"Composition in Public Schools" was the subject of a paper read by Mr. William Scott, B.A., of Toronto Normal School. He suggested nature studies and reproduc-tion of stories as suitable lessons for com-position, and thought the teacher should encourage effort rather than success. The pupl should be so prepared that he will st down to write what he has thought, not to think what he has to write about. Mr. Sister moved, and Mr. Wilson seconded, a vote of thanks to Mr. Scott for his ad-dress, which passed unanimously. The Great Blood Purifier, Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures.
