THEORY TOO WELL PROVED

Two Deaths, Two Probably Fatal Cases, Three Serious attacks and Only One Escape

IN MOSQUITO INOCULATION TESTS.

No Doubt Now That the Little Pests Spread Yellow Fever, But it Was Known Before.

New York, Aug. 28.—The Journal has a special from Havana, saying: Two deaths, two probably fatal cases, three serious attacks from which the patients have not yet even partially recovered and one escape out of a total of eight inoculations.

That is the record for this month of the American authorities' experimentations with the "Mosquito Theory," and incidentally the discovery of an immunity serum.

A bride of five months, homeless and friendless, almost penniless, in a foreign land, a widowed mother in far off Spain, watching and praying for her boy in distant Cuba; a sweetheart waiting for a lover who will never come; mothers and fathers, loved ones and friends, in America, in England, in the Canaries, in Spain, waiting and trembling for news.

This is also incidentally the record of the experiments. But heartaches and heartsorrows, the wild, fierce agony of sweethearts, the dull, throbbing sorrows of mothers don't count. Science has won a victory. The authorities, when asked as to the result, answer with a smile, "Look at the record. There is no doubt now. It is no longer a theory. Yellow fever is transmitted by the mosquito." As to the sorrow of the dear ones! Oh, that will be measured and weighed and paid for in the current coin of the realm. The widowed bride will receive $300; the widowed mother, $500. That squares the balance and all is well.

And all this from eleven mospitoes—eleven mosquitoes that had been fed on the blood of one yellow fever patient.

ONTARIO MEN LOSE MONEY.

Affairs of Maritime Sulphite Fibre Co. to be Investigated.

A number of Ontario men are said to have dropped considerable money in the Maritime Sulphite Fibre Co., Limited, which is hopelessly insolvent, and to compel an investigation of whose affairs a petition was filed at Osgoode Hall on Saturday.

The president of the company is Mr. John Stewart, president of the Bank of Hamilton, who is said to have lost money by the smashing of the sulphite enterprise. A. B. Lee of the Rice Lewis Company is vice-president of the defunct company. Mr. Lee declined to discuss the affairs of the company yesterday.

Among the ordinary creditors is the firm of Northey & Son, an amount being due them for machinery supplied for the sulphite works. The amount is small. The World was informed.

It is also said the Dominion Coal Company have a claim.

It is generally understood that the ordinary creditors will receive nothing.

About Dec. 1 last the company deeded to the Royal Trust Company of Montreal and Mr. Hugh Robertson of Montreal certain of its real and personal property to secure an issue of debentures. The amount secured by the bondholders is $500,000 and it is hardly likely there will be anything over this for the ordinary creditors.

The prospects now are that the property will be put up for sale and an effort made to realize it.

One gentleman who wishes his name withheld, informed The World that some of the shareholders would go broke on the investment, and that several Toronto and Hamilton people are hit harder than they wish to admit.

Police Court Record.

James H. Lewis, the Christian Scientist charged with manslaughter, was remanded for two weeks in the Police Court yesterday. John Sparks was acquitted of a charge of assaulting G. Catalano. The best evidence for Sparks was not given under oath. It was a 6-inch photograph in which the Italian and his troubles were faithfully portrayed. John Ewers, charged with trespassing on the property of the R.C.Y.C., will appear again to-day. F. W. Waugh was acquitted of a charge of stealing a bicycle from Peter Fynn. George Travers, who was found sleeping on a railway track, was allowed to go. Thomas and Mrs. Bezley were sent to jail for 30 days for keeping a disorderly house. A number of hotelkeepers, druggists and steamboat men were fined for violating the liquor law.

Burglary on Walton-Street.

The home of H. F. Overton, at 46 Walton-street, was entered by thieves on Wednesday afternoon and a gold watch, with other jewelry, stolen. Detective Cuddy yesterday arrested in connection with the case Fred Smith, who refused to give any account of himself. He had some of the stolen property. He will be tried in the Police Court next Thursday.

Estate of Frank Gordon.

W. H. L. Gordon applied in the Surrogate Court yesterday for power to administer the estate of his son, the late Frank L. M. Gordon, who died Aug. 13 last, leaving an estate of $1262, of which $1000 is insurance.

O

SNARES FOR THE SIMPLE

WHAT the brand,—"Josepn Rodgers, Sheffield,"—signifies on a knife blade, the slate frame brand of—"The Slater Shoe"—signifies on a shoe sole.

But don't confuse mere personal names with registered brands!

The advantage of a brand, depends entirely upon its record for merit, established by the years certain goods have been publicly tested under that brand.

And, when such a brand has become a passport to people's confidence, there creeps in a species of piracy, which trades upon that confidence, by the selling of unknown goods, at a long profit, under some name which sounds like that of the brand.

This is how heedless Consumers are snared, and sold, and laughed at.

No purchaser should accept a blind excuse from a Retailer for the absence of the advertised trade mark, and the presence of something which resembles it superficially, but is not it legally.

There are thousands of men named "Rodgers," but there is only one standard brand of "Rodger's Cutlery," as there is only one standard brand of "The Slater Shoe."

If these words—"The Slater Shoe," are not stamped on the sole in a slate frame, it is not a genuine "Slater Shoe," and you buy it at your own risk.

The Slater Shoe Co. do not stand behind any but their own make—the shoe with a five year record of fixed value and uniform quality.

When you get the slate frame brand of "The Slater Shoe," stamped on the soles with the Makers price, you get the responsible, Goodyear Welted article.

PRIVATE LIFE OF SULTAN.

A Book That Has Caused Its Author to Keep Out of Turkey.

Paris, Aug. 29.—M. Georges Dorys, son of the late Prince of Samos, a former Minister of the Sultan of Turkey, and formerly Governor of Crete, has been condemned to death by the Sultan's courts at the direction of Abdul Hamid II.

This action was taken in Constantinople because of the publication of M. Dorys' book "The Private Life of the Sultan." The book so angered Turkey's ruler that he exerted his influence in diplomatic channels to have it suppressed in all European countries. His efforts succeeded in Sweden, but the popular outcry against such action in Paris was so strong that the government declined to exert itself.

M. Dorys secretly left Constantinople some time ago and is now a resident in Paris, where he has identified himself with the Young Turk party.

MIMIC SPANISH WAR.

Madrid, Aug. 29.—While the British fleet in Spanish waters was manoeuvring to-day, a torpedo which had been launched stranded on the shore in front of La Linea. A party of man-of-warsmen were sent to recover it, but were prevented from doing so by a detachment of Spanish Carabineers. The landing party, strongly reinforced from the fleet, overawed the Carabineers and took the torpedo.

APPEALS TO BRITISH GOVERNMENT.

Denver Man Has His Buildings Burned By an American Mob.

Denver, Colo., Aug. 29.—News has reached here that a mob has burned the remaining buildings belonging to William Radcliffe at Grand Mesa Lakes. It was the burning of the hotel at this place recently by a mob, that caused Mr. Radcliffe to call on Governor Orman for troops to protect his property, and also caused the report that Radcliffe had appealed to the British government for its protection, claiming to be a subject of Great Britain. The trouble, it is said, began when one of Mr. Radcliffe's guards killed a ranchman in a controversy over the right to fish in the lakes. Since then all the buildings on Radcliffe's place, including the fish hatchery, have been destroyed by mobs.

MAN WITH A BAD NAME.

The National Bureau of Identification at Chicago yesterday forwarded to Inspector Stark the criminal record of Albert Fields, alias William Barrett, one of the men arrested by Policemen Mullen and Phillips last Friday for attempting to change American bills of large denominations, and who forfeited their bail of $400 cash on Wednesday. Nothing is said about the other man, Frank Howard. Fields is a well-known bank sneak thief, and was a partner in crime of such expert thieves as Micky Gleason, Sid Yenny, Billy Burke and George Willard. He was convicted under the name of William Taylor on Nov. 16, 1886, and was sentenced to eight years in Joliet Penitentiary for burglary and larceny in Vermilion County, Ill., and was released Feb. 15, 1892. On May 13, 1892, he was arrested in Chicago for burglary and gave the name of George Barrett. The grand jury returned no bill and he was discharged. When arrested in Chicago July 1, 1895, he went by the name of William Thompson, but was again discharged not guilty of the charge of burglary. Several days later he was taken into custody at Austin, Ill., for sneak thieving at a bank, and gave the name of William McCormack. Again he secured his release. From Austin he went to Toledo, and on April 9, 1899, was fined $25 and costs and given thirty days in jail for sneak thieving. In the following month of August he was captured at Milwaukee, Wis., and once more secured his liberty. Fields is now wanted in Milwaukee, but Inspector Stark was notified yesterday that the charge is not of sufficient gravity to warrant extradition proceedings, even if the Toronto police had the man. G. Kuemmeeling, superintendent of police at Hamilton, Ohio, also wired yesterday stating that Fields is wanted there, but Inspector Stark replied that the man's present whereabouts are unknown.

Who is James Campbell?

Rochester, N.Y., Aug. 29.—A stranger, who gave his name as James Campbell, put up at a lodging house on Front-street several days ago, and was apparently well supplied with money and drank heavily. He was found dead in his room yesterday, and the coroner's examination discovered that the man had died from acute gastritis, due to some irritant poison. The police are investigating.

CURED TOTAL PARALYSIS!

It puzzles the Doctors and astonishes his patients how South American Nervine cures so many who are "given up to die"—it never fails.

"My wife was stricken with nervous prostration, which developed into total paralysis. We had hardly any hope of her recovery, but had heard of the great cures made by South American Nervine in cases of nervous troubles. We decided to try the treatment, and it was astonishing the results that followed the taking of three bottles—it worked wonders indeed. I feel I cannot speak too highly of this great remedy."

HON. DAVID AT HIGHGATE.

Minister of Justice Speaks to Large Audience at His Birthplace.

Highgate, Aug. 29.—The Hon. David Mills addressed a successful meeting here last night. Notwithstanding the warm weather, the comparatively short notice and the fact that the farmers about here are still very busy with their crops, the hall was completely filled, a fact which shows the great hold the Minister of Justice has in this splendid township in which he was born. Nothing could exceed the cordiality and respect with which Mr. Mills was received, and it must have inspired the distinguished speaker, who delivered a splendid and important speech. Mr. Mills was in good form and held the close attention of his intelligent audience, which included many ladies. The chair was occupied by Mr. J. H. Crosby, and on the platform or in the audience, besides the Minister of Justice, were: Messrs. J. A. Walker, K. C., of Chatham; John Cameron, London Advertiser; Walter Mills, Ridgetown; D. Campbell, London; Henry Watson, Rev. Charles Crichton, E. B. Mills, Pamyra; Jonas Gosnell, ex-Warden; Ed. Beattie, George Reycroft, James Tape, Thomas Lee, John D. Gillis, R. C. Scott, Joseph Hornal, B. C. Foster, Frederick Scott, Peter Kerr, Alex. McTavish, A. G. Gillis, Charles McLaren, James Altridge, John Brosnahan, Samuel Gosnell, D. T. Gillis, Daniel Mills, Thomas Mickle, James Stevenson of Ekfrid, Lawrence Tape and quite a large sprinkling of ladies. After the speech of the Minister of Justice short addresses were delivered by Messrs. J. A. Walker, K.C., of Chatham; John Cameron of The London Advertiser, and Walter Mills of Ridgetown, all of which were well received.

Ottawa, Aug. 29.—While the Duke of Cornwall and York is watching the lacrosse match to be given for his entertainment here he will sit in a chair occupied by his father, the King, when, as Prince of Wales, he visited Ottawa to lay the corner stone of the Parliament Buildings. The chair has been for over a score of years in the sanctuary of St. Joseph's Church. Latterly it has been in the possession of the Ottawa University.

Old Scroxton is a man of words and he is wondrous wise; he bought Campana's Italian Balm his wife for to surprise; and now she finds her wrinkles gone, her hands white as can be. She says "Campana's Italian Balm was the best surprise for me." 1357
