Frank Good, His Assailant, Has Been Arrested After Hard Chase.

(Special to the Star.)

FREDERICTON, N. B., Oct. 18.—Early last evening Police Sergeant Phillips and Constable Hawthorne left here for French Village armed with a warrant, issued by Magistrate Marsh, charging Frank Good with unlawfully assaulting and wounding one, Paul Boulout.

The officers tied their horse on side of road a few hundred yards below Good's house and proceeded to his residence made a thorough search without result. They then returned to their team. Hawthorne next decided to cut through the woods while Phillips went back up the road again. Frank Good must have been in the house or its vicinity all the time and evidently saw Hawthorne going into the woods for he and his father started out and ran down the road right into Phillips' arms. The officer had no difficulty in capturing his man. He was brought straight to the city, arriving here between 11 and 12 o'clock last evening and was lodged in jail after being given a lunch at Parson's restaurant.

Good is only about sixteen years of age. He is tall for his age and not at all unimpressive in his appearance. He has always been a good reputation and has spent little of his life at his father's home. At one time he worked at Killarney for the late P. B. Coleman.

When arrested young Good was inclined to be talkative, but was warned by the officer. No warrant was issued against his father and he remained at home at the village.

Paul Boulout is a resident of Central Kingsclear, aged about forty-five years, is lying at the Victoria Hospital in a critical condition. Boulout's story is that he was driving along the road near his home yesterday morning, at half-past eight, when without the slightest warning he was set upon by the Goods. The elder Good struck him a vicious blow over the head with a club, and pulled him from the wagon, and the son stabbed him in the left side with a jackknife. The most serious wound was made by the knife, the point of the blade having penetrated the lung, and his recovery is said to be in doubt.

The elder Good is an ex-convict, having served a ten years' sentence in Dorchester penitentiary for burning the C. I. C. barn at Kingsclear in 1892. It is said that there has been bad blood between the two families for some time. Good accused Boulout of stealing a quantity of pork from him some time ago, and threatened to even matters up with him.

LATER. FREDERICTON, N. B., Oct. 18.—Magistrate Marsh this morning and remanded pending the condition of Boulout. Boulout, it is reported this morning is much improved, though he is not considered out of danger.

MINE FIRE THREATENS TO ENGULF VILLAGE.

Houses and Railroads May be Swallowed Up in Burning Volcano of Coal.

NEW YORK, Oct. 18.—According to a despatch to the Sun from Shamokin, Pa., a fire in the Engulf mine there, which started on Saturday morning, has assumed such alarming proportions that fears are entertained that part of the village of Engulf under which the mines are, may be swallowed up by cave-ins if the fire cannot be checked. The Pennsylvania and Reading roads are also in peril. The sun over part of the danger zone. The mine fire has raged so fiercely that all the timber in the slope has been consumed and it is thought the flames pushed their way to the Mammoth vein and ignited it. This mine is the thickest and best in the coal field and if the coal in it is ignited thoroughly it may take years to conquer the blaze.

Mine Inspector Evans, of this district said that if the fire was not out in a few days, it would require months before the end could be seen. CHRISTOPHER WRY DEAD. SACKVILLE, N. B., Oct. 18.—The death of Christopher Wry, proprietor of the Wry House, took place this morning at 11:30 after an illness of several months of cancer of the stomach. He is survived by his wife and two sons, Arnold, druggist, and Charles, both of Sackville. Deceased was a much respected citizen. He was sixty years old.

FUNERALS TODAY.

The funeral of the late Veronica Donohue, daughter of Michael Donohue, Fairville, was held this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock from her father's residence. The services at St. Rose's church were conducted by Rev. Father Collins and interment was made in Sand Cove cemetery.

The remains of Charles Burns were interred this afternoon in the Church of England burying ground. The services began at 2:30 o'clock, and were conducted by Rev. P. J. Stackhouse.

RUSSIANS AGAIN ATTACK; ARE AGAIN DEFEATED.

Another Fierce Assault on the Japanese Positions Repulsed With Heavy Loss—Battle Raged Ten Days.

TOKIO, Oct. 18, 3:30 p. m.—The Russians fiercely assaulted General Oku and attacked General Nodzu and Kuriki on Monday night, but were everywhere repulsed with heavy losses.

RUSSIAN SUCCESSSES. TOKIO, Oct. 18, 1 p. m.—The Russians enveloped an advance column on Sunday, Oct. 16, and captured fourteen guns. The Russians are now concentrating in front of the left army under General Oku and the centre army under General Nodzu. A great battle is expected.

THE TENTH DAY OF BATTLE.

MUKDEN, Oct. 17, 1:30 p. m.—The Russian forces at 11 o'clock this forenoon, penetrated the Japanese centre, and it is reported captured 11 or 12 guns and 150 prisoners east of the railway. At another point during the day the Siberian regiments took 24 guns. The Russian operations today have been quite successful. The Japanese after a terrifically stubborn resistance were compelled to retire along their whole line, losing heavily. All the trenches carried by the Russians were filled with the Japanese dead. In one not very large trench there were counted six hundred corpses of Japanese. In spite of their losses the Japanese undaunted. They have brought up siege guns and have left no stone unturned to retain the mastery of the situation. Every step the Russians have pushed forward today has been in the face of a superior resistance, that has cost the Japanese dear. The Japanese seem to be willing to fight until they are annihilated.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 18, 2:08 p. m.—There was fighting on the Russian left yesterday and the Japanese operations on the extreme right, evidently intended to cut the railway between Ham and the Japanese. The Japanese being unable to get beyond Sincippo, two miles west of the Ham station, Field Marshal Oyama seems to be massing troops against the Russian centre and the war situation about here will make a desperate effort tonight or tomorrow to retake the two vital positions.

RUSSIANS MORE HOPEFUL.

ST. PETERSBURG, Oct. 18.—3:15 p. m.—The news from the front is more reassuring. The Russian stand-point. The situation is still regarded as being critical, but Gen. Kuropatkin is apparently holding the Japanese in the center and right wing, even having re-crossed the Shabke river; and while there are rumors of an advance on the east and on the west, there is no evidence that they are actually occurring.

Gen. Kuropatkin's left wing has been heard from. The Associated Press has the first connected account of the four days' fight in front of Tumin and Saitchou Pass, resulting in the final withdrawal of the strong Russian column which had been sent to turn the Japanese right, though Gen. Mitschenko seems to have actually penetrated a considerable distance inside the Japanese line. Headquarters of the Russian Flanking Column on the Left, Oct. 14, by carrier via Mukden, Oct. 15.—The order came to advance at midnight, but the Japanese themselves attacked at 1 o'clock. They fought stubbornly, but were driven back. The Russians followed up the advantage and occupied the pass at the left of the pass which had not been taken and at dawn the Russians were again forced to retire. At 1 o'clock in the afternoon the Japanese batteries commanded the ground the Russians had so hardily won.

The next day the Russians again advanced, assaulting the main pass. During the day the fourth corps was forced to draw back, but at night recaptured its earlier positions. During the night fighting in the Japanese trenches. Lieut. Col. Anzoff and Staff Captain Udinsky are among the wounded. The thirty-fourth regiment suffered terribly.

On the morning of Oct. 13 the Japanese advanced on Colonel Haskin who with seven companies was holding a position on the right. The Japanese turned his flank, but a regiment was sent to his support and he turned back. Towards noon several fresh Japanese batteries appeared on the heights, firing high explosives. The Russian batteries finally got the range of the Japanese batteries and silenced them all. The Russians moved forward and the passes in the afternoon occupied the passes as the Japanese withdrew. Then just as the task had been accomplished came the order to retire, which the column accomplished safely, but thoroughly exhausted by the long fighting.

LONDON, Oct. 18.—The greatest admiration is expressed by the London newspapers for the tenacity employed by General Kuropatkin in protecting his retreat, but nowhere is any idea entertained that the Russians had decided success on the Shabke river can

THE CAMMACKS ON TRIAL TODAY

Father and Son Face the Grand Jury.

Attorney General is Conducting the Prosecution—Case is Not Exciting Very Much Interest.

(Special.)

WOODSTOCK, N. B., Oct. 18.—Circuit court opened this morning, presided over by Mr. Justice Gregory. The question of interest in the Cammack trial, Thomas Cammack and Walter Cammack, father and son, are jointly accused of the murder of William Doherty last July.

There is so far nothing like the interest that was manifested in the celebrated Grease case, perhaps because of the election excitement. Judge Gregory charged the grand jury at some length on the case, summing up the points of the evidence and going over the facts as set forth in the depositions taken before the magistrates. He spoke of the ridiculous idea which the Cammackes and Alice Boyd seemed to have that because her first husband was in the penitentiary she was no longer bound by the marriage tie. So far the evidence did not show any strong motive on the part of Thos. Cammack. He summarized the evidence as it stood against Walter Cammack, and told the jury that if they chose they could find a true bill in the one case, while finding no bill in the other. At the same time the depositions contained sufficient evidence to put Walter Cammack on his trial.

The jury retired at 12 o'clock and had not returned when the court adjourned at recess, till 2:30 p. m.

W. P. Jones represented the attorney general this morning, who arrived himself on the noon train to take charge of the prosecution. The prisoner, Thomas Cammack, is defended by J. R. H. Simms, while Walter Cammack is defended by J. Chipman Hartley. It is claimed by the prosecution that Thomas Cammack went to the Doherty house at night, tied the front door to the veranda post, made his way into the house by means of the cellar door, went up stairs, fired at the three Doherty boys, hitting George in the chin, Charlie on the shoulder, and killing Willie. That he or his son Walter set fire to the house, which was burned with the corpse in it. The evidence appears to be strong against the prisoner, Thomas Cammack, while it is not so strong against Walter, who has been out on bail. It will be remembered that Thos. Cammack shot himself through the head just before his arrest. He seems to have recovered from the wound, although the bullet is still in his head.

OUR NEW CRUISER.

Engineering describes the new cruisers about to be laid down in the dockyards, and compares them with earlier vessels. The cruisers of the Diadem class have only a 4-in. protective deck, and the thickest armor on the gun positions is 4-1/2 in., so that they are absolutely incapable of withstanding a broadside from a modern 7-in. gun, firing armor-piercing or capped projectiles. The first of the County cruisers were little superior, as on the broadside they had Krupp steel only 4 in. thick, and the largest gun fitted on board was also in this instance the 6-in. weapon, which is not now reckoned quite satisfactory, even as a secondary gun in cruisers or warships. The later vessels of this class were improved by the fitting of a bow and stern-chasing 7.5-in. gun, while at the same time the broadside belt was increased in thickness to 6 in. But owing to the recognition of the advance in gun power the centre of the latest ships and the gun positions are to be armored with 7-in. and 8-in. armor plates; at the same time the power of the guns has been very materially increased. They are to be fitted with four 8.5-in. and ten 7.5-in. guns. The guns, too, are to be of greater length than hitherto adopted, and therefore they will be of higher power. The new vessels are of corresponding calibre fitted in the previous ships. In other words, there will be in the new ships four vessels capable of developing energy of something like 25,000 foot-pounds, or quite five times the energy of the earlier County vessels at a range of 2 1/2 miles. Even at this greater distance the primary guns of the new ships will collectively do more than double the damage of the fourteen 8-in. weapons in the earlier ships. In fact, one of these new cruisers of the Minotaur class will equal almost any two cruisers of the early County class; others might say that, as regards the Diadem, there is no comparison at all. This makes it more serious that the admiralty should reduce the number to be built to three instead of four as authorized by parliament. The new vessels are to have a speed equal to that of the smaller and less powerful vessels—namely, 23 knots. The machinery will be of the usual four-cylinder triple-compound type, and will run at a piston speed of 1,000 ft. per minute when developing full power—27,000 indicated horse-power. Water-tube boilers as described in Engineering will be used.
