4

TO SUBSCRIBERS.

government took care that these speeches were not reported at much length. So when the debate was printed the opposition had only sever pages out of sixty-two. But the gov-corded in political history.

GRATUITIES.

After the first of July all monies received for subscrip- ernment was not content with the offtions will be acknowledged by changing the date stamped on time. Campaign literature was wantthe paper immediately after ed, and it occurred to the leaders that the name,

Should any subscriber notice election bills. So they had all the that the date is not changed copies printed that they could use of on the first, second or third speeches and without the authority of paper after the money is sent, the house, or of the people, coolly took the money out of the provincial treashe should at once send a postal ury to pay for it. Then the pamphlet card to the Sun Office, stating was distributed in the various conwhen he sent the money and stituencies where it was expected to do the most good. It was simply an appropriation of public money to pay prihow it was sent, by registered letter, post office order or Express order-SUN PRINTING CO. power and patronage of two govern-

When a subscriber wishes the eddress on the paper changed to another Post Office, the OLD AD-DRESS should ALWAYS be sent with the new one

NOTICE.

11.00 per inch for urdinary transient advertising. For Sale, Wanted, etc., four lines or tess, 25 cents each insertion. Special contracts made for time ad-Vertisements. Sample copies cheerfully sent to any address on application. The subscription rate is $1.00 a year, but if 75 cents is sent ONE YEAR IN ADVANCE the paper will be sent to any address in Canada or United States for one year. SUN PRINTING COMPANY,

ALFRED MARKHAM, Manager.

THE SEMI-WEEKLY SUN.

ST. JOHN, N. B., APRIL 16, 1904.

A BAD DAY FOR RUSSIA. Russia has suffered the hardest blow cial report prepared at public expense and printed in the newspapers at the The Battleship Petropavlovsk Struck a Mine, it would be a good plan to make the people pay this part of their private Turned Over and Sank---Another Sea Fight Off Port Arthur.

SEMI-WEEKLY SUN, ST. JOHN, N. B., APRIL 16, 1904

ADMIRAL MAKAROFF'S DEATH.

ST. PETERSBURG, April 13.-While he did not risk his life in this fashion o'clock the Russians got under the going out to meet the Japanese fleet and so transferred his flag to the shelter of the forts, but the Bayan off Port Arthur, the Petropavlovsk Petropavlovsk. It is now an open secret that Vice of steam were seen escaping. struck a mine in the outer roadstead.

Admiral Makaroff was not anxious to At 8 o'clock the Japanese ships opresign his command of the Cronstadt, ened a heavy gun fire on the forts, which necessitated his leaving his wife which did not reply and after fifteen minutes' bombardment the Japanese and family, but the emperor held such a high opinion of him that he declinretired to the eastward."

LONDON, April 14 .- The Times correspondent at sea off Port Arthur. though it was pointed out that Rear Admiral Rojestvensky, chief of the under yesterday's date, reports a Japanese torpedo attack followed by a desultory bombardment. He does not dated yesterday morning and after nooh, state that Japanese torpedo boats attacked Port Arthur in the early morning. The bombardment of the port began at 9.45 o'clock and at 10.40 the fleet was still shelling the

The correspondent says: "Last night we ran into dirty, rainy weather. At 4.30 o'clock this morning, amid the rain squalls, we signalled a squadron. After the light increased it proved to he the Japanese fleet of six battleships followed by a first class cruiser squad ron of six ships in line ahead, the third and fourth being the Kasuga and the Nisshin, which were making their first appearance with the fleet. With the Mikasa leading, the vessels were shaping their course for Port Arthur. Forty miles distant from Port Arthur the battleships drew out at full speed The Kasuga and Nisshin joined the battleships, the other cruisers remain ing behind, the interval between heing maintained by the division of the torpedo boat destroyers and a despatch boat.

As we neared Port Arthur we found two first class and four second class cruisers already there. This squadron had covered the torpedo attack in the small hours of the morning.

"The battleships now hoisted their fighting flags and steamed in the same formation. The Mikasa leading and the new ships bringing up the rear, to within six miles of Port Arthur's frowning promontory.

Recommends Pe-ru-na---Other Prominent Men Testify. HON. JOHN J. PATTERSON.

STATES SENATOR FROM SOUTH CAROL

CAROLINA

Hon. John J. Patterson, Ex-United States Senator from South Carolina. in letter from 37-8 Chestnut street, Philadelphia, Pa., writes:

"As quite a number of my friends have and are using Peruna ca a catarrh cure with beneficial results, I feel that I can safely recommend it to those suffering from that disorder."---J. J. Patterson. Commedere Nicholson of the U.S. | "I am fully satisfied that your Peruna.

is an efficacious remedy for catarrh, as [Navy. Commodore Somerville Nicholson, of and many of my friends have been the United States Navy in a letter from benefited by its use."-W. G. Hunter 1837 R Street, Northwest, Washington, M. D.

D. C., says: Well known men of dignity and promi-"Your Peruna has been and is now nence in the United States endorse and used by so many of my friends and recommend Peruna for catarrh. acquaintances as a sure cure for catarrh If you do not derive prompt and satis that I am convinced of its curative qualities and I unhesitatingly recomfactory results from the use of Peruna mend it to all persons suffering from write at once to Dr. Hartman, giving w that complaint."-S. Nicholson. full statement of your case, and he will be pleased to give you his valuable al-U. S. Minister to Guatemala.

inst.

vice gratis. Dr. W. Godfrey Hunter, U.S. Minister to Guatemala, and ex-member of Con-Address Dr. Hartman, President of gress from Kentucky, in a lotter from The Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Washington, D. C., writes: Ohio.

FAIRVILLE.

ISLAN

Be 104

Death of a

Navigation Will

Time Yet—Ex

ber-Dea

the world. Th petitors, including ad. writers, and The ad, was set the Examiner A. D. McKen I., has won the arship at the Montreal. Ed Sterns h & Co.'s wareh street and will dry. The steamer rate a new ser run between Port Hood, In Etang. Eastern

The late C

church, bequeat

poses and $500

in five instalm

include: John

endish and not

lie Durant of M

and Luku M.

town: James

A. McDonald

and J. Henry M

Edith May an

town. Marria

where include

Fitz and Dr.

ery, widow of

gomery, at one

education for P

ville, Daniel M

Forest Hill, and

Lod. formerly of

real, T. Wighte

McVarish, forme

At the annua

Alberton ha

James McEa

struck on the e

recently and is in the P. E. I found necessar

Nfld., are vis

guests of Mrs.

Rogers. They

trip to New Y

Montreal, etc.

of Halifax that

cident in Charle

House stables.

one car that wa

escape with such derful. It is the

ing a curve the one side, thus o

and throwing it f

Hon. J. H. Cu

er of public wor

report to the le

the total exper

ital account, was

of $5,000 over 19

expenditure for r

$24,000, about $50

bad, bare in som

of snow at othe

Captain W. H

Rev. A. B. McI

drew's church,

preached in St.

John a few wee received a call to

Patrick Dochert

negotiating for th

Davies. He wants

best athletes. 1

Ottawa to enter up

presented by his

days ago with $11

lost in the ice two

blocked with ice,

weeks before navis

at Summerside.

Northumberland

Sam Doyle, one

Rev. John Mura

yet known which

The roads in th

mates.

damage by fre

ago are still h

The horses b

S. K. Bell a

James' Presbyt

proceeds amou

navigation, but

of the north

heavy.

tion, P. E. I.

Recent marri

member of

and on to Syd

vate election bills. Ministers were not satisfied with the advantage that the was evidently damaged, as quantities ments gave them. They had not the turned over and sank. Practically the manliness even with that help to be on whole of her crew were lost. Only four a level in regard to campaign funds with the small band of opposition officers were saved, among them bemembers. It was about the meanest ing the Grand Duke Cyril. The Petropavlovsk was flying the flag of Vicetransaction in a small way that is re-Admiral Makaroff. The result of the ed to consider other candidates, al-naval battle, which, according to the last reports was in progress, has not heen received. It is estimated that from six hun-The independence of parliament law clearly and explicitly declares that when the Petropavlovsk sank Another account says twenty men members of the legislature, other than escaped from the disaster to the Petroministers, must not accept any posipavlovsk. Grand Duke Cyril was only tion of emolument under the governsaved from death by a miracle. His ment. They are forbidden to accept astrophe through a marine glass, any pay from the government for ser-ST. PETERSBURG, April 13, 9.30 p vices in order that they may be inde--The Petropavlovsk disaster has pendent of the government. Last night created a profound impression in offithis account.

the attorney general, who ought to cial, naval and military circles, where the feeling is one of consternation. The protect the independence of the legisofficers speak of the catastrophe with lature, did the opposite thing. He dethe deepest emotion. The imperial clared that it was all right for the family and court were also deeply government to employ and pay legal moved. The news has only been circulated among the high and middle members of the house for public proseclasses, and as yet has not reached the dence. She had been much worried cutions, because the service rendered legally (ollected. Mr. George Robertno special editions of the newspapers were issued. son was paid handsomely for financing the Duke of York's visit in this province, but in his case it was not an emolument. Dr. Pugsley explained that it was a gratuity. Of course there is no difference whether members are deprived of their independence by emoluments or gratuities. A member who is open to be bought would not so long as he got the money. The attorney general in his budget ted something like consternation. speech made another attempt to ex-"Reverses we can endure," said plain when he ceased to be a conserv-Incidentally Dr. Pugsley observed that general staff of the navy, who has just been appointed to command the Baltic squadron, and who is now destined to mention the disaster to the battleship succeed Makaroff, as well as others, Petropavlovsk. His wireless messages, were anxious to distinguish them-The emperor in his summons to Vice Admiral Makaroff said: "My choice has fallen upon you and I will not take a refusal," and so the admiral went to the Far East. The forts. emperor's sorrow is doubly keen on

By imperial command a requiem service will be celebrated at the Admiralty church at noon tomorrow for the Emperor's favorite admiral. Tonight the grief-stricken widow. according to the Russian custom, had a requiem service celebrated at her resipopulace. Consequently there were no over the health of her husband, who scenes in the streets this evening and suffered from diabetes, reference to which was made in a recent telegram from the admiral, in which he said he was compelled to disobey orders as to The admiral's death is also mourn ed by his daughter Lillie, a beautiful men and the death of Vice-Admiral girl of 19, who was the belle of Cron-Makaroff, has been a terrific blow. It stadt. Both mother and daughter will attend the requiem service at the Ad-

ship and the commander-in-chief of miralty church tomorrow. the fleet had been lost in battle, but to The coincidence is generally commented upon that the ice breaker Yermak, one of Vice-Admiral Makaroff's greatest triumphs, steamed majestically up the Neva today, having cut through the ice from Cronstadt. "There's Stefan Osipovich's ship," ominent Russian, "but to have the cried the moujiks, who knew and loved ative. It was not a clear exposition. Petropavlovsk meet the fate of the Makaroff so much that they called him dred to seven hundred men perished selves. brother, Duke Boris, witnessed the cat-

was one for which pay could not be

ST. PETERSBURG. April 13 .- The awful disaster to the battleship Petro- | taking regular sleep. pavlovsk at Port Arthur, with the loss of almost her entire crew of over 600

would have fallen less heavily if the care what name was given to the price be the result of another accident, following upon the heels of a succession of tragedies of which the Port Arthur fleet has been the victim, it has crea-

Yenesei and the Boyarin is heart- by his patronymic. rending.' Rear-Admiral Ro It has just become known that the will assume command of the fleet at battleship Poltava several weeks ago Port Arthur, is a man of an utterly had a hole rammed in her by the batdifferent mould from Vice-Admiral tleship Sevastapol while the latter was Makaroff. He is a very able sailor and manoeuvering in the harbor of Port a man of talent and ability, but he is not so popular with the jackies as was The day has been one of intense exthe dead commander-in-chief. citement in St. Petersburg. The first Makaroff is believed to have been in inkling of the catastrophe leaked out the conning tower when the Petropayon the receipt of a telegram by Grand lovsk was blown up. Grand Duke Cy-Duke Vladimir from his son, Grand ril probably owes his life to the fact Duke Boris, announcing the loss of the that he is a fine athlete and a splen-Petropavlovsk and the wounding of did swimmer. Grand Duke Cyril, who was first offi-Count Grabbe, aide-de-camp to Grand cer. The Grand Duchess Vladimir was Duke Vladimir, will leave tomorrow to almost frantic on the receipt of the bring the Grand Duke Cyril home. The provincial government which telegram, being convinced that the Nothing is known as to the character message was only a precursor of worse of the Grand Duke's injuries. news as it was signed by Grand Duke There is a comantic story connected safer distance. Boris instead of by the aide to Grand with the Grand Duke Cyrll's anxiety the people ought to be enlightened did Duke Cyril, Lieut. Von Kube. The to go to the front. He wanted to win reason why the telegram was not so his spurs and then marry the woman shipping. signed afterwards became apparent, as with whom he is very much in love, Lieut Von Kube had gone down with but the match had been opposed by his the ship. parents. The Grand Duke's lady love ently suffered no damage, while the The youngest son of the Grand Duke is his cousin, the divorced wife of the expenditure of ammunition was Vladimir, Grand Duke Andrew, a dash- Grand Duke of Hesse, and a daughter small.' the addresses of Mr. Flemming, Mr. ing young guardsman, rapidly drove to of the late Duke of Saxe-Coburg Gotha, the winter palace. the admiralty and who married a sister of Alexander III. elsewhere seeking confirmation of the It was announced from Berlin on news, which came two hours later in a December 12, 1903, that the engagement Russian official telegram, but demessage to the emperor from Rear Ad- of Grand Duke Cyril to the former spatches from Wei Hai Wei induce the miral Grigerovitch, the commandant Grand Duchess of Hesse, who was di- confident belief here that a naval enat Port Arthur. A religious service vorced from her husband, had been gagement occurred off Port Arthur of was immediately held at Grand Duke broken off, the Emperor having forbid- a severe character and that later tele-Vladimir's palace, in which thanks den the Grand Duke to marry the grams will show that the Russians sufwere returned to the Almighty for the Gran1 Duchess, whose former husband sparing of the life of Grand Duke is a brother of the Czarina. It was ted. Cyril, but the emperor was so over- said, according to the despatch, that whelmed with grief at the death of the Grand Duke was deeply in love Vice-Admiral Makaroff that neither he with the Hessian Grand Duchess be- attacked by the whole Japanese fleet nor the empress, attended the service. fore her marriage. One of the objections of the Emperor to the marriage, The emperor sent a member of his it was said, was the fact that the personal staff to break the sad news to Grand Duke is of orthodox Russian Vice-Admiral Makaroff's widow, who faith, while the Grand Duchess is a is living at Peterhof, a few miles Lutheran. In addition, there seemed to west of St. Petersburg. Meantime be a personal objection on the part of the city was filled with the wildest pedo boats, struck by five torpedoes the Emperor to receive the Princess at rumors, but the official despatches and blown up. were so meagre and private despatches the Russian court. so conflicting regarding what had oc-ST. PETERSBURG, April 13, 9.30 p. curred that the public was kept in killed aboard the Petropavlovsk. -It was rumored here tonight that suspense for six hours. Then, although Rear-Admiral Prince Ouktomsky (actthe report was incomplete, despatches ing commander of the Russian fleet at rumors, but the universal opinion here were posted on the war hulletin Port Arthur) engaged 18 Japanese war- is that the official explanations of the boards. The grief of the crowds, ships off Port Arthur this afternoon. Cisaster are unsatisfactory. whose fears were thus officially con-ST. PETERSBURG, April 18, 5 p. m. According to very high authority the confirmed report from Japanese sources firmed, was touching. The minister of latest advices received at the Winter states that the Japanese opened the sands eagerly asking for more details. Palace here are to the effect that a bombardment of Port Arthur at 8 Relatives of those who were on board naval battle is still progressing off Port o'clock Wednesday morning, the vesthe Petropavlovsk anxiously inquired Arthur. as to the fate of their loved ones. WEI HAI WEI, April 13 .- The ac-What occurred prior to the blowing tion fought off Port Arthur appears to the one reported earlier yesterday up of the flagship was only vaguely have consisted, according to the re- morning. known, except that Vice-Admiral ports received here, of an unsuccessful | PARIS, April 14 .- The St. Peters-Makaroff, with his flag flying on the attempt made by four Japanese cruis- burg correspondent of the Journal says doomed vessel, sailed out to engage ers and one battleship to intercept a that Grand Duke Cyril was on the the enemy until his reinforcements aplarge Russian cruiser coming from the bridge of the Petropavlovsk when the East. The Russian protected cruiser explosion occurred, and was thrown It is thought possible that Vice Askold and a battleship of the Pobieda into the sea, which fact led to the sav-Admiral Togo planned an ambuscade type, went to the assistance of the ing of his life. Vice-Admiral Makaroff by sending in a small squadron in the Russian cruiser referred to. The forts was in the cabin of the battleship with at Port Arthur did not participate in Rear-Admiral Molas. The explosion hope of drawing out the Russian commander to the open and then cutting the action. The firing was continuous, completely overturned the battleship. him off. but was of short duration. ST. PETERSBURG, April 13 .- Ar received during this war, a heavier loss than in that first great sea fight which for the time disabled her fleet. The loss of a splendid battleship, with all her equipment, is this time complete. But it is nothing to the loss of the admiral in command, the Nelson of the Russian navy, the pride and ing changed his politics. This was alhope of the empire. In Admiral Makaroff Russia seemed to have a man capable of great things. Naval authorities in all countries, and news- notice. paper readers everywhere have been waiting to see what would happen when this daring and accomplished of ficer should take the grip with Admiral Togo. It has been well understood that he was not the man to continue the waiting game, or to allow the Japanese a monopoly of aggressive warfare. Now he is gone, with most of the officers and men of his flagship. The ship herself, with all her equipment and fighting gear, is at the bottom of the sea.

What will make the calamity the harder to bear is the knowledge that men and ship were lost by the explosion of a Russian mine. The enemy had no share in the disaster, except that the apto leave the safe shelter of Port Arthur. Nothing could be more disheartening than this awful and gratu-Itous disaster. Whatever may be the sympathy of neutral nations in regard and his comrades who "have perished without having had their opportunity to win fame or to serve their country.

The Petropavlovsk was a fine ship, built nine years ago. She was a mate to the Sevastopol, built a year later. and now at Port Arthur disabled or damaged by the first torpedo attack. and is yet intact so far as we have inknots speed. The ship which went down yesterday was armed with four 12 inch quick firing pieces.

There are now at Port Arthur, so far and Sevastopol, with the uninjured battleships Pobleda, Peresviet and French ambassador in London, to Poltava. Four cruisers, the Askold, whom the agreement largely was due. Diana, Boyarin and Pallada, which suffered in the first attack, are also there. This is a considerable fleet, but even with the Vladivostok ships added it is far inferior to the fleet against which it is matched.

THE MEANEST THING EVER DONE.

The story of the provincial hudget debate fraud is easy to underministers and many of their supporters delivered campaign speeches on the budget. The provincial opposition was at that time very small and as had the purchase by some St. John yachtsmembers opposed to the government who took part in the debate. The of- to ficial reporter employed by the local Market slip.

it was about 1886 that he began to take an interest in federal politics. That was a year after he spoke on the conservative side in a St. John by-election, on the same evening that he had Arthur. agreed to address a liberal gathering in another part of the constituency.

During the day the orator of the evenways deemed a rather sudden movement, but the attorney general explains now. It was not until a year later that he began to sit up and take defends the circulation of the budget debate of 1902 on the ground that not find it necessary to distribute the budget speeches of 1903. It is not probable that a charge will appear in the books for the distribution of the budget speeches of 1904. The circulation of Loggie, Mr. Clarke, Mr. Hartt and Mr. Hazen will not be good campaign literature for the government.

Mr. Hartt computes that out of the sum of $100,000 which the people will pay in road taxes under the Highway Act. $60,000 will go to the government officers and $40,000 will be spent on the roads. This will be a smaller percentproach of the foe tempted the admiral age for expenses than is paid out of the agriculture appropriation.

Mr. Loggie, who is a pronounced l'beral, referred in the debate at Frederiction to the unfortunate liberal convention which was held in St. John to this war there will be a universal during the federal by-election camfeeling of pity for the gallant officer | paign. It seems that the provincial ministers made some rather ambiguous statements of their political creed.

----THE ANGLO-FRENCH TREATY.

LONDON, April 12 .- The text of the Anglo-French colonial treaty was officially issued today. It is prefaced by These ships, with the Poltava, which a despatch from Foreign Minister marine was soon surrounded by thoualso belongs to the Port Arthur fleet, Lansdowne to the British ambassador to France, Sir Edmund J. Monson, in formation, were of 10,900 tons and 17 which Lord Lansdowne says that a settlement was notoriously desired on both sides of the channel, and that the and twelve 6 inch guns, with 34 smaller | movement in its favor received powerful influence from the respective visits of King Edward and President Loubet. as is known, the disabled or partly dis- Lord Lansdowne also pays a tribute abled battleships Retvizan, Tsarevitch to the personal knowledge and diplomatic experience of M. Cambon, the peared.

IS YOUR DOCTOR BILL LARGE ?

Best way to keep it small is not to call the doctor, but use Nerviline instead. For minor ailments like colds, coughs, chills, cramps, headache and stomach trouble Nerviline is just as by the Yenesei were unknown, the good as any doctor. It breaks up a cold in one night, cures soreness in the chest, and for neuralgia, toothache of these mines that the Petrovlovsk and rheumatism you can't get anystruck.

thing half so good as Nerviline. The fame of Nerviline for cramps, colic, stand. An election was to take place and pain in the stomach extends far in 1903, and in the session of 1902 the and wide. Good for everything a liniment can be good for and costs but 25c. for a large bottle.

A NEW YACHT. Negotiations are now pending for happened in other years Mr. Hazen men of the schooner Souvenir for and Mr. Flemming were the only cruising on the river. The Souvenir is ing for the first time he raised his flag owned by Capt. Joseph Robichaud of on a battleship, while previously he

LONDON, April 13 .- The Japanese the location of six of the mines planted legation tonight had no official information in regard to fighting today off charts having been lost when that ves Port Arthur. sel went down. Probably it was one Baron Hayashi, the Japanese minister, said Vice Admiral Makaroff's 11. They drew off after the Russian death was an exceedingly dramatic ocguns had opened on them at a range currence and he paid a tribute to the of about 4,000 yards.

rivers.

greater loss than would be that of sevral battleships. He was the pride late admiral as a great strategist and tactician and said he would be a great loss to the Russian navy. of the navy and enjoyed the implicit LONDON, April 14 .- The Daily Teleconfidence of his sovereign as well as of the officers and men of the service. graph's correspondent at Wei Hai Wei telegraphing under date of April 13, Speaking of his death officers here all

The Associated Press learns

Admiral Makaroff's death is really remarked upon the strange fatality says: ficial despatch sent by an aide-dethat he should lose his life on a heav-"The British cruiser Espiegle reports camp of General Kuroptakin to the ily armored battleship, to which he at 5.45 o'clock this morning she sight- | emperor dated April 12fi says: had a particular aversion. This morned five Japanese warships engaging the Russian cruiser Bayan, making for Port Arthur from the direction of reports that April 11 during an engage- | ward's Cove. Meteghan. She is a new craft, and said had gone out on board the cruiser Yalu. The Russian cruiser Askold and ment of outposts our losses were one be very fast. She is now in the Novik or the cruiser Askold. It was at another cruiser issued from Port Ar- officer, one sub-officer and two soldiers grocer and baker, has determined to the urgent request of his friends that thur to assist the Bayan. At 6.45 killed and two soldiers wounded,"

'At 10.20 o'clock the shore batteries  opened, but the fire was only desultory and it seemed as though Vice Admiral Togo was making a demonstra tion rather than a bombardment.

FAIRVILLE, April 14 .- Randolph & "Three times Togo's fighting squad-Eaker's mill had been rurning only ron circled in front of the enemy's about two hours yesterday morning position, drawing a desultory reply, when the main sawlust chain broke and at noon the admiral withdrew his The repairs took till noon, and later battleships to the southward. work was resumed. A couple of Ran-"It was an inspiring spectacle to see dolph's teams are fixing the Raidolph how this magnificent fleet manoeuvred. road by widening it. It was the most powerful individual The street repair work in Fairville fleet that ever sailed the Eastern seas. goes merrily on. Three more crossings consisting of forty vessels, including were laid yesterday. the torpedo division. The battleships Mr. Sinnis has started an express went in boldly, while the less protectbusiness here. ed vessels manoeuvred with them, The Cushing pulp mill was comconforming to their evolutions at a pelled to close down early on Wed-In an old copy of The Albion, No.

"Although I went closer than ever pefore, I saw no sign of the Russian I could, however, make out the light house. The Japanese were received at Carleton from the Shore idea of the limited means of comm manoeuvring at 18 knots and appar- line.

ST. MARTINS.

ST. MARTINS, April 14 .- At her LONDON, April 14 .- No actual news residence on Tuesday evening, April to Mr. E. Jack, will please leave the has yet reached London beyond the 12. Mrs. William Smith entertained a at the office of Messrs. Jack & Parks number of her friends with a piano recital. The select programme opened which they will be forwarded to the by Miss Vera Smith giving a piano destination by the first opportunitysolo. Similar music was also rendered | Hampton, August 1st, 1848." by Miss Salome Townsend, Mrs.

Smith and Miss Dorothy Smith. Miss fered a severer loss than is yet admit-Edith Skillen read Magdalene with good effect, and Mrs. George Vaughan A rumor has reached Rome that recited in her usual pleasing manner. Vice-Admiral Makaroff's squadron was Rev. C. W. Townsend read the Dream of Eugene Aram. E. A. Titus gave concealed behind the Miaokaio islands Miss several vocal selections, and (Miaotao islands?) and his retreat was Dorothy the Slumber Boat, by Jessie cut off and he was forced to fight Gaynor. At midnight refreshments against odds, with the result that all were served and the company dishis ships were damaged, while the persed after spending a very pleasant Petropaylovsk was surrounded by torevening.

The W. M. A. Society of the Baptist church held a tea in the vestry of their Another rumor is to the effect that church Wednesday afternoon, April Rear Admiral Molas is among those

The guest of honor was Rev. J. Hal. Smith, who in a few days sails No great attention is paid to these for the Soudan to resume his missionary labors. In the evening a public missionary meeting was held. Pastor Townsend presided. Rev. B. O. Hartman (Methodist) read the Scriptures, prayer by Brother Smith, followed by an address from him. Rev. Mr. Hartman followed with some earnest words of cheer, comments as to the missionary enterprise and hardships encounport. This action evidently followed Townsend offered some brief words of farewell to Bro. Smith from himself, the missionary society and church generally, assuring him of an unfailing interest in him and his work. A silver collection was taken and presented to the departing brother. The meeting closed by singing God Be With You Till We Meet Again, and the benediction by Bro. Hartman.

ST. ANDREWS.

ST. ANDREWS, April 13.-Capt. official telegram received here reports the appearance of a warship and sev- Keay, who has been absent at sea for the past nineteen months, was gladly eral junks, supposed to be Japanese, welcomed to his home yesterday, havin the neighborhood of the estuary of the Liao river during the night of April ing arrived by steamer H. F. Eaton. The latest candidates to public patronage in the grocery and provision line is the firm of Stairs & Craig, late-Numbers of small steamers and ly employes of G. Dunell Grimmer. barges are being hastily constructed in They have leased the street flat of the Manchuria with the intention of using Masonic building, in which they have them on the Amur, Usuri and Sungari fitted up a roomy two counter store, with all the late modern movable and

ST. PETERSBURG, April 18 .- An of- immovable fixtures. Mrs. Clarke, widow of the late Capt. Nelson Clarke, has shipped her household affects to Grand Manan, where "General Kachtalinsk (commanding) she will reside at the residence of her the Russian forces at the Yalu river) brother-in-law and sister at Wood-

John Burton, the oldest established keep in the procession by enlarging his Lruggists.

with Dr. Harry Gove in the c odwill Douglass. ously ill. In accordance with tors' advice she will as soon can be got ready be sent for tr to the hospital in Portland. M Invitations are out for the of Miss Laura Small, only dau: Mrs. Small, to Robert Clarke of real. It is to be a home cerem is to be held on the evening of the 23th

WANTED-A case of Headache that KUMFORT Powders will not cure is. from ten to twenty minutes,

BLOOMFIELD STATION BLOOMFIELD STATION, April 14.

nesday and was late in starting yes- vol. 2, dated Nov. 4, 1848, and print terday morning owing to scarcity of in St. John by G. W. Day at 10s. wood. Scows reached the mill about annum, the following quaint adv one o'clock, the lumber having been tisement appears, which will give some cation between St. John and Humr a little more than half a century "Mr. Edward Jack, attorney-at Hampton: office at the Ferry. persons wishing to send Letters. & Barristers-at-Law Saint John fro

HEALTH AND SUCCESS. Weakness and disease cause discour agement, failure and unhappiness but with the use of Dr. Chase's Nerve Food there comes new vigor and energy, new hopes and new confidence. stronger determination to succeed and the ability to apply one's self mentally and physically. Health and success go hand in hand. By restoring good health, Dr. Chase's Nerve Food helps to success and happiness.

MARRIAGES.

CAIN-ROBERTSON-A very pretty wedding took place on Thursday evening, April 7th, 1904, at the residence of Geo. W. Robe son, Marysville, N. B., when his only daughter, Alice B. Robertson, was united in marriage to William Cain. Only the immediate friends and relatives were present to witness the ceremony, which was con ducted by the Rev. H. H. Ferguson. TITUS-PETTY .- April 6th, at South Clones Queens Co., by the Rev. R. W. Colston. A., Isaac K. Titus of Hampton, Kings Co to Annie S., oldest daughter of Thomas Petty of South Clones.

DEATHS.

CAMERON .- At Goshen, Queens Co., N. E., April 8th, Charles W. Cameron, third sol of John Cameron, in the 17th year of had KELLY-At his father's home, 81 Somerset street, on April 9th, Harold Frederick, son of John E. and Maggie Kelly, aged one year and twelve days.

McINTYRE .- At Skiff Lake, York Co., N. B., April 10th, of old age, William Mc Intyre, aged 90 years, a native of Ireland, laiving a large family and many friends to mourn his departure. McLENNAN.-At his father's residence Adelaide street, on April 10th, Waldo Adelaide street, on April 10th, Waldo Mar vin, infant child of J. Leslie and Abie Mo Lennan, aged 1 years and ten days. OTTY.-On April 12th, Henry Phipps Otty, in the 81st year of his age.

After. Wood's Phosphodine, The Great English Remedy. Sold and recommended by sli ruggists in Canada. Only reli-able medicine discovered. Siz able medicine discovered. able medicine discovered. borms of Sexual Weakness, all effects of abu or excess, Mental Worry, Excessive use of 7 bacco, Opium or Stimulants, Mailed on rece of price, one package $1, six, $5. One will plo for infll cure. Pamphets free to any addres of price, or six will cure. The Wood Company, Windsor, Ont

Wood's Phosphodine is sold by all St. John

Before. 百日.

quence trade in and the market Pork sells for si cents, white cents, eggs 14 c Summerside, died Cambridge, Mass. E. I., has receiv tered and results obtained. Pastor

CHE FOO, April 14, 11 a. m.-An unsels manoeuvring in a circle before the

