Editor World: In Wednesday's issue of The World is an acount of a proposed colony on a small scale. I wish it good speed, as all such undertakings should receive encouragement, but I wish to say through your paper that I have a written offer from the British Columbia Government of 90,000 acres of land free to form a colony on the principles of Edward Belong Belong States of Edward Belong Belong Belong States of Edward Belong Be ony on the principles of Edward Bellemy's Looking Backwards; sufficient land to build a town and also for agricultural purposes; one of the conditions attached is that the colony is not to consist of less than 300 families. There is another thing I would like to see done, that is to encourage carpenters and all mechanics out of work, to form themselves into co-operation, and if you do, it will be meeting, start the ball rolling towards co-operation, and if you do, it will be composed to the conditions attached is the colony is not to consist of less than 300 families. 170 Borden-stret. Sept. 28. Sent Home to Their Mothers.

Jane McIvor, aged 16; Maggie Henhaw, aged 14, and Norman Henshaw, aged 12, whose parents live at Allandale, ran away from home a day or two ago, and came to Toronto. The Allandale authorities notified the police, and Detective Sleemin found the trio in a west end house, where they had rented a room. The officer took the children back home.

Cannot Be Beat.—Mr. D. Steinbach, Zurich, writes: "I have used Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil in my family for a number of years, and I can safely say that it cannot be beat for thec ure of croup, fresh cuts and sprains. My little boy has had attacks of croup several times, and one dose of Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil was sufficient for a perfect cure. I take great pleasure in recommending it as a family medicine, and I would not be without a bottle in my house."

Arrested For Smuggling in Jamaica. Kingston, Jam., Sept. 25.-Capt. Willitms, commander of the British schooner Lady Blake, has been arrested by the authorities at Cape Hayti for alleged smuggling. The officers who arrested him handled him so roughly as to endanger his life, in fact, he came very near being murdered. Odoroma is the best mouth tonic in the world.
