

Father Minahan on Rev. Dyson Hague.

The following has appeared in The Globe:

In a recent Saturday number of The Globe its readers were treated to an extended report of the first of a series of sermons on the Anglican Prayer Book by the Rev. Dyson Hague of Wycliffe College. As long as this gentleman's utterances are confined to the walls of Wycliffe and the Church of the Redeemer no one will deem it worth while to contradict them in your columns. But when they are scattered broadcast by The Globe that important and enterprising paper will certainly allow its Catholic readers, whose church has been assailed, the right of self-defence. Defence is not very difficult in this instance. Indeed, it is so easy that it is almost unnecessary to mention it. The editor of the Globe has not only permitted the publication of the sermon, but he has also printed a full and complete account of it. The sermon was delivered on the 26th of May, 1898, at the Church of the Redeemer, Toronto. The sermon was delivered in the presence of a large number of the faithful, and was well received. The sermon was a most interesting and instructive one, and it is to be hoped that it will do much to bring about a better understanding of the true position of the Church of the Redeemer. and was not questioned at all in matters of faith in the National Council of Whittby in 1041. Regarding the so-called reformation in England Dr. Dawson Hague has the hardihood to speak of it as the "work of God," and of its authors as the great reformers whom God raised up. Macaulay, a bitter foe of Rome, writes this of Cranmer, the chief of these: "Saintly in his professions, unscrupulous in his dealings, zealous for nothing, bold in speculation, a coward and a hypocrite in action." (History of England, Vol. I, page 57.) Rogers, who is not a Catholic, in his Political Economy, page 122, describes the godly fruit of the so-called reformation in England in the following words, which will conclude any criticism of a few of the leading misrepresentations of the Wycliffe professor: "Before the reformation and during the time in which the various monasteries were being the wants of such poor as were reduced to poverty by great necessity were relieved through those sources of charity. Lands were generally distributed. . . . gulls supported their own poor . . . absolute want was on the whole unknown. The scene changed after the reformation, for the monasteries were divided among the rapacious courtiers of Henry—the mass of the population fell into great distress . . . the whole policy of the court tended to the aggrandizement of the few and the misery of the many—population and industry were kept down by excessive persecutions." L. MINIHAN, Toronto, May 12.

A. O. H. Division No. 1 A.O.H. passed a resolution of condolence on the death of the father of Brother William Ryan.

Division No. 1 D.O.E. Auxiliary to the A.O.H. held their regular meeting in their hall on Temperance street on Thursday, May 26. Miss Alice O'Leary occupied the chair. Four applications for membership were received and three candidates were initiated. Much regret was felt for Division No. 1 when their esteemed young president, Anna Koch, tendered her resignation from that office having held it for three years. The popular young County President, Miss Kate O'Brien, then took the chair and declared nominations open for the vacant office which resulted in the election of Mrs. Richardson as president of Division No. 1 for the balance of the year. During the progress of the meeting a choice selection of music and literature was fully appreciated by the members and visiting members present. Mr. Rutledge, president of Division No. 1 A.O.H., gave a very enthusiastic speech and Miss Agnes O'Leary recited the "Battle of '98." After a short address from the County President the meeting adjourned to meet on June 6th.

ONE WHO WAS PRESENT. Wedded at the Cathedral. After the 9 o'clock Mass in St. Michael's Cathedral on Wednesday morning Dr. Joseph William Guinane was married to Miss Helena Adamson of Grosvenor street. Mr. Edward Stock was best man and Miss Florence Adamson bridemaid. Rev. Dr. Casey was the officiating priest. The wedding was quiet.

FEVER AND AGUE AND BILIOUS DEBRIS are positively cured by the use of Ferris's Pills. They not only cleanse the stomach and bowels from all bilious matter, but they open the excretory vessels, causing them to pour copious effluvia from the blood into the bowels, after which the corrupted mass is thrown out by the natural passage of the body. They are used as a general family medicine with the best results.

ALICE: "What a gallant person Mr. Dunkley is. He never addresses me without beginning 'Fair Miss.'" DOROTHY: "Oh, that's force of habit. He used to be a street car conductor."
