

LORD ELGIN, GOVERNOR GENERAL OF CANADA.

ABOVE we present our readers with an engraving of the likeness of His Excellency, Lord Elgin, the Governor General of Canada, &c. He arrived at Montreal on the 10th of June, on his way to Quebec, from England. Immediately after his arrival at New York, he proceeded to Washington to complete some negotiations pending between the Government of the United States and England. On his way home he was invited to visit Portland, where he received a most flattering and enthusiastic reception. Along his route to Montreal, he was presented with flattering addresses at Sherbrooke, St. Hyacinthe and Longueuil. At the latter place the Guard of Honor of the 71st Regiment was in attendance, and the admirable band and the pipers of the regiment played the National
