mand for hay at tomorrow's market.

Straw is none too plentiful, and sells at 11.25c; April, 11.31c; May, 11.37c; July, 11.43c.

Butter and Eggs-Butter was scarce to day, and as a consequence prices were firm, at 24c for crocks and 25c to 26c for choice pound rolls. Eggs were firm, at 20c to 21c per dozen for crate and basket lots; nearly all the sales were made at the higher figure.

Vegetables and Roots—Potatoes

quite plentiful; there were about a dozen large loads from Caradoc, and a large number of small lots; as the grocers and other large buyers have not started to buy for the winter, sales were slow; prices ruled at 60c to $1 per bag, mostly at 90c. Oauliflowers sold at 10c to 15c each; corn, 12c per dozen; cabbages, 40c to 60c per dozen; celery, 30c to 40c per dozen; beets, onions, lettuce and radishes, 20c per dozen; pickling onions, 10c to 15c per quart; large onions, 90c to $1 per bu

Fruits-Apples were dull, at 40c to 70c per bu; pears scarce and higher in price, at $1 25 to $1 75 per bu; plums, 60c to 70c per basket; grapes are lower in price, at 25c to 30c for the 10-1b basket; peaches are higher, at $1 to $1 50 per 12-quart basket; citrons, 10c each.

Poultry-The supply was small, and no changes in prices were noted. Dressed Hogs-Prices were steady, a $8 50 and occasionally $8 60 per cwt Live Hogs-The price for Monday's shipment will be $6 per cwt for selects.

Butcher's Meats-Unchanged in price.

PRODUCE MARKET. TORONTO.

Toronto, Sept. 26.-The smallness of the amount of grain available for trading is still keeping the local market quiet. Traders with agencies over the Province say that practically no wheat or oats are be ing delivered yet. Ontario winter wheat is quoted at 93c to 94c for white and 92c to Montreal Cotton 93c for red and mixed, the difference in Bell Telephone, 1 price being due to a better export demand for the white. In the first heat Miss Walker won easily, as Mrs. Henry's horse made an unfortunate break early in the race, and gave her opponent a lead which she maintained.

The excitement during the second event was intense, both horses getting away with a perfect start. Miss Walker got the pole and by an exhibition of magnificent skill gradualahead, winning by a small margin her many Glencoe admirers.
