BOWLING

Arctic Alleys

Lou Monahan won one of the most exciting weekly roll offs of the bowling season at the Arctic Alleys in Fredericton on Tuesday night with a three string average of 94. He had a single string score of 115, while Will Carter reached 110. The most consistent bowling of the evening was Jack McFadden, who landed in second place with a three string score of 278.

On Black's Alleys.
Belyea and Ferguson won from Harrison and Brown, 4 to 2 in the two-men tournament on Black's alleys last evening. The total score was 915 to 890. Harrison had the best average, 91.5. Sullivan and Irvine defeated Norris and Logan, taking all 6 points, 901 to 898. Black and Gilmore took 5 points from Belyea and Ferguson, 904 to 873. Gilmore's score of 91.35 was the highest.

BASEBALL

Local Notes

One of the Fredericton infidels is asking for more money than the club is willing to pay.
It is said that Black, a Woodstock outfielder of last year is willing to fill a place on the Marathons' team.
Three weeks from next Saturday and then "play ball."
It is looking brighter all over the N. B. & M. circuit.
When the league opens, the fans ought to realize that hard work on the part of a few individuals is what makes base all possible here this season.
A Montreal letter to the Times makes it look as if our friend McGovern might be with us again. Here's hoping so.
Dutton or Noble, Pinkerton and O'Brien are the three sacker suits of all night.
Joe Tarbell is within reach for the St. John team. He will be welcomed.
Well, we are all keyed up for the opening games. It is a safe bet that St. John fans will back up the management by large attendance.

In Bangor.

Prospects for organized baseball in Bangor, Me., are appearing more encouraging. About $500 has been subscribed by various citizens, and it is believed that the $500 additional will be secured, so that the $1,000 necessary will be raised to enable a team being put in the N. B. & M. league this year. F. J. Leonard, manager of the Marathons, is working on the matter in Bangor. It is expected that George Magoon, coach of the University of Maine baseball team, will become manager of the club.

Diamond Sparkles.

The Red Sox now have two postponed games with the Highlanders, one in New York and the other on the home grounds. Miguel Angelo Gonzales, Cuban catcher has been released by Manager Stallings of Boston and left for New York last night. He will play this summer with the Long Branch club.
