

Canadian Pacific Directors on Annual Tour

E. W. Beatty, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, is now on his annual tour of inspection over the Company's lines. He is accompanied by a number of Canadian Pacific Directors, and the trip will probably prove of more than usual importance in view of the many questions connected with transportation that are under discussion in the West. The party of directors consists of Sir Herbert Holt, Montreal; Sir Augustus Nanton, Winnipeg; J. K. L. Ross, Montreal; F. W. Molson, Montreal; and W. N. Tilley, K.C., of Toronto. Vice-President A. D. Mac Tier accompanied the President as far as Port Arthur. The party left Montreal on September 6 and made the first stop at Toronto, leaving next day for Port Arthur and Fort William. Short stops were made at Winnipeg, Brandon, Moose Jaw, Medicine Hat, Calgary and Revelstoke. At Winnipeg a meeting of the board of directors was held, this being the first time in the history of the Canadian Pacific Railway that such a meeting has been held in Western Canada. Vancouver was reached on September 15th, and the party then proceeded to Skagway by the Canadian Pacific Coast Steamship Service. They will return to Vancouver on September 24th. The return journey will be made via Nelson, Lethbridge, Calgary and Edmonton. A short stop will be made at Nelson on September 30th, at Lethbridge, on October 1st, Calgary, October 2nd, Edmonton, October 3rd, Saskatoon, October 4th and at Winnipeg the following day.

TOWNSHIP SUNDAY SCHOOL ASSOCIATION

A special meeting of the executive committees of the Sunday School Associations of the townships of Warwick, Bosanquet and Plympton was held in the Methodist Church, Forest, on Tuesday afternoon, Sept. 11th, for the purpose of organizing a religious education council for North Lambton county. There was a very good attendance, each township being well represented. Mr. J. F. Smith, secretary of the Warwick Township Sunday School Association was appointed chairman of the meeting.

Two representatives of the Ontario Religious Education Council, Rev. W. P. Fletcher, D.D., superintendent of rural association work, and Mr. T. P. Taylor, finance secretary, were present from Toronto as special speakers and to assist in organizing the county work.

After consultation and discussion it was decided to proceed with the organization of a religious education council for North Lambton, and the following executive officers were appointed: President, Dr. P. G. Brown, Camlachie; vice-president, Rev. A. R. E. Garrett, Forest; secretary-treasurer, J. F. Smith, Warwick Twp.; children's division superintendent, Miss M. Taylor, Camlachie; boys' work superintendent, Rev. T. D. Rayner, Watford; girls' work superintendent, Mrs. M. Govenlock, Forest; adult Bible class superintendent, Miss Mary Mansfield, Watford; home dept. superintendent, Rev. W. Walker, Forest; teacher-training superintendent, Rev. H. V. Workman, Watford; missionary superintendent, Miss M. J. Kelly, Forest; temperance superintendent, Wm. H. Luckham, Warwick Twp.

Forest was selected as the place of meeting of the Sunday School County Council for next year.

Blats' Diary

By Ross Farquhar

Friday—Met a old friend of Pa and ma witch spent dinner time at are house today witch has ben married six times a ready and pa says he pays alimony to them. I ast pa in a joke if he had them listed down alphabetically. And he just luffed with a smile kinda.

Sat.—If they are one thing that makes pa get mad under his collar is for sumbuddy to try and kid him or something when he is a wirking with the ford. Today he was trying to start it with the Crank and sum kid cums along on a bisickle and he ast pa Cudden he make it play. Lucky for the kid the crank was strapped fast or he wood of had it threw at him with all the strength of pa's rite arms. Then I turned the key and the thing started all OK.

Sunday—Well tomorro the melon colic days will have come once more. Sum times I wish I was a poor kid borned of honest parents so I cud wirk in a cold mine and live in the Slumps of a big city where you cant go to skool on acct. of not enuff money, and where you cud see the Giants and the Pirats play on a Saturday afternoon in a not hole in the fence. But sum kids has got all the luck.

Monday—Are liberty was extract-ed away from us today. Still and all we do have a good eld of fun. Are teacher says she is glad to have us this yr. that is me and Jake and Pug and Blisters witch stayed in her room for review this yr. But I consolashun I got Pa and ma are a going to take me with them on there vacashun trip to Tenesee because they arent eny-buddy they care to leave me with them witch wood take a chance on a he blooded red American like Me.

Tuesday—Jake is comikal when it cums to class wirk. Teacher ast him to tell what he knew about Ivory today and he sed all he new was that it floats and is a Skin. you love to tutch.

Wednesday—When teacher ast Alice Macune who was the three greatest Marys in Histry she answered and replied Mary Tudor, Mary Queen of Scotch and Mary Crismas.

Thursday—I ast pa to help me out by telling me a Xample of Minority rule. He gulped a cupple of times and finely sed Well I reckon it wood be a woman with two husbands.

Friday—I ast pa to help me out by telling me a Xample of Minority rule. He gulped a cupple of times and finely sed Well I reckon it wood be a woman with two husbands.

At the stroke of midnight by the parish clock a certain man fell asleep and dreamed a dream. He ran away to sea, served on board ship for a long time, and, just escaping with his life, swam to a desert island. No rescue arriving, he began to abandon hope, when at last a ship hove in sight and took him on board. He became a ringleader in a successful mutiny. He was arrested and tried, condemned to death, and led off to execution; but at the eleventh hour, when the noose was round his neck, and he was expecting death at any moment, he awoke with a start, and heard—the last of the twelve strokes of the clock.

At the stroke of midnight by the parish clock a certain man fell asleep and dreamed a dream. He ran away to sea, served on board ship for a long time, and, just escaping with his life, swam to a desert island. No rescue arriving, he began to abandon hope, when at last a ship hove in sight and took him on board. He became a ringleader in a successful mutiny. He was arrested and tried, condemned to death, and led off to execution; but at the eleventh hour, when the noose was round his neck, and he was expecting death at any moment, he awoke with a start, and heard—the last of the twelve strokes of the clock.

At the stroke of midnight by the parish clock a certain man fell asleep and dreamed a dream. He ran away to sea, served on board ship for a long time, and, just escaping with his life, swam to a desert island. No rescue arriving, he began to abandon hope, when at last a ship hove in sight and took him on board. He became a ringleader in a successful mutiny. He was arrested and tried, condemned to death, and led off to execution; but at the eleventh hour, when the noose was round his neck, and he was expecting death at any moment, he awoke with a start, and heard—the last of the twelve strokes of the clock.

At the stroke of midnight by the parish clock a certain man fell asleep and dreamed a dream. He ran away to sea, served on board ship for a long time, and, just escaping with his life, swam to a desert island. No rescue arriving, he began to abandon hope, when at last a ship hove in sight and took him on board. He became a ringleader in a successful mutiny. He was arrested and tried, condemned to death, and led off to execution; but at the eleventh hour, when the noose was round his neck, and he was expecting death at any moment, he awoke with a start, and heard—the last of the twelve strokes of the clock.

At the stroke of midnight by the parish clock a certain man fell asleep and dreamed a dream. He ran away to sea, served on board ship for a long time, and, just escaping with his life, swam to a desert island. No rescue arriving, he began to abandon hope, when at last a ship hove in sight and took him on board. He became a ringleader in a successful mutiny. He was arrested and tried, condemned to death, and led off to execution; but at the eleventh hour, when the noose was round his neck, and he was expecting death at any moment, he awoke with a start, and heard—the last of the twelve strokes of the clock.

At the stroke of midnight by the parish clock a certain man fell asleep and dreamed a dream. He ran away to sea, served on board ship for a long time, and, just escaping with his life, swam to a desert island. No rescue arriving, he began to abandon hope, when at last a ship hove in sight and took him on board. He became a ringleader in a successful mutiny. He was arrested and tried, condemned to death, and led off to execution; but at the eleventh hour, when the noose was round his neck, and he was expecting death at any moment, he awoke with a start, and heard—the last of the twelve strokes of the clock.

At the stroke of midnight by the parish clock a certain man fell asleep and dreamed a dream. He ran away to sea, served on board ship for a long time, and, just escaping with his life, swam to a desert island. No rescue arriving, he began to abandon hope, when at last a ship hove in sight and took him on board. He became a ringleader in a successful mutiny. He was arrested and tried, condemned to death, and led off to execution; but at the eleventh hour, when the noose was round his neck, and he was expecting death at any moment, he awoke with a start, and heard—the last of the twelve strokes of the clock.

September Weddings

Wedding cake boxes for sale at the Guide-Advocate office. The latest designs.

BLOMFIELD—KADEY
Very quietly in St. John's church, Sarnia, on Saturday, September 15, the marriage was solemnized at high noon when Miss M. Olivia, second daughter of Mrs. M. A. Kadey of Watford, became the bride of Mr. George Darcy Blomfield, formerly of Galt, only son of Mrs. R. C. Blomfield.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. F. G. Newton, the rector. Later Mr. and Mrs. Blomfield left for Detroit where they will make their home. The bride and groom were young people of Galt, where they will be greatly missed, especially in Trinity circles, both being Sunday school teachers, active church workers and Mr. Blomfield a valued member of Trinity choir.

LAPHAM—PALMER
A pretty September wedding was solemnized on Tuesday, Sept. 11th, at three o'clock at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Palmer, 15th sideroad, Warwick township, when their only daughter, Hattie Irene was united in marriage to George W. Payne Lapham, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Lapham, Russell street, Sarnia. The ceremony was performed by Rev. A. R. Johnston, of Warwick Village, and took place on the verandah which was prettily decorated with an abundance of autumn flowers. The bride was sweet and winsome in her bridal gown of oyster white satin with pearl trimmings and wearing a bridal veil embroidered in silk. She was given in marriage by her father. Her bouquet was Ophelia roses and maiden hair fern and her only ornament was a rope of pearls the gift of the groom. Doris May Lapham, sister of the groom, attended the bride attired in a dainty gown of maize colored silk with bertha and panels of radium lace and carrying a beautiful bouquet of autumn flowers. Walker Wallace, Cromwell street, Sarnia, attended the groom. The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a dainty pair of earrings, to the groomsmen a white gold tie pin with onyx and pearl setting. After the ceremony about forty guests enjoyed a dainty lunch after which the happy couple left amid showers of confetti for London, the bride travelling in a navy blue poiret twill dress with hat to match trimmed with ostrich plumes and a black fox fur choker. On their return Mr. and Mrs. Lapham will reside in Sarnia. The many gifts received by the young couple testified to the esteem in which they are held by their friends. Those attending from Sarnia were Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Lapham and Miss Violet Lapham, Mr. and Mrs. A. Whitnell, Mr. and Mrs. O. I. Shafer, Mrs. H. Waite, Misses Jen:re and Bessie Young, Miss Isabel Law, Wm. Luscombe, I. J. Walker and George McIntyre.

CANADIAN NATIONAL RAILWAY EARNINGS
Net for 7 Months $2,984,460 Compared with $2,202,993 Deficit Last Year.

Another notable increase in the net earnings of the Canadian National Railways is shown in the statement of earnings and expenses for the month of July 1923, issued by the Canadian National Railways Headquarters at Montreal. Gross earnings are up 7 1/2 per cent, or $1,467,907, as compared with July 1922. After meeting operating expenses amounting to $19,530,620, there remains a net operating revenue for the month of $1,472,228. In July, 1922, the net operating revenue from these same properties was $723,004, so that July, 1923, figures represent an increase in net of $749,224, or 103.6%. For the first seven months of 1923 the net earnings of the Canadian National Railways have amounted to $2,984,460, as compared with a deficit on the same properties of $2,202,993 in the corresponding period of 1922. The improvement in net operating results in 1923, as against the first seven months of last year, therefore, amounts to $5,187,453.

Read the Want Ads on Page Four. Pay Your Subscription in Advance

The Ford Motor Company OF CANADA, Limited

has authorized a Weekly Purchase Plan by which

$5 is all you need to pay down for a Ford Car, Truck or Tractor

When the weekly payments, together with interest, equals one-third the price of the model you desire we make delivery. The balance can be paid in forty-eight weekly or twelve monthly equal instalments.

Ask us about the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan.

"Wat-Ford Garage"

R. MORNINGSTAR WATFORD, ONTARIO FORD MOTOR COMPANY OF CANADA, LIMITED, FORD, ONTARIO

real rest qual sers small 1 the m is iger.
AL
Guide-Ad-on page 4.
A substitute for ing Syrups, all ages of omach
els ess, Rest, and Fletcher
recommnd it.