

It is crystal-clear that the United States is the aggressor who is trampling underfoot the Vietnamese soil. The people of South Viet Nam are the victim of aggression and are fighting in self-defence. If the United States really wants peace, it must recognize the South Viet Nam National Front for Liberation as the sole genuine representative of the people of South Viet Nam, and engage negotiations with it. In accordance with the aspirations of the people of South Viet Nam and the spirit of the 1954 Geneva Agreements on Viet Nam, the National Front for Liberation is fighting to achieve independence, democracy, peace, and neutrality in South Viet Nam, and to advance towards the peaceful reunification of the fatherland. If the United States really respects the right to self-determination of the people of South Viet Nam, it cannot but approve this correct program of the National Front for Liberation.

The 14 points of the United States boil down in essence to this: the United States is trying hard to cling to South Viet Nam, to maintain there the puppet administration rigged up by it, and to perpetuate the partition of Viet Nam.

In his January 12, 1966 message read before the U.S. Congress, President Johnson affirmed that it was the policy of the United States not to pull out of South Viet Nam, and he forced the Vietnamese people to choose between "peace and the ravages of a conflict". That is an impudent threat, an attempt to impose on the Vietnamese people the conditions of the so-called U.S. "unconditional discussions".)

The Vietnamese people will never submit to the U.S. imperialists' threats.

At the very moment when the U.S. Government puts forward the so-called new "peace efforts", it is frantically increasing the U.S. strength in South Viet Nam. It is stepping up the terrorist raids, resorting to the "scorched earth" policy, burning all, destroying all, killing all, using napalm-bombs, poison gases and toxic chemicals to burn down villages and massacre the civilian population in vast areas of South Viet Nam.

I strongly protest against such extremely barbarous methods of warfare. I earnestly call on all peace-loving governments and peoples the world over to resolutely stay the hands of the U.S. war criminals.

The United States keeps sending its planes on espionage flights in preparation for new air attacks on the Democratic Republic of Viet Nam.

On the other hand, it is launching air attacks on many areas in the Kingdom of Laos, and multiplying armed provocations against the Kingdom of Cambodia, thus posing an even more serious menace to peace in Indo-China.

Obviously, the U.S. "Search for peace" is only designed to conceal its schemes for intensified war of aggression. The Johnson administration's stand remains: aggression and expansion of the war.

To settle the Viet Nam question, the Government of the Democratic Republic of Viet Nam has put forward the four-point stand which is an expression of the essential provisions of the 1954 Geneva Agreements on Viet Nam. This is a stand of peace.

Having gone through over 20 years of war, the Vietnamese people desire peace more eagerly than any one else to build their life. But real peace can by
