CHARGES AGAINST INSPECTOR MADE

W. M. Ryan Given Commission to Investigate

Complaint is Made by Dr. Thos. F. Sprague of Woodstock Against R. W. Demmings of Aroostook Junction.

It was learned today that a commission had been issued to William M. Ryan, of St. John, authorizing him to investigate charges made against R. W. Demmings, of Aroostook Junction, Victoria county, a liquor inspector under the prohibition act. The charges are made by Dr. Thos. F. Sprague of Woodstock and include the giving of liquor to various persons, contrary to the act, receiving money from persons engaged in the sale of liquor, contrary to the act, and also taking proceedings against Dr. Sprague for the issuing of prescriptions in violation of the act and omitting to take proceedings against other medical men. The charges also include that in general the inspector carried out his duties in a partial, irregular and illegal manner.

Mr. Ryan, when asked about the matter today, confirmed the fact that he had received the commission from the provincial government and said that he would go to Aroostook this week to make ready for the investigation.
