CANADIENS RUN RIOT AND ENGAGE IN FISTICUFFS WITH FORWARD PASS Many Promising Young Players Are Let Out By Major League Clubs

N.H.L. Champions Are Defeated By Cougars 5 to 2

VICTORIA, B. C., March 23 .-(Canadian Press).-Capitalizing the greatest advantage which has ever favored a club in a world's series, the favored a club in a world's series, the forward pass inside the opposing blue line, the Victoria Congars swallowed up the Montreal Canadiens here Saturday night in the opening skirmish of the battle for the Stanley Cup. Despite desperate efforts by their defence the Frenchmen could not keep out the flashing forms of Victoria and the final score loomed up five to two.

Fail To Fathom Rules.

Before the game Canadiens spent considerable time trying to diagnose the rules which were introduced into western hockey this year by the Patricks. They found no trouble in getting the hang of the privilege of kicking the puck, anywhere they wanted, bút they got a headache trying to fathom the new departure of passing.

Tied Up In Knots.

When the game opened Canadiens found Victoria weaving through their defence by flipping the puck ahead and the wings galloping around to pick it up, blazing shots at Vezina. When the Frenchmen tried to work it they got tied up in knots. Someone would get ahead of the play or they would pick up a pass from one section to another, and Ion would call them back. Several times the play was stopped while Canadiens quizzed Ion as to what they were allowed to do. Instructions, however, in allowed to do. Instructions, however, in the heat of the fray, had little beneficial effect upon the visitors, and trouble continued to crown their efforts.

In the third period the Crimson garbed visitors showed signs of picking up the new tricks and they gained one goal on the forward pass. The experience will be a great help to Canadiens when they meet. Victoria in the third game of the series which will be staged under the western code. Tonight, when Dandurand's darbies meet Victoria under eastern rules, they hope to square the count and begin the drive that will carry them to their second consecutive championship.

The Cougars looked very good Saturday night, and although favored with their own rules, and playing before their own fans, it would be unfair to say that they were not good measure for their win. They had the edge in speed and their defence handled the dazzling attacks of Morenz and Joliet in a creditable manner. The aggressive checking of Loughlin and Fraser provided the first free-for-all fight seen here this winter.

A Battle Royal

Joliat, who tried desperately to lift one of his whistlers past Holmes, was spun around by Loughlin, and crashed into the boards. The nearest man to him when he gained his feet, was the diminutive Anderson, and with one jump, he closed and let fly with both hands for a knockdown. Foyston dropped Joliat. The players drew like wasps to a jam pot, and Halderson was the next to be stretched upon the cold sheet. Referee Ion restored order after three minutes of fast fighting, and issued major penalties. It took the rest of the period to get the players tamed down.

The Commercial A. C. of this city was, after considerable effort, matched Willie Gradwell, the Blonde Boston Bearcat, and Lou Kid Lewis, the Montreal fistic star, for a 10-round bout.

Gradwell is one of the few battlers to hold Alex. Hart, the Philadelphian to a draw. This bout took place recently. In his only appearance in the Maritime Provinces Gradwell defeated Johnny McIntyre of Glace Bay. Gradwell hammered Bobby Barrett, the slashing Philadelphia, North Boston during the past season. He has referee's decisions over Charlie Parker of Boston, Pete Hartley of New York, Harry Kid Brown of Philadelphia, who recently defeated Jimmy Fruzzetti; John Shugrue of Worcester, Johnny Darcy of New York, Tansey Norton of Boston, George Brown of New York, Frankie Britt of New Bedford, Francis Rossi of Brockton, Harry Carlson of Brockton, Phinney Boyle of Lowell, Mickey Conley of News Box on to meet Mickey Walker. Gradwell is a two-handed warrior, who has boxed in most of the larger cities, and who has lost but three bouts in more main bouts in Boston than any other New England lightweight.

Lou Kid Lewis has met some excellent ringsters, and has never been flatened, even for a short count. He is a rough and tough mitt slinger, who is a big favorite in Montreal.

been roasted by the Maritime amateur athletic commission. The writer appeared to be quite peeved over the banishing from the amateur ranks of Francis McEachern, 147 pound champion, and Buddy Lewis, 185 pound champion, and depriving them of the titles. The article in part follows:

"Apparently the time to lodge any complaint against these boys was before the amateur bouts took place, not after they had been fought and the titles brought to Cape Breton. However, the latest action of the amateur authorities is just what might have been expected from this organization which to date has accomplished nothing for amateur sport in Cape Breton."

Perhaps our Glace Bay contemporary feels they should have been allowed to retain the honors won in the recent Maritime championship meet, staged in this city several weeks ago, despite the fact that they may have participated in professional semi-finals. He fails to advance one argument in their favor. If they did not compete in professional bouts then he would have just grounds for a "kick," but if they did -and the amateur authorities claim to have proven beyond a doubt that such was the case—the wisest thing for him to do is "let the dead past bury its dead." There is nothing to be gained by "bawling out" the amateur authorities. It is known that the Glace Bay boys did not have registration cards when they came here to participate in the tournament-why? If they are innocent they should have little difficulty proving it, but if they are guilty they have no right coming here or elsewhere and camouflaging as amateurs.

JUDGING FROM despatches on Saturday Branch Rickey is quite taken with the work of Vincent Shields. He commented on his underhand ball and baffling delivery and said he expected he would have no difficulty making the grade. This is good news to his many friends in New Brunswick, who are undoubtedly eager to see him become a permanent member of the St. Louis roster. Many fans in all over the parks. This, however, is hardly fair. Shields not only has a sweeping cross-fire underhand delivery, but he also possesses an undance of speed. He is a big husky youth and should be able to work at top speed from the time he enters the box until the termination of the game. He will also have the advantage of working on some of the best ball parks in the world and will have-or should havestellar support. Taking all things into consideration there is no reason why he should not make good unless he should fall down on his control. This is one of the greatest essentials for a major league pitcher. Here's wishing him the best of luck.

RASEBALL IS evidently taking quite a hold on the Japs. Word has been received here that a strong team plans on coming to America this summer to compete against major and minor league clubs. The team is made up of former star players of the leading universities, now all members of the staff of one of the largest newspapers in Japan. The nine claims the championship of the Far East, basing this on their showing in a league in which they won nine games, lost three and played one 12 inning tie. They are to leave Kobe next Saturday and are due to arrive in San Francisco early in May. The names of the members of the team are available, but what's the use. When they arrive in America they should be numbered for there is not one in a hundred who could even begin to pronounce their names. Local fans will recall the old "Scribes team," who vanquished and were vanquished by Opera House nines. In their prime they should have toured the Far East and demonstrated to the Japs a few contortions not on their repertoire. The "Scribes" may not have been the best team in the world but they could pull off some plays that would have driven Connie Mack insane.

WELL, IT'S TIME for the Trojans to don their war togs and prepare to turn back the invaders, the Rideaus of Ottawa, who are here to compete in the semi-finals for the Canadian basketball championship. The game, which is to be played in St. Vincent's gymnasium, promises to be one of the best ever staged in these parts. It is now up to "Beef" Malcolm and his team mates to demonstrate to citizens in the capital that the city of Saint John is on the map, although some of the politicians there may only have a faint recollection that such is the case. If the "Rough Riders" were handed a jolt it might refreshen the memory of some of the forgetful ones. It seems kind of tough to take it out on the basketball team, but they hail from Ottawa and—
