CONTAINING TRIED AND APPROVED LINES OF
Plum, Peach, Pear and Apple Stock for Spring Planting.

PLUMS—3,000 young trees of best commercial varieties, chiefly on native stocks; 2,000 1 year old. Three years ago I planted a number of new varieties of Plums, obtained from 1 leading Orchardist in New York. Last year they began to fruit and this year gave me a full crop. I have selected four valuable varieties, the first ripening August 15th, the last October 15th. This fruit preserved in glass. I have a number of these trees for sale, along with Moore's Arctic and Lombard. I planted thirty bushes of Plums last autumn to secure native stocks.
PEACHES—1,000 trees. The first and only Peach Nursery in the province. Stocks budded with choice varieties, tested on ground.
GRAPES—Vines in early varieties only.
PEARS—Three years old, some grown, leading kinds.
APPLES—A specialty made in Gravenstein, Ribston Pippin and Russets.
THE ABOVE STOCK IS GOOD. ALSO EXCELLENT SITUATION FOR BUILDING.

W. C. ARCHIBALD, Wolfville, N. S.

"Cravenette"
A dress that will look well, and at the same time defy rain or dust, would seem to be the ideal after which ladies have been longing. These merits all meet in Cravenette. Waterproof, but thoroughly porous, thoroughly stylish, while defying the deluge from above or the dust from beneath; suitable either for dress, or cloak or wrap. Cravenette meets a need long felt. In Navy, Myrtle, Brown, Grey, Castor or Black. The ideal costume for spring and summer. Light and medium weights.

On Tuesday evening of this week Mr. John Jenkins was presented with an address and a token of remembrance from the members of Brunswick lodge, K. of P. A supper was served during the evening and a very pleasant time was spent. Mr. Jenkins left on Wednesday morning for Boston.

A very unique entertainment was given by the Willing Workers of Germania street baptist church in the basement of that church on Thursday evening last.

The entertainment which in the house "A Feast of Lanterns" and the name was everything in this case. Over one hundred of the bright colored lanterns hung from the ceiling and gave the room a very pretty appearance. There were a number of tables at which ice cream, cake and coffee were dispensed. The reception committee included Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Gates, Miss Everett, Miss Alice Estey and Mrs. Gerard. The ladies who had charge of the tables were Miss Riving, Miss Francis, Miss Donnell, Miss Kate Wilton, Miss P. Estey, Miss Florence Rutherford, Miss Maud Estabrook, Miss Emma Colwell, Miss E. Estey, Miss Wilton, Miss G. Currie, Miss Mabel Robinson, Miss Bessie Bostwick, Miss Lulu Estey, Miss Estabrook, Miss Golding, Miss Oulton, Miss Gross, Miss Saunders.

A very interesting programme was carried out, but would seem to be somewhat of a mistake to attend to anything in the way of a programme at an informal entertainment of this kind, as every one seems too intent upon having a good time, and enjoying a chat with friends to pay much attention to the various numbers. Those who assisted in this part of the entertainment were Miss Riving, Miss Harding, Miss Francis, Miss Allingham, Mrs. Stratton and Mr. Hope.

A marriage took place in the city on Wednesday in which the interested parties were Mr. Matthew McWhiter, of River Herbert, N. S. and Miss Mary A. Blouin of Waterford, N. B. The Rev. W. W. Clarke, pastor of Waterloo street P. C. baptist church, performed the ceremony. The bridesmaids were Miss Hazel Blouin, a niece of the bride and Miss Anna McCaw, while Mr. Walter Higgins supported the groom. After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. McWhiter will make their home in River Herbert.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. McLeod returned this week from a very pleasant visit to New York.
Mr. Stanley Peters, a local man, who has been in the west end, leaves next week for Sacramento to enter his brother Charles' law store. Mr. Peters is a very popular young man, and will be much missed by his friends here.

A very enjoyable riding party was given last Saturday, by Mr. Walter Allibon. The party rode to Spruce lake, and as the day was perfect enjoyed themselves very much. Among those who enjoyed the affair were Mr. and Mrs. Blair, Mrs. H. Grimmer, St. John, M. Percy Clarke, Miss Allison and Mr. Allison.

A number of the people of Brunswick street baptist church held a social at the home of Mrs. E. M. Sipprell, Wentworth street, last Tuesday evening. Mrs. Sipprell has been an invalid for some time and it was kind and thoughtful on the part of the young people to provide a little amusement for her. The affair passed off very pleasantly; following were among the guests present Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Stamer, Mr. and Mrs. J. McIntyre, Mr. and Mrs. J. Crandall, Miss Fritz, Mrs. A. Hoare, Miss Daniels, Miss Moore, Miss Rootes, Miss Buttle, Miss Payson, Miss Grace Smith, Miss Mabel Dewitt, the Misses Elliott, Miss Cavanagh, Miss Armstrong, the Misses Day, Miss Wilson, Miss Stillwell, Miss Alice Golding, Miss Ruby Clark, Miss Marsh, Miss Taylor, Miss Louise Colwell, Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Byeman, Mrs. N. Riley, Messrs. A. H. Chapman, Thomas's Shuler, John Shuler, John Norton, Mr. Colwell, W. H. Golding, B. Stillwell, Walter Goddard, Willie Hopper, Crandall, S. H. Riley and others.

Mr. George Jones gave a riding party today and Rotheby is said to be the destination. Among the party were: Miss Dyer, Miss Penelope, Mrs. Carter, Miss Jones, Mr. George Hatt, Mr. F. Wilder Dantel, Mr. Clineh, Mr. Gerard, Mr. Jones.

Mrs. Frank Allison gave a tea this week in honor of Mrs. Smith, of St. Stephen.
Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Jarvis have lately moved into their new home 145 Duke street.

Mr. G. Durrell Grimmer was in St. Stephen this week and enjoyed a day or two of excellent fishing at Grand Lake, with Mr. Frank Grimmer.

Miss A. M. Prince, and her cousin Miss Josie A. Paley, of Middleton, N. S. left last night for a short visit to friends in Cambridge, Mass. and Nashua, N. H.

Mr. J. H. Rhodes, editor of the Maple Leaf, Albert, and Mr. Robert E. Armstrong, of the St. Andrews Beacon, were in St. John this week.
Rev. A. F. Thompson, of Bathurst, was here for a short time this week and was registered at the Victoria.

Mr. Fred Jones who has been taking a course in chemistry in Boston, has returned home.
The death of Mr. C. H. Peters, which occurred a few days ago, was a great surprise to his very large circle of friends and acquaintances, as he was only sick a short time. The funeral, which took place on Wednesday, was very largely attended. His family will have the sympathy of many friends.

The concert in Leinster street church on Thursday was very largely attended and was most successful in every way. Among the names on the programme were: Mr. G. Grey, Miss McManus, Mr. J. Allison, Mrs. Ross, Mr. S. Stevens, Mr. B. Jordan, Miss S. Wetmore, Mrs. Currie, Misses Riving, Currie, Jamieson and Smith.

The Banjo club had a very large and pleasant meeting at Mrs. Stratton's residence on Wednesday evening. The club met at Mrs. Lawson's, Coburg street last night; they propose having a musical evening at Rotheby every two weeks during the summer.
