

THE DISASTER IN JAV.

One Hundred Thirteen Persons Killed by the Recent Earthquake. London, Sept. 1.—Despatches from Java report that fears of further eruptions in Java have subsided. All efforts are concentrated on the burial of the corpses, which are chiefly strewn on the coast. The vapors issuing from the fissures in the divided mountains have caused unusually rapid decomposition of exposed parts of the great rock at the summit of the peaks. A number of them split apart suddenly on Wednesday, causing loss of depending earth. This caused several huge landslides, carrying destruction and death on the edge of the town of Narra. Fifteen Chinese in a section of the sanitary corps were buried. A vessel which attempted to enter the straits of Sunda on Wednesday had a hole stove in her bow.

RAVAGE IN THE COFFEE AND SUGAR CROPS IN BANTAM.

Several European and officials are among the dead and missing. The coffee and sugar crops in Bantam suffered severely from the volcanic eruption and tidal waves. Several European and officials are among the dead and missing. The coffee and sugar crops in Bantam suffered severely from the volcanic eruption and tidal waves. Several European and officials are among the dead and missing. The coffee and sugar crops in Bantam suffered severely from the volcanic eruption and tidal waves. Several European and officials are among the dead and missing.

THE DEATHS FROM CHOLERA IN EGYPT SATURDAY WERE 70.

Cholera in the south is increasing rapidly among the cattle. Lord and Lady Rosebery sailed from Liverpool for New York Saturday. Two more dynamites, Casey and Kelly, have been arrested at Glasgow. Zeland is in a state of anarchy and Cotway has asked for British protection. At a meeting of Irishmen at London money was subscribed to pay an eminent solicitor to defend O'Donnell, the slayer of Caray.

INTELLIGENCE RECEIVED THAT A LIGHT OCCURRED ON THE 31 AND 5TH OF AUGUST AT COMMUNICATION BETWEEN THE ISLANDS.

Queen Victoria sent a magnificent bouquet of lilac and white roses to be placed on Chamberlain's coffin. The roses will go to last evening for five days for Chamberlain. Mr. Vanatelli, papal nuncio at Vienna, consecrated the remains of Chamberlain Saturday in the presence of a delegate from the Emperor Francis Joseph, a number of bishops and others. English commercial circles in China are greatly alarmed over the active movements of the Chinese troops, and the merchants at Hong Kong do not regard the French treaty with the Anamite leader as of any consequence.

REMOVED WEEK.

London, Sept. 2.—The general transportation company steamer America, Capt. Santilli, which sailed from Havre yesterday for New York has founded. The American passed the Lizard all right last night. There was a heavy gale throughout England Saturday night and Sunday doing much damage to property. There were many wrecks and some loss of life. Inquiry is being confirmed the report of the foundering of the St. Amers.

WEEKEND'S SHOW FOR THE GENERAL.

Paris, Sept. 2.—A telegram from Frobenius says the Countess Chambord having expressed a wish that the position of chief mourner at the funeral of her husband should be taken by the latter's nearest relative, the count of Paris decided to return to Paris with the King of Rome and his family. The question of precedence throughout had been a very delicate character. It was said yesterday that a representative of the elder branch of the Bourbon family.

ITALY'S POLICY.

Rome, Sept. 2.—The papers here are discussing Italy's foreign policy, especially in connection with the renewed Austro-German alliance. Opinions says that the conditions of the alliance remain the same. Italy, while abstaining from belligerence, is taking a position of neutrality, and attempting to play great patience and good temper, and at the same time hold herself prepared to fight or use her influence to promote peace or retard a catastrophe of war.

ZENTIA.

Geneva, Sept. 2.—Zentia declares he was absent from Paris when the pronouncement was made in Badajoz. He considers the Bourbon dynasty as hereditary through a continuation with the French government or granted commissions in the Spanish army. He intends to issue a manifesto to the Spanish democratic party.

ARREST OF SUSPECTS AT GLASGOW.

Glasgow, Sept. 1.—The police decline to reveal the source of the information which led to the arrest yesterday of six Irishmen. The prisoners were charged with blowing up the largest gasometer in the city, destroying a railway shed, and attempting to destroy with dynamite the aqueduct of the Clyde canal.

MARY ANDERSON'S LONDON DEBUT.

London, Sept. 1.—Mary Anderson made a successful debut at the Lyceum theatre to-night in 'Igonara'. The house was crowded. Miss Anderson met with a reception of the warmest kind, and the favorable interest she produced deepened with each act.

THE DEAD KING.

Yeniya, Sept. 2.—It is stated the emperor's brother will not attend the funeral of Chamberlain, but will be an under-king. There is some talk of an understanding between the emperor and the standing prince since the emperor's recent visit to the Count de Paris.

A SPANISH MILITARY BUREAU.

Madrid, Sept. 2.—A royal order gazetted to-day provides that any officer or sergeant proved to be a member of any secret society shall be dismissed from the service and be originally prosecuted.

Boston Exposition.

An informal gathering of the executive committee of the foreign exhibition, including Mayor Palmer, representatives of the press, city council, and visitors from the continent was held in the exposition building this evening. The mammoth halls were beautifully lighted with the electric light, highlighting the effect of the exhibits which are being displayed. The most striking feature is the Japanese specimens of native handiwork, lacquered vases and quaint pieces of pottery, the wonderful collection of paintings by old masters in the Italian corner, the Persian tapestries, and the entire Austrian show.

Railway Accident.

BALTIMORE, Sept. 2.—A collision occurred at Highland Park, on the Western Maryland railway this morning between a regular and an extra freight train, both coming east. The regular stopped on account of a hot box and was run into by the extra. Engineer Crane of the extra jumped and was injured. Wm. Abell, brakeman, was killed. J. Dorsey, cattle driver, was so badly injured that he died. Wm. Fleish, fireman, was injured but not seriously. The collision was the result of gross negligence.

Killed by a Grape Stem.

DETROIT, Sept. 1.—Miss Strickland, a young lady, died at Adrian last night of what appeared to be a low type of typhoid blood poisoning. A post mortem at the request of her relatives showed the fatal abdominal cavity to be filled with pus, the difficulty having its origin in what appeared to be a piece of grape stem an inch long, which had lodged low down in the intestinal tract inducing fatal sepsis.

The Free Thinkers.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Sept. 1.—A business meeting of the Free Thinkers' association elected the following officers: President, Dr. T. L. Brown, Binghamton; treasurer, Wm. S. Bell, Boston; recording secretary, A. B. Stebbins, Canisteo; stenographer, corresponding secretary, H. L. Green, Salamanca; Samuel P. Putnam of New York city was appointed chairman of the executive committee.

A New Stock Exchange.

NEW YORK, Sept. 1.—A new exchange will be opened here shortly, to be known as the Electric manufacturing and miscellaneous stock exchange of New York, limited. It will deal in all securities embraced under this title, establishing market prices for them and recording transactions in them. The house will be established for the benefit of members, similar to that of other exchanges.

Reported Loss.

PROVINGTOWN, Mass., Sept. 2.—There has been considerable anxiety here concerning the safety of a number of vessels which were caught in a hurricane on the fishing banks. Seven schooners have reached port having sustained no serious damage. It is feared that the schooners Little Bell and Alva Damsel, from which nothing has been heard, have been lost.

Lecture by MRS. CAPEL.

NEW YORK, Sept. 2.—Monsieur Capel lectured at St. Mary's church this evening before a dense audience. His subject was the "first pope, his commission and his character." He argued that Peter was first pope of the catholic church, and from Christ through him he has power descended from all time.

A Church Struck by Lightning and Six Persons Killed.

GALVESTON, Tex., Sept. 1.—At the town of Lagos, in Mexico, a few days ago, while services were being held in the principal church there was a severe thunderstorm, during which lightning struck the building, killing the priest, four women and a little girl.

Good For the Public.

CINCINNATI, Sept. 1.—The differences between the several west-bound routes as to the source of the information which led to the arrest yesterday of six Irishmen. The prisoners were charged with blowing up the largest gasometer in the city, destroying a railway shed, and attempting to destroy with dynamite the aqueduct of the Clyde canal.

Fatal Boiler Explosion.

FRANKFORD, D. T., Sept. 1.—A steam engine attached to a threshing machine exploded in a grain field six miles north of here to-day, instantly killing Wm. Bonard, Clarence Reed, George Storm and an unknown man, and injuring five others, four of whom are in a critical condition.

Eleven Men Drowned.

PENANCE, Sept. 1.—The British bark G. I. Jones, which sailed from Ball River, S. C., July 31, for Yalmouth, with a cargo of phosphate, was totally wrecked off Penance. Two of the crew were saved, but it is feared that others, numbering eleven, were drowned.

Becomes Better.

DODGE CITY, Kansas, Sept. 2.—For the first time in the history of the city all the business houses, saloons, dance halls and gambling halls were closed to-day. There is universal rejoicing, and it is believed that measures of reform will be carried out.

Eleven Horses Smothered.

BLOOMINGTON, Ill., Sept. 1.—At midnight Friday eleven Norman horses, recently imported, were smothered in the burning barn of Stubbfield & Co. Loss about $20,000.

A Deadly Cattle Disease.

NEWBERG, N. Y., Sept. 1.—A cattle disease termed the bloody urine has broken out on a farm near here, baffling the efforts of veterinary surgeons. Fourteen cows have died.

Jumped the Track.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 2.—A train from Atlantic City jumped the track this evening. The engine and baggage car were thrown down an embankment.

Up in a Balloon.

BROOKLYN, N. Y., Sept. 2.—Professor Damm ascended to-day in a balloon which crossed the East river and went northward. No news of its landing has been received.

A House Fire.

VIENNA, Sept. 2.—A fire broke out in the lumber yard near the city today. A gale was prevailing and spread the flames to a number of adjacent houses, causing damage to the extent of several million florins.

United States News.

Blaine declares emphatically that he is not a candidate for the presidency. Lord Coleridge was given a reception by the United States on arriving at Portland, Me. The telegraphers' brotherhood of Philadelphia has severed its connection with the Knights of Labor.

Jason Downer.

Jason Downer, a long-time associate justice of the Wisconsin supreme court, is dead at the age of 70 years. The Massachusetts Central railroad was sold by mortgagee Saturday to St. M. Aldrich for half a million dollars.

Receipts from the sale of public lands.

The receipts from the sale of public lands at St. Cloud, Minn., which has been in progress ten days, is estimated at $200,000. Loring & Avery's tannery, at Sandy Creek, Oswego county, N. Y., the stock in it and 100 cords of bark were burned. Loss $150,000.

The New York World reports.

The New York World reports from Hayti that the insurgents are gaining ground, and President Salomon is closely pushed in Haiti. Geo. Fells of Warrannton, Ga., on Thursday shot dead Peter Broomfield (referred to as an innocent remark) because of an innocent remark.

Alva Loucks, state attorney for Peoria county, Ill., is a fugitive from justice, and is worth $10,000 in his public capacity, and as a candidate for the office of state attorney.

A number of miners at Massillon, Ohio, have refused to join the strikers.

The secretary of the Miners' association says that five miners have concurred the grounds. At New Haven John A. Moran, worried by business troubles, fired four bullets into his forehead yesterday. They flattened on his skull, and his recovery is expected.

Several thousand volumes of books shipped to the States by three Montreal publishers were seized by the United States customs at Boston's Point, N. Y. Saturday.

The Western Union telegraph company has issued an order making the hours for night work eight instead of seven and one-half hours and allowing extra pay for Saturday work.

Samuel Logan, arrested at New York by Pinkerton's detectives on a charge of stealing $12,000 from the Adams express company last week, was discharged on the ground of insufficient evidence.

At New York Dr. Mulford Hunter shot himself and died within an hour. The mysterious death of his young wife recently caused a sensation. It is believed Hunter committed suicide on account of his death.

The Perry brothers, arrested at Macon, Ga., for kidnaping Solomon Coleman, a negro, were discharged by the United States commissioner on the ground that the whipping was not administered on account of Coleman's color.

The New Orleans auditors, harness and collar makers, struck Saturday. All the firms except three acceded to the terms of the union, and the latter by the union are 35 per cent. in advance of the old ones for piece work.

At New Haven, Conn., the building occupied by the firm of the People Manufacturing company, the Shrews Cartridge company, John Adams, and the New York City was destroyed by fire Saturday. Loss $100,000.

Whites v. Blacks.

MARSHALL, Tex., Sept. 2.—Late last night occurred the sequel to the difficulties resulting from the attempt to organize a negro military company. A committee of white men to the negro rendezvous, intending to watch the proceedings of the company, and a few moments three hundred whites were ready for action. The negroes fled in every direction, but the negroes could not be found. Fervent excitement prevails. The negroes threatened to attack the town tomorrow, but will hardly undertake it.

Collision on a Railroad.

ST. ALBANS, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which was a freight train. The Boston train was derailed and the freight cars were scattered over a large area. The passenger train was also derailed and the passengers were scattered. The collision caused a great deal of damage and several people were injured.

St. Albans, Vt., Sept. 2.—The last train leaving Boston at 1 p.m. Saturday for Chicago collided with the last New York express leaving here at 7.25 p.m. at Colchester, which is the meeting place for these trains. The New York express train, which was a passenger train, was struck by the Boston train, which