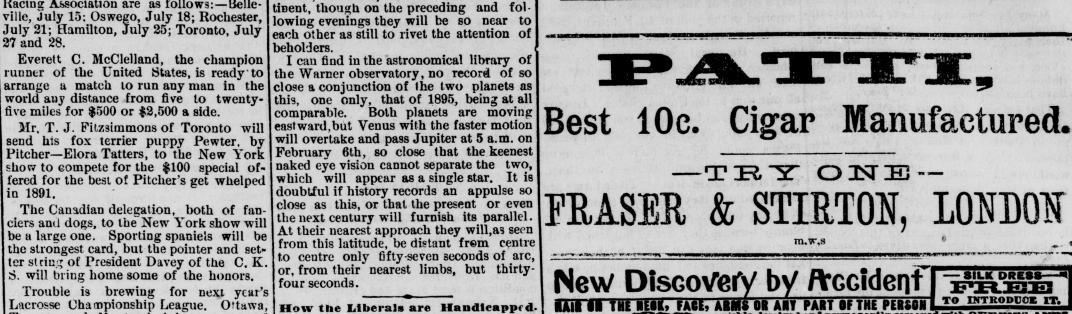

"For several years I have recommended your 'Castoria,' and shall always continue to do so as it has invariably produced beneficial "The use of 'Castoria' is so universal and its merits so well known that it seems a work of supererogation to endorse it. Few are the intelligent families who do not keep Castoria

EDWIN F. PARDEB, M. D., "The Winthrop," 125th Street and 7th Ave.,

New York City.

1.2 转移。 新闻的 网络拉拉拉斯 网络拉拉斯 化学的 化学的 化

"Do! I should like you to! I do not know why I said it! I was only sending them a line, just to tell them how dreadfully I missed them all?" of those items, but depending entlrely upon what we can raise on the farm. I am the farm is and Cornwalls favor the admisthankful to say that our crops for the past Shamrocks and Cornwalls favor the admis-

The Peace River Mission.

W. T., Dec. 18, 1891.

I have been married a week. A week indeed! season, both in quantity and quality, was sion. The Oitawas threaten to secede in the best that we have had yet. We had a such an event. world occupied a week! Seven geological ages, return of 695 bushels of grain, 250 bushels William Burdell Johnson, who claims perhaps, but not seven days. We have been to Brussels, to Antwerp, to Cologne, We have seen (wit i the penetrating incense odor in our nos-trils, and the kneeling peasants at our feet) the He was astonished at the quality of our tor of the Manhattan A. C., to a match in trils, and the kneeling peasants at our feet) the Descent from the Cross, the Elevation of the Cross-dead Christs manifold. Can it be possi-ble that the brush which worthily painted Christ's agong can be the same that descended to eternize redundant red fish-wives, and call them goddesses? We have given ourselves cricks in the necks staring up at the divine in completeness of C-logne C1thedral. And all through crucifixions, cathedrals, table d'hotes, I have been deadly, deadly homesick-homesick as none but one that has been a member of a iarge family, and has been out into the world on his or her own account for the first time, can understand. When first I drove away through the pack, my sensations were something like boog that we all used to experience on the rare occasions when father, as a treat, took one or occasions when father, as a treat, took one or other of us out on an excursion with him-the trust that the dire distress that for some trust that the dire distress that for some ince we set off—yes—once 1 did, at the recol-lection of an old joke of Bobby's, that we all thought very silly at the time, but that strikes me as irresistibly funny now, that it occurs to me in the mider of iskness to me as irresistibly funny now, that it occurs to me in the mider of iskness to supplies, our hearts are filled with gratime in the midst of strange scenes and of jokeless tude and our tongues with praise. foreigners.

It aime, He loves. How many thousand years ago the labored Conjugation of that verb seems to me! Now, if I do not converse with Sir Roger, I must remain silent. And, somehow, I cannot talk to him now as fuently as I used. Before - daring our short previous acquaintance where I used to pester the poor old man with filial aspirations that he could not recipro ate, there seemed no end of the things I had to say to him. I felt as if I could have told him anything. I bubbled over with silly jests. It never occurred to me to think whether I pleased him or not: but now-now, the sense of inequalities that yawns between us -weighs like of the duration and a Christian home to at least forty or fifty of these poor chil-dren. Our Sunday services are well at-lump of lead upon me. I am in constant fear of falling below his estimate of me. Before I speak, I think whether what I am going to say will be worth saying. of God. and, as very few of my remarks come up to this standard, I become extremely sileat. Oh, if we could meet some one we knew—even if it were some one that we rather dislike than I regret to say that Mrs. Crick's health is giving me considerable anxiety. Last winter she did the whole work of the house, cooked for family and school, car-ried on her sewing and knitting classes without any domestic help whatever. The were some one that we rither distinct that otherwise; some one that would laugh and have as few wits as I, and be young. But it is too early in the year for many people to be yet abroad, and, so far, we have fallen up-on no acquaintances. Once, indeed, at Antwerp, I see in the distance a man whose tigure bears striking resemblance to that of 'hoothless Jack,' result was when spring came she had a complete breakdown. I am thankful to say that she is now some better, but still and my heart leaps-detestable as I have always far from well. I can assure you that this thought Barbara's aspirant; but, in coming near-er, the likeness disappears, and I relapse into is a very poor place for a person to be sick depression. Long ago I had told my husband—on the first day I had made his acquaintance, indeed—that I had no conversation, and now he is proving I had no conversation, and now he is proving I had no conversation. The confession At but much more trying for a woman. The experimentally the truth of my confession. At home our talk has always been made up of allu-become part of our language. Each sentence would require a dictionary of explanation to any strange hearer. Now, if I wish to be un-dowtend I may strange hearer. Now, if I wish to be un-the truth of the total main out here, but much more trying for a woman. The inconvenience and discomforts are not few. What would your good people think if they had to do as we sometimes have, when we have no light, no candles, no oil, derstood, I must say my meaning in plain Eng-lish, and very laborious I find it.

To be continued.

VALUABLE TO PARENTS.

An English Girls', School in Canada, that we have to put up with. Attention has been attracted to a new I sometimes think that we may departure in the educational line, which appropriately adopt the words of best of condition, and she is expected to has lately been started by two English St. Paul, and say, "We are troubled on cut a large slice off her record this season. ladies, in establishing a superior school for every side, yet not in distress; perplexed, Mr. Forbes says that if Sunol should start girls, resembling those admirable institu-tions which are so universal in the Old destroyed." The work of establishing this privilege of starting Nancy Hanks on the tions which are so universal in the Old destroyed. The work of establishing this privilege of starting ranks of the same track and day. wanting in Cauada. This school has and anxiety, but we do not forget that it has been the "sowing time" with us. We healthy neighborhood of Lakefield, near Peterborough, Ont., by the Misses Roberts, from England. One of the ladies is a craduate of Oxford University England on the ladies is a craduate of Oxford University England on the ladies of the lad of which was wheat. We have just had a to be the champion swimmer of America, visit from Mr. William Ogilvie, D. L. S. challenges J. J. McGee, swimming instrucgrain. He has taken out with him to the Manhattan tank for from $250 to $500 Ottawa full samples of our past year's a side. Johnson says he can swim 200 crops. Our Indians have also had a good yards in three minutes or better.

The backer of Cyclops and Sandowe, for from $1,000 to $10,009 a side and the clines the challenge is open to any man in the world.

lowing cities have sent word that they will lic confidence, be represented :- Newark, Lebanon, Har-

I am glad also to report progress in our risburg, Wilkesbarre, Scranton, Bingham After forty, people do not laugh at absolutely nothing. They may be very easily moved to mirth, as, indeed, to do him justice. Sir Roger is; but they do not laugh for the pure physical pleasure of grinning. The weight of the ab-Peter Jackson, the colored pugilist, was is; but they do not lange for the purchase applications are still confing in our we lack in the constant of the ab-pleasure of grinning. The weight of the ab-solute tete-a-tete of a honey-moon, which has preved trying to a more violent love than mine, is oppressing me. At home, if I grew tired of talking to one. I At home, if I grew tired of talking to one. I could talk to apother. If I waxed weary of At home, if I grew thred of taiking to one, I could talk to another. If I waxed weary of Bobby's sea-tales, I might refresh myself with listening to the Brat's brazgings about Oxford-with 'ou Tou's murdered French lesson: J'aime, 1 leve. Tu aimes, Thou lovest. Up in the search of the importance of our Tu aimes, Thou lovest. educational work. I have unbounded would get fair play, but because of the faith in the power of the Gospel to convert feeling there against my race. As to signthe hardest heart and to enlighten the ing this agreement, I will say that I shall darkest mind, but I do think that Divine sign nothing. I will finish the fight I have grace has better scope for its operations on hand first, and then look after others. where there is some intelligence than where If I win this fight with Slavin, then I will there is nothing but ignorance and dark- be glad to meet Corbett and give him first chance if he wants it, but be e this fight ness. I do trust that God will so prosper the work we have undertaken that we is over I will do nothing."

shall very soon be in the position to offer a A correspondent writes: -On Friday, the 12th of February, a wrestling match will age Company has been recorded. The consideration is $315,000. take place in Parkhill for fifty dollars aside, between Donald Currie, of Parkhill, tended, and there is a manifestation of an and G. Perrie, of Brussels. Perrie to throw increasing desire to know and do the will Currie three times in 40 minutes, failing to the affair, as they are both out for the tween the two since they met at Strathroy Ont.

last 24th of May. Both have plenty of friends and backers. Perrie is training in Strathroy, while Currie has John D. Mc-Pherson working hard to have him in the NEWS FROM THE HORSE WORLD.

Eugene Leigh has bought the four-yearold ch. g. Sandstone, by Tom Ochiltree, out of Rosa Kadir, from J. Hynes. Price, $1,500.

when we have no light, no candles, no oil, and our evening meal has to be ate by the Doncaster, by Stockwell, who cost the light of the open stove door, and the cloth, Duke of Westminister $17,900, died reinstead of being spread upon the table, is cently in Hungary. Doncaster was the sire of Bend Or, who is the sire of the great Ormonde and other Derby winners. loss, with contents, the inmates narrowly laid out on the floor; and yet this is a small matter to some of the inconveniences Nancy Hanks is reported to be in the best of condition, and she is expected to

Montreal Gazette.

The fact is the Liberals are handicapped by their chiefs. Mr. Mercier, the conlemued, who aided in the robbery of hundreds of thousands of dollars from the Quebec treasury, is head of the party in this province. Sir Richard Cartwright, who goes about the country boasting that he told a delegation of respectable citizens who approached him to go to the devil. and who habitually speaks of an able opponent as a young puppy, and of the party he is assailing as a pack of curs and the Police Gazette Friday to match Cyclops against Louis Cyr to lift weights for from $1,000 to $10,000 control of the term of ter pamphlet telling her enemies where they world's championship. In case Cyr de- could best stab his country, and who advocates the Liberal policy because he regards it as the first step to the oblitera-

President C. D. White has called a meet- tion of the Canadian Dominion. These ing of the Eastern League, to be held at three men are as a millstone round the Albany on Tuesday, and extends a cordial Liberal party's neck, and not for years invitation to all cities interested in the new after they cease to be prominent in its league to send representatives. The fol- counsels will it recover its place in the pub-

C. C. RICHARDS & Co.:-Gents,-I have used your MINARD's

LINIMENT in my family for a number of years for various cases of sickness, and more particularly in a severe attack of la grippe which I contracted last winter, and I firmly believe that it was the means of saving my life. C. I. LAGUE. Sydney, C. B.

-The deed transferring the Dartmouth N. S., rope works to the National Cord-

mwf

ATTACKED BY AN ENEMY. -- Dear Sirs,-About a year ago I bad a very bad attack accomplish that Currie to vin the stakes and gate money. Should Currie throw Perrie once during the 40 minutes he also Network and got so weak I could scarcely R. & T. W. stamped on each drop. Try them. wins. There is great excitement over walk, when one day I saw an advertisement for B. B. B. and thought I would honor and money, and a good square match try a bottle. Four bottles cured me com-can be relied on. There is bad blood be- pletely, and 1 am now strong and healthy. pletely, and 1 am now strong and healthy. --MISS JANET STUART, Muskoka Falis,

> -Mr. Thomas Murray, the recently unseated Grit member for Pontiac, says he exc uted in the best style and a best trim. Everyone is looking for an ex-citing match and a hard struggle. NEWS FROM THE HORSE WORLD. judgment at the polls.

> Dr. T. A. Slocum's Oxygenized Emulsion of Pure Cod Liver Oi!. I you have any Throat trouble, use it. For sale by all druggists; 35 cents per bottle.

The residence occupied by Mr. N. J. escaped with their lives.

r acobs of TRADE MARK

