KING'S DAUGHTERS CONVENTION

At the three sessions of the triennial dominion convention of the King's Daughters yesterday much business was transacted quickly at the morning session. At the afternoon session Mrs. McTavish gave a very interesting address, taking for her subject "Making Friends Worth While." Miss A. M. Brown complimented Mrs. McTavish on the beauty of the paper, Mrs. A. P. Crockett sang two solos and Miss McParlane, who has seen much service as a V. A. D. overseas, gave an interesting address. A quiet hour was led by Mrs. J. C. Austen. The delegates and city officers were entertained at the Manor House by Mrs. Crockett.

The evening session was a public one and was held in Centenary hall. Mrs. M. E. MacMonagle and Mrs. J. C. Austen led the devotional exercises. Miss E. M. Gourey made a strong appeal for mission work and Mrs. Crockett gave a graphic account of the port work done in the city during the winter months. Others who took part in the meeting were Mrs. Kirkpatrick, Mrs. D. W. Puddington, Mrs. Curren and Miss Brown.

FATHER AND SON DIE

Samuel and Joseph Levine, father and son, died in the city yesterday within a few hours of each other. The son, Joseph, was one of five brothers who had been in the Canadian forces in the war. He was an original 26th Battalion man and died yesterday in the military hospital. His father had been ill for some time with cancer and the shock of his son's death was too much for him in his weakened condition. His wife, four sons and five daughters survive.

Commissioner T. H. Bullock was chosen chairman of the St. John housing board at an organization meeting yesterday afternoon. The other members, A. H. Wetmore, Geo. P. Hennessey and Controller A. P. MacIntyre, were present. The meeting discussed the provincial regulations of the housing scheme.
