ALL BUT SPEAKERS ATTENDED PICNIC

Ward Four Conservatives Enjoyed Day at Queenston Heights Despite Rain.

PRESENTATION IS MADE

W. H. Saunders, Chairman of Excursion Committee, Receives Signet Ring.

If political addresses are to be considered as the most important feature of a political picnic, the dollar excursion of the Conservative Association

RECEIVING CHARGED of Ward Four to Queenston Heights yesterday would have to be marked down as a gross failure, for only one speech was made, and it was not political. On the other hand, if heavy baskets of refreshments constitute the main feature at a picnic, then the ward four affair was the best outing ever enjoyed by Torontonians. The rain, of course, kept some away, but even at that the attendance of 1000 was not such a bad showing. Last year 1700 attended, and a crowd of 300 was expected yesterday.

Some of the big men who were expected to attend the picnic but who failed to make any appearance were Claude Macdonell, M.P.; Edmund Bristol, K.C., M.P.; Col. Currie, Hon. Thomas Crawford, Mark Irish, M.L.A.; E. W. J. Owens and George Good-

In a five-minute speech S. W. Burns, past president of the association, expressed the deep regret of those pres-ent at the absence of the scheduled speakers, and intimated that the pro-ceeds of the picnic would be used in buying machine guns. Apart from this speech, the only other oratorial act on the program was the presentation of a gold signet ring to W. H. Saunders, the chairman of the excursion committee. Miles Vokes made the

The program of sports was attended to by William H. Smith, the president; Russell Nesbitt, the secretary, and the following officers, George R. Sweeney, James Hozack, G. Grant, Jos. D. Bailey and Charles Garfunkel. The campus was like a sponge, but in spite of this all the events were well

Feature of Program. The feature of the program was a baseball match played by teams pick² ed from the districts north and south College street. The game was played in a drizzle of rain, and was called at the end of the fourth innings, when the drizzle became a downpour. The north side won by 6 to 2, and received nine bronze medals. Then what will you have to say?

You may think a lot of our Soldier Lads,
But they think more of you today.

He's sowing and we'll reap:
He'll drain his blood to the million foes
Each day we feed and sleep.
There's a Can for you of Khaki or Blue There's a Cap for you of Khaki or Blue,
There's room in the ship or the trench,
Where you'll do more honor to your Pals and King

We've seen you walk on Glorious Parades, With a spirit quite loyal and true, But how many failed to walk on the day When the country needed you?

You may sing "Tipperary" or "The Maple Leaf," And your patriotic badges you can show, But that won't help your Country and King, Lord Kitchener and Jellicoe. They want you there, and they'll pay your fare, For to help out the Tommies and the Tars,

And when you're old with silvery hair, You will cherish both your medal and bars. If you haven't got a Mother with a gray-bent head, And you have no Kiddies and a Wife. Then fall in the ranks with the lads who have, If you're well and in the prime of Life.

You'll be sad when they've won, and your Pals return; Then the Golden Sun will shine. They'll have robbed you of your Honor and have made you free,

Corporal Fraser Sufficiently Recovered to Engage in Boxing Bout

Canadian Associated Press Cable. LONDON, July 28 .- The representative of the American ambassador, reporting on his visit to Stendal camp for prisoners, says that he found there 64 British and Canadians, all of whom had been more or less severely wounded, who had been brought during the 1 past few weeks from hospitals at Cologne and Wittemberg. All said that 3 they had ben well treated in the hospitals. Several mentioned the fact that they had been treated with great kindness in the temporary hospitals Aug. 3-5 and 16 to which they were brought immediately after capture.

Corp. Fraser to Box.

Corp. Fraser has recovered from

Corp. Fraser has recovered from his wounds to such an extent that he is to take part in a boxing match with a French champion in a few 221 days. 29 Commandant Krause has had charge commandant Krause has had charge of the camp ever since it was opened in October. He seems very much interested in the work and is evidently respected by the prisoners. He has made use of large plots of ground in the neighborhood of the camp to grow potatoes, cabbage and lettuce, the profits being used for the benefit of the prisoners as a body.

TO BUY SCHOOL SITE.

Chairman Hodgson of the board of education informed the board of con-trol yesterday that the board desired to use $100,000 of unexpended balances for the purchase of a school site this week. The matter will be dealt with by the civic treasury board on Friday morning.
