offerings very scarce at the start. The chief influenecs causing strength were irm LIverpool cables, small receipts northwest, decrease of 75,000 in stocks, and small receipts at primary markets. Talk of more mills closing down, probably due more to scarcity of wheat and high premiums. Two elevator concerns there say they do not get a car of wheat a day. Think advantage should be taken of every dip in order to make purchases.

Ennis & Stoppani wired to J. L. Mitchell, McKinon Building:

Wheat—Bright hopes for an increased activity in grain entertained by traders at the conclusion of yesterday's market failed to resolve themselves into taugibility to-day, and, altho the average price was higher during most of the session, the volume of business was confined to a hait-cent range, with closing figures fractionally above the opening. The news, both foreign and domestic, was so diversified that traders were at a loss to definitely determine upon a line of action, altho the tendency was toward the bull side. Generally speaking, however, some of the accompaniments and distinctive characteristics of a bull market were entirely lacking and, while these essentials may suddenly spring into notice, and it would seem to be the psycnological moment while the stock market is in such an unsatisfactory condition, there is no guarantee that the long interest would avail fixelf of such an opportunity to dispose of its holdings. The market, therefore, is but a scalping affair, and at present shows no decided tendency, being susceptible to such news as develops during each session.

Corn and oats were firm, altho the trade was quite limited. We received advices to the effect that the corn crop in many sections is disappointing, and look for good advance in this cereal in the near future. Provisions ruled somewhat firmer, and, with an increased trade prices were marked a shade higher.

Leave the Man Alone. Above the din of the occasion the voice of Mr. Jones was heard clear and strong. He cried:
"Mr. Ushers, leave the man alone. People, keep your seats. And now while we sing may the Lord have mercy on the soul of this man and bring him to a realization of his condition in the sight of Gcd and his fellowmen.

Hon. Nelson Monteith had an interview with the Berlín beet sugar men yesterday. A large number of farmers interested in the industry, York Ccunty, being widely concerned, had already petitioned the government with respect to the breach of faith of the manufacturers in tailing to supply cars and other facilities for the shipment of beets, as agreed upon.

Having by this time secured the close attention of every one in the house, he told the ever old but always new story of the wandering boy, ending by reciting, "Where is my wandering boy to might?" The speaker's intense earnestness and his face, lit up with a holy light, had a wonderful and powerful effect on the audience, and as he proceeded and saw more and more that he had his audience, he grew bolder and toyed with the heartstrings.

He played with the fountain springs of the tears and laughter of the peo-ple before him! And while thus play-ing he often spilled and made to freely flow their tears and laughter, which
