NOTES B	Y THE W	AYSIL	JE.

There are three philatelic societies in the United States which are supported by the same class of collectors, the dues of which are low and which give about the same returns to its members for the dues paid. These three societies are the Philatelic Sons of America, Sons of Philately, and the American Philatelic Association. The later society is comgosed mainly of advanced collectors. A proper state of affairs is that only a senior and junior organization should exist. The rawest recruit to the ranks of Philately knows that the reason this trio of societies is in existence is to satisfy the personal ambitions of certain philatelic adventurers, who, in the majority of cases, are not philatelists. There are other minor organizations, but these are mostly local in character, and fill a good use to members.

"He who laugns last, laughs best," muses the collector who did not buy any high-value Columbians when they were booming. The man, who, some months ago had a "corner" in these, thought he had a good thing. and confidently expected from one to five hurdred per cent. on his money. But the bubble has burst, and instead of making an advance on his outlay, is clearing out at 15 per cent discount, and even at these prices can find few buyers.

It is stated that a company will publish "The Yonth's Magazine," a paper issued monthly and circulating among youthful people. It is published in Toronto, 20 pages, same size Munsey's magazine, and possesses a well-edited stamp department. Canada has not, heretofore, any paper of this class, save those issued by religious publication houses for Sunday school purposes. The publi hers intend to circulate it extensively in the United States as well as in Canada. Subscription price is 35 cents a year.

A Catalogue of Canadian Stamps, by Wm. R. Adams, will appear this season and will be issued annually. All the known revenues of the Dominion and⁻ Provinces, including the postal issues, will appear, and the former priced at their true market value.

The Presidential election in the U.S. is causing much business depression, but business in Canada is improving.
