PRINCE HENRY

Received in New York With the last and Circumstance

the Personal Representative of the Head of the German Nation. NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—Prince Henry of Prussia, representative of his bro-ther, the Emperor of Germany, at the ching of the latter's American milt yacht, reached New York today, and was cordially welcomed as the guest of the nation. The land batteries that guard the outer harbor soundail the first greeting in a ponderous salute of 21 guns, and the rifles of a special naval squadron assembled in his honor re-echoed the sentiment. There were verbal greetings from the representatives of President Roosevelt, the army, the navy and the city of New York, and a great crowd lined the way into the city to see and cheer the Sailor Prince of Germany.

The great storm against which the Kron Prinz Wilhelm had struggled for days, and which had glazed the Atlantic coast in an armor of ice, had lest its force and resigned itself to warm sunshine and cheery blue skies, so there were no regrets that the royal guest was a full day late for the entertainment provided for him. The genius of Marconi, reaching out from the storm swept coast, had definitely located the belated liner and made certain the hour that she would reach

The tug Nina, with Admiral Evans and his brilliant staff, met the Kron Prinz Wilhelm below Fort Wadsworth and boarded her after the salutes from the forts had been fired. Addressing Prince Henry, the admiral said: "I am very glad to see you sir. Everybody in the United States is waiting to welcome you. It is my pleasure, sir, to formally greet you in their behalf."

I thank you, sir, and through you the people of your country," responded the Prince. "I am very glad to be here and on this splendid day. The Emperor directed me to convey his compliments to you, admiral, and I do so with great pleasure."

The last greeting in the run up the Hohenzollern, which is to be the home of the Prince while in New York. The first of the large crowds was met at the Battery and from there on up to Recreation pier the largest crowds of all had gathered, every pier to admission was not denied was partly filled. The number of river craft also increased, and the welcome there was a noisy one. The crossing ferryboats sounded their whistles and the ever increasing fleet of tugboats ken up their noise. The big liners in port were d ressed, and the German colors were displayed at several points along

Prince Henry disembarked at 12.55 p m., at that moment walking down the decorated gangway from the Kronz Prinz Wilhelm into the elaborately decorated pier. He then passed upon a sort of a landing down a flight of stairs to the pier floor through an ernamental gangway and arch to the landing plank of the Hohenzollern, which had been decorated in the German colors and was covered half it length. The prince was met at the bottom of the gang plank by Admiral Von Baudissin, commander of the Ho-henzollern and his officers. Meanwhile the band from the Kronz Prinz was playing the German national air. Prinice Henry then walked up the gang plank followed by the officers of the Hohenzollern. Then came official calls by United States representatives and an informal lunch followed. At 3.30 p. m. the prince boarded the tug Nina to repay his calls. He was received by the American fleet with the honors due his exalted rank. Afterwards the prince dined on the Hohenzollern: On the trip out Prince Henry showed himself every inch a sailor.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—Prince Henry gave a dinner tonight on board the imperial yacht Hohenzollern. His guests included Rear Admiral Von Tirpitz, General Von Plessen, Ambas-sador Eisendecker, Admiral Von Seckendorff, Admiral Von Baudissin, David J. Hill, assistant secretary of state; Rear Admiral Robley, D. Evans, Major-General Henry C. Corbin, Col. Theodore Bingham, Commander Wm. Cowles, Melville E. Stone, Edward P. Call, Wm. Gould and others.

Prince Henry tonight attended a reception given in his honor by the Deutscher Verein at the club house of the organization. From the club house Prince Henry was driven to the Twenty-third stree ferry of the Pennsylvania railroad where he took the ferryboat for the depot in Jersey City.

The prince and his party reache Jersey City at 12.10 a. m., and walked to the train through a roped enclosure guarded by 80 policemen under Chief of Police Murphy of Jersey City. The train consisted of eight cars, the 1 ast one being the Columbia, devoted to the use of the prince and two immediate attendants. Assistant General Passenger Agent G. W. Boyd was in charge of the train. In addition to the police guard on the platform there were pres ent Captain Titus of the New York de tective bureau and Chief Wilkie of the tured by brigands in the district of constantinopile, Feb. 24.—Late in the tured by brigands in the district of stured by brigands in the district of Salonika Sept. 3 last, has been released and arrived at Strumitza, Macedonia, at 3 o'clock this morning. Nobody was at Strumitza to meet Miss Stone, as the brigands had given no indication where they proposed to release the prisoner. Mme Tsilka and her baby were also released at the same time. They are all well Miss Stone immediates They are all well. Miss Stone immediately made herself known to the authorities at Strumitza.

The first news of Miss Stone's release was contained in a telegram received by Mr. Dickenson, the American consulgeneral at Constantinople, from the vice-consul at Salonika. The telegram gives no details of the release.

As Strumitza is near the Salonika-Uskub railroad Miss Stone will proceed to Salonika without delay. BOSTON, Feb. 23.—Secretary Barton of the American board has received the following cablegram confirmatory of the Associated Press despatch announcing the release of Miss Stone. It was dated Salonika, and is unsigned:

"Both Miss Stone and Madame Tsilka and child released from confinement in good physical condition and good spirits." Secretary Barton regards this news as absolutely authentic, as the mission-aries of the board had been given in-structions to send no cablegrams based on mere reports, but to wait until positive information could be given.

NEW YORK, Feb. 23.—Spencer Eddyfirst secretary of the United States legation at Constantinople, who had charge of the negotiations for the release of Miss Eilen M. Stone and Mme.

Tsilka, arrived here today on the Kron Prinz Wilhelm. In an interview he said the brigands captured an American rather than any other missionary because they believed the Americans had the most money and would be likely to pay the ransom.

"Did the brigands want the money for themselves?" Mr. Eddy was asked.

"No, they did not, and that is where

"No, they did not, and that is where the people in America do not understand the c ase. It is entirely a political matter, and all the people in Macedonia are in sympathy with the kidnapping, for they believe it is a step toward freeing Macedonia from Turkish rule, the same as Bulgaria has been, and the money they demanded $100,000) was intended for the Macedonian cause.

"Do the Macedonians have any feeling of enmity towards the mission-

"No, they are rather friendly to them than otherwise. They desired to attract the attention of the world to their cause and incidentally to get some much needed money. I have every reason to believe they have given Miss Stone and her companion in captivity the very best of treatment. When Mrs. Tsilka's baby was born she received the kindest of treatment from all we learn. "I have had five letters from Miss Stone, written in Bulgarian so her captors could read them, and they were masterpieces in cleverness and diplomacy. Miss Stone is a very courageous woman.

"Ninety-seven thousand five hun dred dollars is the total sum on deposit to the credit of the brigands." "Won't Turkey attempt to punish the ringleaders?'

"Turkey will have a problem on he hands if she does, for the Macedonians have risen up as one man in their demand to be free from Turkey, and this kidnapping of the two American missionaries may be called chapter one in their plan for liberty."

(Miss Stone and Mme. Tsilka were abducted by the brigands on Sept. 3. They were members of a missionary party travelling from Bansho to Dijumao in the mountainous country beween Turkey and Bulgaria, Miss Stone was born in Roxbury, Mass., and went out as a missionary of the American board in 1878. Mme. Tsilka is the wife of a preacher.

The American board sought President Roosevelt's aid in securing the Belting wants some- release of Miss Stone, and Consulthing he can depend General Dickenson at Constantinople was sent to Sofia as special agent to upon. We would time there was doubt as to whether wiss stone was in the hands of Turks like any person who or Bulgarians. Later it became known that her captors were Bulgarians and probably ordinary brigands, though has not yet done so there have been persistent reports that they were agents of the revolutionary party who sought ransom money as means of carrying on their work. On Sept. 27 Miss Stone got a letter through to Consul Dickenson saying that the brigands demanded a ransom of $110,000. At first the American board refused to provide a ransom holding that this would fix a bad prechanged its mind and appealed for announced that Oct. 8 was the last day on which ransom would be received. In three days the board re-ceived $52,000, which was forwarded. From that time on negotiations for Miss Stone's release were continued. Consul Dickenson's efforts at Sofia proving futile, the affair was put in charge of the Constantinople legation and communication was opened with the brigands.)

CONSTANTINOPLE, Feb. 24.—Late in the day a despatch was received here announcing that Miss Stone and Madamb Tsilka are now at Strumitus, five hours, ride on horseback in the nearest station of the Salonika-trab railroad. Miss Stone is suffering from the strain of the past six months and is unable to take the horseback trip. But Garguio and Mr. House rede from Salonika to Strumitus. Miss Stone and Madamb Tsilka will probably be compelled to rest at Strumitus for a tew days and then, it is hoped they can be brought from Salonika to Constantinople by sea. But the arrangements are yet indefinite.

LONDON, Feb. 25.—In a despatch dated Sonika, the correspondent of the Daily Copies says that the brigands escented Missime and Mine Tsilka to the outskirts of a village called Khardousur, near Strumeza, and then told them they were free. FRANCE PIQUED

At Enthusiasm of Prince Henry's Reception in the U.S.

PARIS, Feb. 24.—The visit of Prince Henry of Prussia to the United States is attracting attention here, and there is a tinge of irony in the news feeling of pique at the enthusiasm of his reception. The Temps says: This time it is not the iron glove, but the hand in the glove of silk and velvet that Prince Henry stretches out. It is somewhat significant that the Washington birthday fetes passed almost unperceived amid the brilliance of the reception of the prince, who represents one of the monarchs of effet Europe. The great republic is launched in the very midst of the international melee, and no longer has time to devote itself to the jealous and almost exclusive worship of the glorious memories of its history.

I am convinced that a drastic change is necessary not only in the direction of more practice before the team enters upon its work at Bisley, but also by individual members before they join the team, and to this end the com-
