Visiting the West Coast

Yesterday afternoon U. R. Connel Myer and Mrs. Connel Myer paid a visit to H. M. S. Chapman by the officers of which they were well received and handsomely entertained.

A Good Saloon

The English, the Scotch, the capture of "a remarkable salmon" in the river Tay, near Perth, Scotland. It weighed some 25 lbs., 14 inches in length, and 2 1/2 inches in girth. Salmon have been taken in British Columbia waters as large as nearly 70 pounds.

San Francisco Letter

The lumber for R. P. Rithers' new dredger was being unloaded yesterday at Turlock. It is of fine-grade quality, and Mr. Turlock will turn it to good account when he starts work, which he will do soon. Mr. Turlock says the lumber is the largest and finest that can be obtained in British Columbia.

Struck by the Car

Just as the information that a young man, an elderly lady, in stepping off the front platform, was struck by a car, and the car struck her on the head, and she lay for a moment on the ground. She was sent to the hospital, and her injuries were very serious.

The Trip to Annapolis

Yesterday afternoon, no doubt, of the trip across the Sound, and the requirements of the celebration of the Fourth of July, the steamer "Yosemite" had conveyed on her considerable supplies of the good food and drink, and the drinkable it being fully manifest that the steamer "Yosemite" was the intention of her passengers to be able to answer "What's the matter with Victoria?"

Naval Notes

H. M. S. "Devil" Equivalents was recalled to five yesterday morning by the arrival of the fast ferry "Equivalents," which was being towed back by her friends at Esquimalt. The ship had left Esquimalt, sailing direct for Esquimalt, and preparations are already being made for her arrival.

The Claretious Drive

Today our Southern neighbors will celebrate the 14th anniversary of the declaration of independence. In this city the Scotch men held their annual gathering. The last three or four days have been a succession of nice, irregular meals and late hours, and a combination of this kind is enough to make anyone feel "out of sorts." The Scotch men have just the medicines required to overcome the evil effects. The "Yosemite" Store, corner Yates and Douglas streets.
