WHEN GEORGE THE FOURTH WAS KING.

OW green the braes were in the days
When life was in its spring!
The heart was light, the world was bright,
When George the Fourth was King!

Then buttercups and fairy haps
Cam' laughing in wi' May;
And mirly birds wi' downy caps
Were singing a' the day.

Then nature's bosom had a beat Which nothing could destroy; The vory grass beneath our feet Look'd up and laughed for joy.

Oh, then the sun had ne'er a spot!
And all was green and gold;
And in our immost hearts we thought
We never would grow old,

But oh, the flowers have lost their hue!
The birds they dirna sing
Sae sweetly as the v used to do,
When George the Fourth was King!

Then mirth in ilka cottage rang,
For they were plenished weel;
And rosy lasses laughing sang
Beside the spinning wheel.
