

SUPREME COURT OF CANADA.

2. In case any matter shall appear to the said registrar to be proper for the decision of a judge, the registrar may refer the same to a judge, and the judge may either dispose of the matter, or refer the same back to the registrar with such directions as he may think fit.

3. Every order or decision made or given by the said registrar sitting in chambers shall be valid and binding on all parties concerned, as if the same had been made or given by a judge sitting in chambers.

4. All orders made by the registrar sitting in chambers are to be signed by the registrar.

5. Any person affected by any order or decision of the registrar may appeal therefrom to a judge of the Supreme Court in chambers.

(a) Such appeal shall be by motion on notice setting forth the grounds of objection and served within four days after the decision complained of, and two clear days before the day fixed for hearing the same, or served within such other time as may be allowed by a judge of the said court or the registrar.

(b) The motion shall be made on the Monday appointed by the notice of motion, which shall be the first Monday after the expiry of the delays provided for by the foregoing sub-section, or so soon thereafter as the same can be heard by a judge, and shall be set down not later than the preceding Saturday in a book kept for that purpose in the registrar's office.

6. For the transaction of business under these rules, the registrar, unless absent from the city, or prevented by illness or other necessary cause, shall sit every juridical day, except during the vacations of the Court, at 11 a.m., or such other hour as he may specify from time to time by notice posted in his office.
