ASSESSMENT SYSTEM

"THE BEST FRATERNAL BENEFIT SOCIETY IN THE WORLD."

One reason why the I. O. F. is so popular is that no Society or Company takes greater care in the selection of its membership than the I. O. F. During fifteen months—from September, 1898, to December, 1899—48,610 applications for membership were received; out of these 5,701 were rejected. The death rate has been less than six in the thousand. Yet some die. Since 1886, when the order was first established in P. E. I., there has been paid to the beneficiaries of the following deceased members $47,500 :—

A. N. Ramsay, Summerside,	$1,000	George McKenzie, Charlottetown,	$1,000
