HON. W. TEMPLEMAN ON ORIENTAL QUESTION

Minister Says People of B. C. Rely on Dominion Government to Solve Problem.

Winnipeg, Nov. 12 .- Hon. Wm. Tem nan, ministeer of inland revenue and mines, left for the east last night.

Mr. Templeman is now on the way to Ottawa to prepare for the opening of the House later in the month.

Speaking of the situation of the Asiatic question on the coast, the minister stated that the question was nov being calmly considered by the people of British Columbia. The excitement had entirely disappeared, and there was a disposition on the part of all to trust the action of the legislature to deal with the problem. There will be no recurrence of the outbreak which took place during the summer. The min-ster met Mr. Lemieux on the way to esentatives of Japan, and that re was every reason to anticipate a atisfactory adjustment.

Speaking of the question of the exion of the boundary of Manitoba, Templeman stated that the reed legislation would be added durthe session, and the wishes of nitoba in the matter would be fully The entire territory to the most rthern limits of Canadian possessions would be handed over to the prov-nce, were it not for the fact that by is means there would be imposed on: he province a large expense with no compensating advantage.
