Dangers of Delay.

If we were allowed to look into the future and see the fatal consequences that follow a neglected cold, how differently would our course be; could we realize our danger, how speedily we would seek a cure; but with many it is only when the monster disease has fastened its fangs upon our lungs that we awaken to our folly. What follows a neglected cold? Is it not diseases of the throat and lungs, bronchitis, asthma, consumption, and many other diseases of like nature. It is worse than madness to neglect a cold, and it is folly not to have some good remedy available for this frequent complaint. One of the most efficacious medicines for all diseases of the throat and lungs, is Bickle's Anti-Consumptive Syrup. This medicine is composed of several medicinal herbs, which exert a most wonderful influence in curing consumption and other diseases of the lungs and chest. It promotes a free and easy expectoration, soothes irritation and drives the disease from the system.

Peace, troubled soul, whose plaintive moan
Hath taught each scene the notes of woe;
Cease thy complaint, suppress thy groan,
And let thy tears forget to flow.
Behold, the precious balm is found.
To lull thy pain, to heal thy wound.

Come, freely come, by sin oppress'd;
On Jesus cast thy weighty load;
In Him thy refuge find, thy rest,
Safe in the mercy of thy God;
Thy God's thy Saviour—glorious word!
Forever love and praise the Lord.

As spring the winter—day the night,
So peace thy gloom shall chase away.
And smiling joy, a seraph bright,
Shall tend thy steps and near thee stay:
While glory weaves the immortal crown,
And waits to claim thee for her own.

A curious and interesting addition has been made to the arts and sports exhibition at the Grosvenor gallery, London, in the shape of the "Silver Bells of Lanark," presented to that burgh in the twelfth century by King William the Lion and since used as a piece of challenge racing plate. This and the "Carlisle Bells," also in the exhibition, seem to point to the fact that in earlier days a bell was the customary prize given for racing, whence the expression "He bore off the bell" probably had its origin.
