

disposition in the House to apply the vote on the amendment, in reverse, of course, to the second reading motion, unless someone else has come into the House. The Hon. Member for Halifax West (Mr. Crosby) would like to be added to our Party and the Hon. Member for Saint-Jacques (Mr. Guilbault) would like to be added to the Liberal Party.

Mr. Benjamin: Mr. Speaker, may I ask the Parliamentary Secretary if the all-Party agreement earlier was in writing or in blood?

Mr. Nystrom: Mr. Speaker, my understanding, even though my colleague, the Hon. Member for Kamloops—Shuswap (Mr. Riis) is not here, is that there has been no all-Party agreement. In case there is not an agreement, we certainly want to debate this matter further. It is a very important issue.

Mr. Mazankowski: Mr. Speaker, I am not sure who is quarter-backing the New Democratic Party. I did discuss this matter with the House Leader and it was my understanding that there was an agreement. I did discuss it with the Hon. House Leader of the Liberal Party and he also agreed there was an agreement. I find this rather strange.

Mr. Gray (Windsor West): Mr. Speaker, I simply want to say that it has been my understanding that there was an all-Party agreement that the vote would be counted on the motion for second reading, but in reverse. I am sorry the House Leader of the New Democratic Party is not here to clarify this matter. However, I just want to put on the record what my understanding is with respect to the arrangement between the three Parties.

Mr. Nystrom: Mr. Speaker, as I said, I have not had a chance to consult with my House Leader, but if there is an agreement we will certainly stick to it, and we will take the word of the Government House Leader and the Opposition House Leader on that.

Mr. Deputy Speaker: The House has heard the representations from the Parliamentary Secretary to the Deputy Prime Minister to the effect that on the main motion the vote will be reversed, with the addition of the Hon. Member for Halifax West (Mr. Crosby) and the Hon. Member for Saint-Jacques (Mr. Guilbault).

Some Hon. Members: Agreed.

The House divided on the motion (Mrs. McDougall) which was agreed to on the following division:
