

(3) Acceptance shall be effected by the deposit of an instrument of acceptance with the Government of the United States of America.

(4) Adherence to or ratification or approval of this Protocol shall be deemed to be acceptance thereof.

ARTICLE IV

(1) This Protocol shall come into force on the thirtieth day after twelve States shall, in accordance with the provisions of Article III, have signed it without reservation as to acceptance or accepted it.

(2) As regards any State which shall subsequently become a party to this Protocol, in accordance with Article III, the Protocol shall come into force on the date of its signature without reservation as to acceptance or of its acceptance.

ARTICLE V

Any future adherence of a State to the Convention shall be deemed to be acceptance of this Protocol.

ARTICLE VI

As soon as this Protocol comes into force, it shall be registered with the United Nations and with the International Civil Aviation Organization by the Government of the United States of America.

ARTICLE VII

(1) This Protocol shall remain in force so long as the Convention is in force.

(2) This Protocol shall cease to be in force for a State only when that State ceases to be a party to the Convention.

ARTICLE VIII

The Government of the United States of America shall give notice to all States members of the International Civil Aviation Organization and to the Organization itself:

- (a) of any signature of this Protocol and the date thereof, with an indication whether the signature is with or without reservation as to acceptance;
- (b) of the deposit of any instrument of acceptance and the date thereof;
- (c) of the date on which this Protocol comes into force in accordance with the provisions of Article IV, paragraph (1).

ARTICLE IX

This Protocol, drawn up in the English, French and Spanish languages, each text being equally authentic, shall be deposited in the archives of the Government of the United States of America, which shall transmit duly certified copies thereof to the Government of the States members of the International Civil Aviation Organization.
