
ANTICIPATION, &c.

Dom. Comm. Jovis. 26 Nov. die.

Anno 19^o Georgii III Regis, 1778.

SIR Francis M——x, gentleman-usher of the block rod, having, with the usual solemnity, at half past two o'clock, given three admonitory raps at the door of the H—e of C——ns, and being thereupon admitted, and having proceeded towards the table, with three progressive bows, acquainted the S——r, * that his M——y commanded their immediate attendance in the H—e of L—ds, where soon after his M——y delivered his most gracious speech to both Houses; which we should give at length, having an accurate copy now before us, but that many reasons concur to induce us

* It was observed the S——r was remarkable civil to the new Att-rn-y G-n-r-l, as supposed upon his succeeding to that great object of his wishes, which leaves Sir F——r some chance of a Chief Justiceship and a Peerage.

to