

The Evening Times Star

VOL. XI, No. 33

ST. JOHN N. B., WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 10, 1915

TWELVE PAGES—ONE CENT

New Type of Gun For Allies' Offensive

French Advance When Enough of Them Ready—Throw Shell Which Dives Into Enemy's Trenches

Paris, Nov. 10.—The great French advance which is to clear the German invaders out of Belgium and France will be pressed home just as soon as the army is sufficiently equipped with a new gun about which there has been so much talk of late in military circles.

One They Did Not Kill

Amsterdam, Nov. 10.—The Telegram says: "Baron De Hemphine, sentenced to death by a German court martial in Belgium on a charge of espionage, has been sent to Germany under a commuted sentence."

Have Saved French Submarine

London, Nov. 10.—A Reuter telegram from Constantinople says that the French submarine Turquoise, which was damaged by Turkish artillery fire, has been hauled off the point where she went ashore, and is being taken to Constantinople and repaired.

GERMANS AGAIN REPULSED IN WEST

Paris, Nov. 10.—A German attack near the forest of Givenchy was easily repulsed by French troops, according to an announcement by the French war office, while at the same time French batteries in the Champagne district, near Tahure, responded with energy to a German artillery attack.

More Italian Successes

Rome, Nov. 10.—The following official statement was issued today at the headquarters of the Italian general staff: "Continually increasing activity of artillery and aeroplanes in the Trentino frontier."

RECRUITING MUCH BETTER

The 104th Over Strength But Still Signing on Men SOME RUMORS OF TODAY

More Families Have Given Three Sons to the War

Another St. John family is well represented in the ranks of Lord Kitchener's army with three of its members in uniform, sons of E. N. Knox of Montserrat. There have been several instances of St. John families thus contributing two, three and four of their boys and this is another added to the list.

Another With Three

Mrs. C. Edgar Rees, of Fairville, has now all her sons in the king's service. C. P. Lloyd and Harold E. Rees enlisted with the A. S. C. second contingent a year ago and are now in France, and Robert M. has now enlisted in Winnipeg with the 80th Winnipeg Rifles.

POLICE COURT

In the police court this morning, Charles London was fined $8 or two months in jail for drunkenness, $8 or ten months in jail for resisting the police, and remained on a charge of escaping from lawful custody.

WINTERING TROOPS

Reports today were that some unit would be quartered in West St. John this winter, in the drill shed occupied last season by the Army Service Corps.

SUSSEX CHARGES

Four men taken into custody last night after the police had obtained information from two young girls. The men were remanded in the police court this morning.

Mostly Women and Children Were Drowned on the Ancona

Austrians Follow Lead of Their German Friends

HUNDRED SHELLS ALSO FIRED AT STEAMSHIP

Some Americans Said to Have Been Aboard and if Any Are Lost United States is Expected to Act—Estimates of Number of Lives Lost Varies

London, Nov. 10.—A despatch to Lloyds from Biseria says that 800 persons on the Italian liner Ancona were sunk by an Austrian submarine, and that most of the lost, the message says, were women and children immigrants.

A despatch from the Italian News Agency of Rome says that 100 shells were fired into the Ancona before she was torpedoed.

It is now believed there were 462 passengers and 60 crew aboard the Ancona. It is believed that 277 have been accounted for as safe.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Definite information concerning the sinking of the Italian liner Ancona by a submarine flying the Austrian flag, was anxiously awaited today by officials of the United States government.

Despatches containing little information about the sinking of the Ancona were received today, and that 370 of the 462 persons aboard had been saved, received here early today.

It is now believed that "American" about 100 lives, and that the liner was torpedoed without warning.

London, Nov. 10.—The British steamship Clan Macaulay, 4638 tons gross, has been sunk. She was owned in Glasgow, was built in 1903.

ISRAEL L. LONGLEY PASSED AWAY TODAY

Former Well Known Contractor Identified With Prominent Building Work

A former well known contractor and builder in this city, Israel L. Longley, died today at the home of his son-in-law, Mr. W. W. McKinnon, in Rothesay, with whom he had lived for the last three years.

Mr. Longley was a son of the late John D. and Mary A. Fellows Longley of Grandville, N. S., but had lived practically all of his life in St. John.

PART OF STEEL PLANT AND GUNS VALUED AT MILLIONS BURNED

South Bethlehem, Pa., Nov. 10.—Fire early today almost completely destroyed No. 4 machine shop of the Bethlehem Steel Co. Machinery and war material was said to be worth millions of dollars.

Two more men left the city last night for Montreal to join the Overseas Construction Corps, E. F. Dick of St. John, and C. M. Stewart, a railway contractor of Perth, N. B.

Construction Corps. Two more men left the city last night for Montreal to join the Overseas Construction Corps, E. F. Dick of St. John, and C. M. Stewart, a railway contractor of Perth, N. B.

British Cruiser Sinks Two Submarines In Straits of Gibraltar

The British torpedo boat destroyer Louis, Lieut-Commander Morocco, by way of Madrid, reports that a British cruiser has sunk two German submarines in the Straits of Gibraltar.

London, Nov. 10.—The following official statement was given out here today: "The British torpedo boat destroyer Louis, Lieut-Commander Morocco, by way of Madrid, reports that a British cruiser has sunk two German submarines in the Straits of Gibraltar."

London, Nov. 10.—Telegrams received here from Algiers, Harard D. A. Hall, has been stranded in the Eastern Mediterranean, and has become a total wreck. All of the officers and crew are safe.

London, Nov. 10.—For the first time since the beginning of the war, newspaper correspondents have been allowed to inspect the great new aviation centre of the British army.

London, Nov. 10.—For the first time since the beginning of the war, newspaper correspondents have been allowed to inspect the great new aviation centre of the British army.

Britain To Hold Sway In Air If She Already Does Not Do So

Newspaper Men, For First Time Since War Broke Out, See Great New Aviation Centres

London, Nov. 10.—For the first time since the beginning of the war, newspaper correspondents have been allowed to inspect the great new aviation centre of the British army.

London, Nov. 10.—For the first time since the beginning of the war, newspaper correspondents have been allowed to inspect the great new aviation centre of the British army.

CAPT. PETER CAMERON DEAD

Sudden Passing Away of Marine Well Remembered in St. John

The death of Captain Peter Cameron of Masarene, Charlotte county, N. B., occurred this morning at his late home in St. John.

He was a well known and popular figure in the community, and his death is a great loss to the city.

GOVERNOR OF SHANGHAI IS ASSASSINATED

Shanghai, Nov. 10.—Admiral Tseng Ju Cheng, governor of the Shanghai district, was assassinated today. His secretary, who was with him at the time, was seriously wounded.

The assassination occurred in the middle of the day, and the cause is still under investigation.

GERMANS HAD GREAT LOT OF MOUNTAINS STORED IN HOPE FOR REBELLION IN AFRICA

London, Nov. 10.—A despatch to the Times from Capetown, says that Henry Burton, minister of railways of the Union of South Africa, declared in a speech at Natal that huge quantities of ammunition had been found hidden in the Damaraland, Southwest Africa.

WEATHER BULLETIN

Issued by the Department of Marine and Fisheries, R. F. Stupart, director of meteorological service.

British Take Up New Position In Balkans; Allies Make Gains

Khaki Troops Reinforced and French Are Extending Their Lines—Town of Velez Recaptured—Greek Army May Be Demobilized

Paris, Nov. 10.—An official statement issued by the Franco-British staff, at Saloniki yesterday, and transmitted to the Havas Agency, says: "British troops, reinforced by a new division, occupy solidly the region north of Doiran and are operating in the direction of Strumitsa, where encounters between British and Bulgarian patrols have been reported."

The Bulgarian attack on Kirovack testifies to the anxiety caused by the progress of French troops beyond the Creza River, and the occupation by them of the regions of Monastir, Camandoli and Dobrota, protecting the routes to Babouna Pass.

London, Nov. 10.—French forces have recaptured the town of Velez in Southern Serbia from the Bulgarians according to advices received by the Serbian legation in Athens.

London, Nov. 10.—Serbians operating in the defiles of Kurtchank against the Bulgarians advancing from Utkub to Pribrenod report an important success, according to advices from Saloniki, says an Athens despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company.

SEVERAL NEW LOCAL ATTORNEYS

Young Men to be Admitted in Supreme Court in Fredericton Tomorrow

In the Supreme Court at Fredericton this morning at an eleven o'clock session, young St. John men will be admitted as attorneys, together with others from other parts of the province.

The candidates were admitted to the bar at a meeting of the Council of the Bar, which was held in Fredericton last evening.

The council recommended that the following attorneys be admitted as barristers: Joseph L. Ryan and William A. Ross, Campbellton; John A. Creighton, Newcastle; M. Alonzo Kelly, Campbellton, and Ralph F. Hartley, Woodstock.

DEMobilization OF GREEK ARMY

Rome, Nov. 10.—A decree ordering the demobilization of the Greek army soon will be issued, according to an Athens despatch to the Tormala D'Italia, which says that only 50,000 men will be kept under arms.

London, Nov. 10.—The section of the press favorable to the Greek government affirms that a decree dissolving the chamber will be promulgated tomorrow, says an Athens despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company.

London, Nov. 10.—The section of the press favorable to the Greek government affirms that a decree dissolving the chamber will be promulgated tomorrow, says an Athens despatch to the Exchange Telegraph Company.

AN ENEMY REPORT

Berlin, Nov. 10.—A defeat for the French and British troops in Southern Serbia, with losses which are described as enormous, is reported in a despatch from Sofia by way of Budapest.

BRITAIN'S WAR BILLS $8,310,000,000

London, Nov. 10.—Premier Asquith will ask the house of commons today for a vote of credit of $2,000,000,000. This will make the total amount voted for war purposes in the current year $6,500,000,000.

With the amount voted in the financial year of 1914-15, the sum allotted for the war will reach the aggregate of $8,310,000,000.