

CLERICAL VOTE DEFEATS
ATTACK ON DR. JACKSONArmstrong Amendment Carries
After Dr. Cleaver is Heard in
Arraignment of Professors.

By a vote of 130 to 118 the Toronto Methodist Conference yesterday endorsed the resolution of Rev. L. Armstrong, seconded by H. L. Levering of Coldwater, and the heated debate over Rev. George Jackson's book, "Studies in the Old Testament," was brought to a close. The original resolution of Rev. Dr. Cleaver, seconded by B. E. Bull, asking the general conference to exclude so-called "heretical" books, was thus overruled by the broader worded Armstrong amendment, with a narrow majority of 14. The laymen's vote was more than two to one against the amendment, but the heavy ministerial vote in its favor saved the day for the adherents of Mr. Jackson. The laymen's vote was: Yeas 134, nays 71.

Rev. Dr. Armstrong addressed the conference first. He objected to Dr. Cleaver's resolution because it mentioned the name of a brother and sister, and he also objected to the manner in which the resolution was presented and debated at this conference by men who wished to see the resolution carried. "I do not wish to open up our colleges or pulpits to heresy, but to be sure that we are definite on fundamental lines, on the essential doctrines of our faith."

"But let us not quarrel on the points of disagreement when the essential principles are firmly established. I was educated in an ultra-conservative college and yet I never was taught there to refrain from investigating truth with an open mind. I was orthodox up till yesterday; anyhow, Justice MacLaren said I was."

Justice MacLaren: "Don't backslide now."

Stand on Essential Principles.

Dr. Armstrong: "I won't. I have read Dr. Jackson's book without being shocked. It contains no doctrinal paragraphs as were ever uttered in this conference. What is the teaching of the book? I turn to the opinion of Rev. W. T. Davidson of Richmond College, England, one of the highest authorities on the Old Testament. He says the addresses are valuable as putting in readable form the gains to faith from studying the modern criticism. Dr. Jackson dwells upon the constructive, not the destructive, element of modern criticism. I am willing, and we all ought to be, to be bound by the essential doctrines of our church, or step out. But as to the settings of truth wherever found, we ought to demand liberty."

Dr. Armstrong then stated the essential principles on which our church is founded, but when you ask me to say that the Bible stands as a book of history and science when it only claims to be the final authority on religion, then we get into difficulties and are divided. This resolution is the line of safety and any other imperils us. Let us keep away from these personalities."

Dr. Armstrong was loudly applauded, as was Dr. Cleaver, the next speaker, who said: "Rev. Dr. Armstrong's amendment means nothing so far as the question at issue is concerned. The substance of his amendment has been embodied in the work of the general conference for years. As for Mr. Parsons, I love him dearly, but the attitude he takes regarding his resolution is extreme. I'm sure Mr. Parsons wouldn't want to crowd me out of the Methodist church or crowd himself out. We must compromise."

Arraignment of Professors.

"The charge that 'Victoria College professors are in the same boat with Dr. Jackson' needs no debate. They have intimated clearly that they are guilty. I have two children, graduates of Victoria College, and if I had had my present light on the doctrines taught there my children never would have gone to Victoria. I'm sorry to say it, brethren, but it's true, that a large stream of students are going out from Victoria College, ruined for life as far as their religious faith is concerned." (Cries of "No, no!")

Rev. Dr. Burns rose to a point of order. This was practically an arraignment of the college professors and should not be allowed, he said.

Dr. Hincks: "You may take down what Dr. Cleaver says. If he utters a slander he is not protected."

Dr. Cleaver: "We must take the bitter with the sweet. Surely the church which employs the professors has a right to tell its professors to conform to their teachings to the doctrines that the church believes to be true, and not to preach any doctrines that the church disapproves."

"In my youth I shot infidelism in the face of a crowd of crows, but I never hit one. I had to aim at one particular crow. We don't question that there is good in Dr. Jackson's book, but one single grain of strychnine in a pound of good meat will kill."

The ministerial delegates elected yesterday to attend the general conference at Victoria, B.C., are: Rev. F. L. Brown, Rev. R. Bowles, Rev. W. K. Hagar, Rev. Dr. J. C. Spear, Rev. Dr. Gorman, Rev. Dr. J. C. Spear, Rev. Dr. W. Watch, Rev. Dr. A. Sutherland, Rev. Dr. J. A. Long, Rev. Dr. A. C. Crews, Rev. Dr. Paul, Rev. Thos. Dunlop, Rev. T. E. Bartley, Rev. N. B. Burns, Rev. John Locke was elected first reserve delegate. The other reserve delegates were Rev. J. J. Redditt, Rev. C. E. Manning, Rev. J. F. McLaughlin and Rev. J. F. Ockley. Another is to be elected to-day.

The second report of the Laymen's Association was adopted by the conference yesterday afternoon. Among the recommendations are that: A missionary committee for the Laymen's Association be appointed for the Toronto Conference, one representative to be from each district. That the special duty of the committee shall be to encourage the adoption, by all the circuits and ministers of the conference, of the methods approved by the Laymen's Association for the development of missionary interests. That the salaries of ordained married ministers be $500, and of unmarried single ministers $300, exclusive of house keeping.

Likewise and Bradford districts sent resolutions to the conference endorsing the proposed church union, while Owen Sound district opposed it.

A resolution was carried to form a fraternal union of all the Methodist Churches in Toronto for self help. The churches would not at all lose their identity, but the ministers would arrange to interchange pulpits and generally work together in harmony.

Sunday School Abstainers.

The report of the Sunday School Committee stated that only 25 per cent of the Methodist young people were total abstainers. Dr. Chown thereupon intimated that this would infer that 75 per cent of them were not total abstainers, consequently he moved a resolution for the appointment of a temperance secretary for each Sunday school.

The memorial committee recommended that the term "decision day" in Sunday schools be changed to "public confession" day. Rev. Mr. Burns objected because he didn't like the Roman Catholic term "confession." The conference decided to preserve the original word "decision."

A resolution of appreciation of the long and faithful services of Rev. J. R. Alkenhead, secretary of the continuing fund, and R. C. Hamilton, treasurer, was carried unanimously.

At the session last night addresses on behalf of the missionary schemes of the church were given by Hon. Justice MacLaren and J. W. L. Forsyth.

GOVERNMENT MONOPOLY
OF ELEVATORS PROPOSEDAdvocated Before Saskatchewan
Commission—Farmers Will Besiege Sir Wilfrid.

REGINA, Sask., June 14.—Another variation of the scheme for the government-owned elevator system was advocated before the commission this morning by Walter Simpson of the Regina district. Mr. Simpson thought the only remedy for the farmer was that the government should own and operate all the elevators in the province, thus making the elevator system a government monopoly. Rather than ask the government to enter upon a scheme for the building of elevators to compete with the line elevators, which scheme he was convinced would be a financial failure, it would be better to recommend that nothing be done at all and that the system be left as it is at present.

As the farmers are recognizing that all their grievances cannot be remedied by the action of the provincial authorities and that there are many things that only can be dealt with by a Dominion movement, he said, the Dominion Grocers' Association have been considering means to bring these matters more forcibly to the notice of the Dominion authorities, and in pursuance of this purpose there is a movement on foot to organize a monster demonstration of farmers to meet Sir Wilfrid when he visits the west this summer.

Realty and Building

There is an excellent demand for houses of all classes in Toronto at the present time. Every section of the city is being built up, and local dealers are reporting that in some instances there are not sufficient dwellings on offer in particular districts to meet the demand.

One real estate man discussing this question with The World, stated that he was finding great difficulty in securing houses suitable for his customers. There was an active demand, but people who are looking for a certain kind of house would not be satisfied with anything else, and for this reason while enquiries were perhaps better than ever, there was not an overly large amount of business being done. Prices in many instances were being held at what seemed very high figures and this was holding things back also.

A large number of people who have been seeking houses in the spring, have not been satisfied and for this reason, if for none other, real estate men are looking for an active trading during the fall season.

The Royce-avenue Presbyterian Church are erecting a two-story and attic manse on Perth-avenue, near Royce-avenue. It will cost $3800. Ellis & Connery are the architects.

Dr. E. C. Burson has taken out a building permit for the erection of a two-story and attic brick dwelling on St. Clair-avenue. It will cost $17,000. C. P. Bond is the architect.

The Canada Foundry Company are putting up a brick addition to their foundry near the King-street subway. It will cost $1500.

William Robinson has taken out a building permit for the erection of a five pair of two-story brick dwellings on the west side of Sheridan-avenue, near Dundas-street. They will cost $20,000.

It is announced that the property formerly occupied by the Toronto Plate Glass Co. at 171-175 Victoria-street, will be occupied by an automobile factory. This property was sold a short while ago for something like $60,000. The land has a frontage of 87 feet and a depth of 116 feet, which brings the price to slightly under $1000 a foot.

The old Murray residence at 156 Crescent-read has been sold to Frank Wood, of Ballie, Wood & Croft, for $32,000. The house is a five-roomed house and is situated on a fine lot and the whole property is assessed for $21,580.

Presentations.

At a garden party under the auspices of the Woman's Alliance of the Unitarian Church, held in the grounds of the Rev. Mr. Hutton, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Hutton, was presented with a club bag and Mrs. Hutton and Master Allen Hutton with purses of gold. They leave on Friday for the British Isles, and will also visit Berlin during the sessions of the convention of delegates of the Liberal churches. Mrs. Hutton will be home for the first Sunday in September.
