MIDDLETON

Mr. J. Howe Cox of Cambridge, spent Sunday in town.

The "Happy Workers" met at the home of Mrs. J. A. Sponagle.

Sunday was observed as Mother's Day in the various churches.

Mrs. (Rev.) Normap Ritcey has been ill, but is now convalescent.

Miss Hilda Cox is visiting her aunt, Mrs. L. E. Shaw, of Annapolis Royal.

Mrs. Herbert Stairs of Wolfville, visited her sister, Mrs. C. H. Wright last week.

Rev. S. S. Poole has sold his horse to W. R. Perkins and it is being sent to Bermuda this week.

Mr. L. E. Landers has purchased the house owned by Miss Abbie Dodge on Main Street.

Miss Jessie Armstrong of Sydney, is spending a few weeks with her aunt, Mrs. A. L. Davison.

Mr. and Mrs. H. I. Munroe of Bridgetown, recently visited their daughter, Mrs. C. H. Hoyt.

Mr. C. N. Phillips is making extensive repairs on his house. Mr. W. K. Beals has the contract.

Mr. Gordon Crowe, Mrs. Crowe and Miss Annie spent the week end with relatives in Annapolis Royal.

Mrs. E. O. Reed left on Monday for her future home in Windsor, where she has purchased a nice residence.

The brickyard started operations for the season on Monday, and is now prepared to maintain its reputation for the quality of its brick.

Rev. and Mrs. J. W. Howie of Dartmouth have come to Middleton, and intend making a permanent home with her sister, Mrs. Mary Sponagle.

Mrs. Clifford Wright and Mrs. (Dr.) F. S. Messenger were summoned to Canard last week on account of the illness and death of their father, Mr. C. H. Borden.

On Thursday the annual meeting of the owners of "Hilcrest Orchards" was held here. The new directors are: Ralph Eaton, Capt. F. A. Brown, R. J. Messenger, S. B. Chute, C. C. H. Eaton, E. E. Archibald and Mr. Starr.

On Monday Miss Chivers and Miss Phinney of the MacDonald School, visited the fish hatchery, accompanied by their schools. The trout fry has been set free, but the children were able to see thousands of young salmon.

The body of Chester Balcom was brought from Boston on Wednesday, and taken by Roop and Shaw to Nictaux Cemetery for interment. This is the third grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Coleman, whose body has been brought from the United States within a very few months.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hall were "at home" on Friday, the 10th, to their friends, the occasion being the fifty-fifth anniversary of their marriage. This worthy couple have resided in Middleton for eighteen years. They raised a family of eight sons and daughters, who are all living and are scattered throughout Canada and Canada and the United States.

PORT GEORGE

Port George, May 12th. — Mr. Allabee of Acadia, occupied the Baptist pulpit Sunday afternoon. On account of examinations Mr. Blakney was unable to fill his appointments.

The S. S. Ruby L. arrived in port last Thursday with a cargo of freight.

Mrs. W. M. Hupt was called the past week to Lawrencetown to care for her daughter who is sick at that place.

Last Friday was Arbor Day and cold for the time of the year. The weather is so backward the farmers are not doing much spring work.

Mr. Harding Weaver of Victoria Vale, has moved his family to this place, into the house which he recently purchased from Mrs. W. M. Hunt.

The house of Alfred Wards and all the out buildings at the Sand Banks were destroyed by fire last Monday night. We have been informed that his insurance had run out a few days before the fire.

Fishing has been extra good this spring at this place and some nice catches of halibut have been hauled in. Fader and Connell have their salmon weir ready for the seine and will hang that this week.

Poor appetite is a sure sign of impaired digestion. A few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets will strengthen your digestion and improve your appetite. Thousands have been benefited by taking these tablets. Sold by all dealers.

LAWRENCETOWN

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whitman of Albany, are in town.

A wee daughter has come to Mr. and Mrs. Armitage at the Methodist Parsonage.

Spraying has commenced, and the fight with bugs, grubs and fungus is really on.

Dr. and Mrs. Shankle of Newfoundland, have been visiting friends in Williamston and Lawrencetown.

The choir in the Baptist church is in charge of Prof. Morse and much improvement is noticed in the music.

Rev. H. Mellick and wife are absent, attending the Quarterly Meeting of the Conference held at Springfield, 13th and 14th of the month.

It was Mother's Day Sunday last, as was evidenced by the white flowers worn by many in the congregation. An appropriate sermon added to the interest taken in the day.

The Ladies' Aid met at the parsonage on Monday, 2nd inst, to do honor to Mrs. Richardson, who for twenty years was the faithful secretary of the Society. The President in well-chosen words tendered the thanks and expressed the love of the members, and also presented Mrs. Richardson with a gold ring engraved with "Mizpah." A dainty supper was served by the hostess, Mrs. Mellick, and we came away feeling more than ever that to be good and to do good is, after all, the whole duty of man and woman too.
