WILSON PRAISES COLONEL'S GRIT
Can't Tear His Thoughts Away From "Gallant Gentleman" — Country Owes Roosevelt Debt.

WILMINGTON, Del., Oct. 17. (Can. Press.) "My thought is constantly of that gallant gentleman lying in the hospital at Chicago."

With this sentiment running thru his speeches, Gov. Woodrow Wilson turned the state of Delaware today, depicting the assault on Col. Roosevelt and deprecating the use of violence to interrupt the course of politics.

The Democratic nominee devoted his argument mostly to state issues in Delaware. He omitted mention of the progressive party and when he discussed national questions he attacked the administration of President Taft, declaring that there was prosperity enough for those at the top but that it had not reached the people.

The governor made four speeches and closed the day with a street meeting at Wilmington to-night.

Urging Delaware to "join the procession of progress," Gov. Wilson declared in his speeches that the state was "dangerous to block the progress of reform in America."

"I do predict trouble in the United States," he said. "I rejoice to believe that America is singularly a self-possessed nation. It is aware of nothing so much as violent disorder. I believe that part of the sadness we now suffer from because of the war and the assault upon Mr. Roosevelt is a feeling that there is any body in the United States that would dare interrupt the orderly course of politics and the public affairs of this country by the violence of his own hand."

He deeply resented it. We resent it, though that there should be any attempt of the United States that should raise his hand against the peaceful, orderly, the just, the open determination of public affairs.

Tribute to Roosevelt. "I came out to fulfil the engagements of this week with a very great respect of that gallant gentleman lying in the hospital at Chicago. Mr. Roosevelt did a vast deal to wake the country to the problems that now have to be settled, and that he should have been stayed in his attempt to discuss the settlement of those questions by a hand of violence is a thing which every American must deeply deplore and feel ashamed of."
