The spills of the tent were hardly able to meet the demands of all who were any ious to peer into the mysterious depths of the future. It is said that a desire to be truthful was the ruling feature of the fortune to here, and as truth always prevails, a splendid sincesses crowned the impartial efforts of the young sybils.

The managers of the Wheel of Fortune were once, during the last week of the control of rather early as at the magnificent fortunes were eagerly carried off and notifing remained with which to attract the unwary. The managers of this department are to be congentulated on their very successful abors. The refreshment table, presided over by ladina who never seem to time of working in a good case, was well amplied with whatever could benefit the appetite of the visitor. voice went sweeping and swaying, now bond and clear, now gentle and beseech-ing, through the large room, there was al-most painful silence, and at the close sang so sweetly and artistically that all were in raptures. We think Miss Sulli-can showed marks of vast improvement they were something to be proud of. Miss Cohalan has often delighted the musical portion of St. John at former entertainments, but even her greatest admirers claim that they were not until this week fully able to form a just idea of her xtraordinary musical talent. The song Wednesday night, are acknowledged by those who are fully capable of judging in the matter to have been the finest of her triumphs. Mr. Jas, Guthrie and Mr. P. Walter Lantalum added much to the eauty and perfection of the musica nearry and perfection of the musical treat prepared by the members of the /Ca-thedral Choir for the visitors, to St. Malachi's. We have heard it repeatedly remarked during the progress of the fes-tival and at other times that it would be individually or collectively, that would equal the Cathedral Choir. Those who patronized the Festival are under a very great obligation to the Choir for the beautiful and pleasing entertainment offer Cathedral, presided at the piano with his usual skill and good taste, and added much to the success of the different vocalists. The members of the City Con Band, under their energetic leader, Mr. Dixon, are to be congratulated on the skill and perfection with which they played the many and varied compositions, which afforded so much delight to all. From the beginning the Soirce and Festival were successful, even more successful than sceing the energy and perseverence with which the ladies of the Cathedral Con-
