THE SEWER.

The workmen engaged in repairing the break in the sewer at the C. P. R. property in Mill street are meeting with encouragement in their labors and up to noon this morning their efforts to remove several large timbers from the place had been successful, although it is a tedious occupation. The water is now flowing freely, and it is expected that before another day or two final repairs will have been completed.

THE HIGH TEA

Well up to 650 people, notwithstanding the disagreeable weather, attended the high tea last evening in the Keith assembly suite. Those in charge at the support tables found themselves kept very buy, from the opening at six o'clock until mine and they attended well to the wants of all and everything went with the same successful swing as marked the first night. Among those present last evening went His Lordship Bishop Casey, Father Collins of Fairville, Father Walsh of Holy Trinity and Fathers Porter and Robichaad. The games and booths were well patronized and in all it was a very successful evening. Tonight the Y. M. S. of St. Josepoveneurs will be received in their particular business of Britain Rainbow Folles in the Seamer's Institute last night was a decided success.
