Professor Blackie has resigned the Greek chair in Elinburgh university, after holding it for thirty years.

Cetewayo, being interviewed by an English correspondent in Madeira, manifested great interest in the war in Egypt, about which he is said to have put several in-

"I should like to know something about this Egyptian question, dad," said a young this Egyptian question, dad," said a young New Haven midget at tea last evening. "What are they firing at Alexandria for ? Because it is great?" "Yes, my child; ? suppose so." "And who is Arabi Bey and Dervish Pacha and Itamail——" "They are all foreigners, my son; you can have no possible interest in them. But your supper and keep quiet." This is the way some parents have of withholding information they haven't get from their children.

Just at dusk, two ladies were hurrying Just at dusk, two ladies were hurrying along the street to catch a car. One remarked that they would be very fortunate if they should meet one with a flag on it, as that especial car would carry them nearer their destination. At that moment a man staggered along. He had been having a time of it. The one word "flag" reached his ear and roused all his patriotic instincts. "Flag!" he began to shout; "rah, 'rah, 'rah merican flag!" and as the ladies boarded the car the last they saw of him he was standing on the corner still loudly 'rahing!.

person pecuniarily interested in her forthcoming tour in this country: "The door opens and a woman, who has a clinging black dress on covered with crape, comes toward us. I look at her more closely, and toward us. I look at her more closely, and quickly see that she is a pretty woman still. Her blonde hair is crimped and parted a little to one side—a fashion much affected by the women in England at present—and then coiled at the back of her neck; her dress is cut a little low and shows plainly the 'singer's throat,' which is beautifelly white; her eyes are clear and a bright blue, and set deeply in her head."

more determined than men. The marriage of Mr. McCarnahan and Miss Burnham was ferbidden by the girl's father, at Paris, Ill. She escaped from the house in the night, walked eight miles to a telegraph office and sent a message to her lover to come to her. But he, less resolute, had committed suicide.

Thomas Robinson, Farnham Centre, P. Q., writes: "I have been afflicted with rheumatism for the lest ten years, and have tried many resuedies without any relief. I got a bottle of Dr. Themas' Eclectric Oil, and found it gave instant relief, and since then have had no attack. I would recommend it to all."

Alex. H. Stephens was lately asked if he knew Garfield well. He replied, "Yes, I saw a great deal of him. He and I served on the same committee several years together. He, Randall and Frye used to be in my room nearly every night to play whist. He was not a good player. Frye was greatly his superior at the game.

Mr. T. C. Berchard, public school teacher. Norland, writes: "During the fall of 1881 I was much treubled with billiousmess and dyspepsis, and part of the time was unable to attend to the duties of my profession. Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery and Dyspeptic cure was recommended to me, and I have not pleasure in stating that I was entirely cured by using one bottle. I have not had an attack of my old complaint since, and have gained fifteen pounds in weight."

New England fun : Some girls think hemselves just good enough to eat, simply because they are in their sauce age. This dear reader, is a play upon the word sausage, which is, of course, good enough to eat. With a little study the beauties of this paragraph will be unfolded, and probably you never saw sage prouder of a pun than the writer is of this.

First relief ultimately a cure. These are the successive effects of one of the most dethe successive effects of one of the most de-servedly popular remedies in the Deminion. Northrop & Lyman's Vegetable Discovery, and Dyspeptic curs, which reforms an ir-regular condition of the bowels and liver, invigorates the stomach, renews digestion, and changes the current of the blood from a sluggish and turbid into a pure, rapid, and fertilizing stream.

Postal Telegraphy. The postal telegraph company has completed the contract for erecting two wires between New York and Cleveland, and contracts will be closed for the extension to Chicago. The line is to run from New York by way of Binghampton, Elmira, Corry, Pa., and Cleveland to Chicago, but there will be no station on the line except at the two terminal points, and no attempt is to be made by the company to secure way business, it preferring to confine its attention to what may be called trunk line service. The lines are to be constructed with forty poles to the mile and are to be completed by Dec. 1. The postal telegraph company has recently purchased the wires of the bakers' and merchants' company between New York and Washington and will have a new copper wire extended over the poles by Nov. 1. It is expected that a wire will be placed between New York and Boston by the same date. The postal telegraph company has com-

MOTHERS! MOTHERS! MOTHERS
Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with the excruciating pain of cutting teeth? If so, go and get a bottle of MRS. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately—depend upon it; there is no mistake about it. There is not a mether on earth who has ever used it, who will not tell you at once that it will regulate the bowels, and give rest to the mother and relief and health to the child, operating like magio. It is perfectly safe to use in all cases, and pleasant to the taske, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States. Sold everywhere. 25 cents bottle.

King Charles of Roumania, is described as a handsome man, rather above the middle height, with a severe expression, but animated in conversation and thoroughly well educated.

A. M. Hamilton, Warkworth, writes:

"For weeks I was troubled with a swelled ankle, which caused me much pain and annoyance. Mr. Maybee, of this place, recommended Dr. Thomas Educatric Oil. The first dose relieved me in one hour. I continued taking it in teaspoonful doses for a few days, and have not had an attack of its since, now nearly one year."
