

6. To encourage periodicals in each country to devote special issues on each others literatures;

7. To encourage the further development of cooperation between the copyright organizations and the publishing houses of each country, in order to ensure mutual copyright protection and wider familiarization with works in science, literature, and the arts of Soviet and Canadian authors in Canada and the USSR respectively.

V COOPERATION IN CINEMATOGRAPHY AND AUDIO - VIDEO

Both sides agreed:

1. To encourage practical measures aimed at increasing the licensing and distribution of films and video produced by the film industries of both countries and to encourage the greatest possible number of showings of these films. Commercial relations will be carried out directly by V.O. SOVEXPORTFILM on the Soviet side, and Canadian owned and controlled distributors on the Canadian side on the basis of equal opportunities and mutually acceptable financial terms;
