YORK COUNTY AND SUBURBS

Crowd of Men Prepared for High Carnival - License Transfer is Refused.

Toronto Junction, Sept. 23.-The license commissioners of West York met Saturday night. Commissioners Ashman and Reeves were present, with Inspector D. McKenzie. They refused the transfer of license from R. M. Hanna of Lambton to I. Newton.

There was an inspection and satis factory test of the new steam heating plant in the Annette-street School on Saturday afternoon. With less fire than was used by one of the six old furnaces, steam pipes and radiators began to heat in ten minutes after the fire was started, and in a few minutes after the steam gauge showed 6 pounds. This afternoon about 3.30 o'clock the police received information that a number of men were assembled on the grounds previously used by the Gun Club, near the corner of Keele and Bloor-streets, playing games and acting in a disorderly way. Chief Flintoff and Acting Sergt. Peters found about forty men with a one horse express wagon loaded with refreshments, and confiscated three four-gallon kegs of beer and took the names and addresses of a dozen men. It was evident from the amount of refreshments they intended to have a good time, as they had pigs' feet. sandwiches of different kinds, weiners, cucambers, tomatoes, beer and whiskey. From the addresses given they come from the vicinity of Stanley Park.

The battle in the house of representatives at Melbourne over the proposed preference to Great Britain is stift unfinished. Notwithstanding the government's success in the early hours of yesterday, free traders will make a final attempt to widen the scope of the preference on Tuesday, when the government's bill, incorporating the tariff resolutions, will be discussed. A hitch has developed in the preference negotiations with South Africa, but the details are not disclosed.

Tast Toronto, Sept. 23.—A presentation to Rev. Canon and Mrs. Dixon, at home of C. B. Watts, Birch-avenue, on Saturday afternoon, was attended by a large gathering of the members at friends of the Baimy Beach Pavillon of the Anglican Church. A grandfather's clock, handsomely inspons and a sum of money testified in some measure to the esteem in which the rector and Mrs. Dixon are held. Addresses were given by Rev. W. L. Baynes Reed, Rev.
