$4.85 a Pair

One of Canada's best makers had about 200 pairs of military boots on which the upper stock was somewhat lighter in weight than specifications called for. Rather than send them forward they were offered at a cut price, and knowing they were exceptional value we bought the lot.

We have now placed them on sale at our Three Stores at $4.85 a Pair although they are good value at regular price of $6.50.

Below are given eight well-known proverbs, but the words of same are all jumbled up together. For instance I may say that "nothing nature, nothing win," is hidden amongst them. Can you find them all? And remember it is possible to use all the words in solving the problems. After you have found out the eight proverbs, write them carefully out on a piece of paper, attach the usual coupon, filled in, and send to

OBITUARY.

The death of Mrs. Joseph Baxter of Land's End, Kings county, occurred Tuesday morning after a lingering illness. She leaves besides her husband, two sons, Arthur and John, both at home; six daughters, Margaret, Ella, Amy, Hattie, Olivia, at home, and Mrs. Sullivan, of New York. The funeral will take place on Friday from St. Alban's church at Day's Landing, Ivory W. Jordan.

The sad news of the death of Ivory W. Jordan, United States immigrant inspector, has been received by friends in St. John. For the last five or six years Mr. Jordan had been running between St. John and Vancouver and continued at his duty until taken ill a few weeks ago. Owing to ill-health he returned to his home in Hope, B. C., and his death occurred there on May 25. He was a bright and intelligent young man, and his early death will be sincerely regretted. A sad feature of his death is the fact that he was married only in last December.

FUNERALS.

The funeral of William McCutcheon took place yesterday morning from his late residence, Sea street, Bay Shore, to the I.C.R. station. The body was taken to St. Martin's for burial. Services will be held there on Friday by Rev. Father Hannigan.

The funeral of George Kathlin took place yesterday afternoon from his late residence, 19 Delhi street. Services were conducted by Rev. J. H. Champlin and Rev. T. J. Delnastill. Interment was made in Fernhill.

Lecture Tonight.

Dr. Mary Crawford of New York, will this evening deliver an interesting lecture in the Centenary church school room under the auspices of the Women's Canadian Club. During the course of the lecture a large number of excellent views will be shown of hospital and other scenes in France. The lecture will be open to the public.

A BRAVE YOUNG SOLDIER TELLS OF ADVENTURE

Private W. Waite of Brown's Flats Writes to Mother of Heavy Fighting in Which He Was Engaged.

Private W. Waite, an eighteen-year-old soldier, whose home is at Brown's Flats, on the St. John River, has been wounded and is now in the Duke of Connaught Hospital, Taplow Barracks. He was a member of D Company, 24th Battalion, when wounded, and in a letter recently received by his mother, the young soldier gives an interesting account of some hard fighting he has gone through. The letter in part is as follows:

Dear Mother:
I just received three welcome letters from you. You need not worry about me now. I am in England, I have lots to say, and I don't know how to start. I have had a hot two months in France and Belgium. I was at Kemmel, Vermelles, Scotch Wood, St. Elot and Ypres, at Kemmel I got a small piece of shrapnel in my head. At Ypres I got three wounds from shrapnel in the back of my left hand, but they are all healed. The night before I came out of the firing line, three of my chums were buried up with soil, mud, sandbags, etc., the cause being a German coal box burst.

There is about half of our 76th draft killed and wounded. My poor chum is missing and I don't know where he is. I and he were transferred to the 24th Battalion, Victoria Rifles. It is in peace time, a regular battalion in Montreal Canadian regulars.

I have lost the use of my legs, but will regain the strength again after a few months rest, so the doctor says. I am twenty-one miles from London, in a Canadian hospital.

We took a trar at St. Elot the night before I was buried. Our Company, D, took it with two hundred men and when we got it there were only sixty of us left, to say nothing of the Hun losses. Our bombers gave them a good bombing, then our artillery gave them a shelling, we did the rest with the bayonet. Of course what was left of the Hun army, the bombers and artillery routed them, we charged on them, they bombed us, and shelled us, and gave us rifle and machine gun fire. Of the sixty of us left out of the two hundred, about thirty never got a scratch, but our clothing was all torn and covered with mud and blood. I never got a scratch except on my left leg with a bit of barbed wire. My field dressing bandage, and a pocket on the right side of my tunic were torn clean off with shrapnel. Our platoon officer was killed.

While I was there they never used poisonous gas. We would watch a duel in the air nearly every day between our planes and the Huns, and it was a great sight.

While in the hospital here a lady comes and teaches us needlework and embroidery. I have made a table centre and will send it home as soon as I am able. I am now making a waist belt with a Union Jack in the centre and the Allies' flag on each side. Then I will start and make a cushion cover.

Bob Black has joined the 119th Battalion.

I am told by the nurses that I won't go back to the front again on account of the rheumatism. They say I will get a good job for the duration of the war.

With lots of love, I remain,
Your ever loving son,
BILLY.

TO ARRIVE SATURDAY

New Brunswick Lady who Represented American Red Cross in Serbia will be Welcomed by Women's Canadian Club.

Dr. Kathlin Travis, a native of Hampton, N. B., and who has been rendering such splendid professional service under the American Red Cross Society in Serbia, will arrive in the city on the boat from Dover day after tomorrow. The Women's Canadian Club are organizing a welcome to her which they hope will be in some proportion to the honor that Dr. Travis has brought to her native province by her heroic achievements in that war-stricken country during the war. It is hoped that all of the patriotic societies of the city will join with the Canadian Club in this undertaking and the citizens are generally invited to be present on the arrival of Dr. Travis. The Citizens' Reception Com-

tee, the Recruiting Committee has offered to co-operate with the Canadian Club in making the welcome a most popular one. Lieut.-Col. Beers is kindly arranging for the band of the 140th Battalion to be present on the arrival of the steamer.

STANDING OF CLUB MEMBERS IS PRACTICALLY UNCHANGED

Miss Mary Roberts of Cody's Takes the Tenth
Place in the List, and Miss Stout of St. John Moves up to Ninth — Everybody Working for the Cash Prizes Offered for New Subscriptions

There were a few slight changes yesterday in the standing of the leaders among the members of the Travel Club. Miss Florence V. Stout, who was the tenth on the list has moved up to ninth position and Miss Mary Roberts, of Cody's, whose name did not previously appear among the leaders now holds tenth place. Ambrose Higgs, of Sussex, a returned soldier, who will not be heard from very emphatically a little later on, has lost his position among the leading ten, but will, no doubt, be climbing again in the course of a day or two.

After the efforts of last week it would appear that many of the members who had sent in all the business they had collected are holding back for a few days, and are devoting their time to the winning of the prizes which are offered for work turned in between June 5th and 10th. This fifty dollars is well worth having.

Remember, The Standard offers two prizes of fifty dollars and twenty-five dollars to the members of the club turning in to this office between June 5th and 10th the largest number of new yearly subscriptions to The Daily Standard at five dollars per year in the city, and three dollars outside of St. John. No subscriptions received before June 5th will count, nor will any which are received later than 6 p. m. on June 10th. And these must be bona fide subscriptions. Transfers from one member of a family to another will not be permitted, and any attempt to increase the number by devices such as this will cancel the entry. It will be the number of subscriptions that will count rather than the amount of money sent in; and thus the workers in the city of St. John will have no advantage over those working outside.

There will be no further prizes offered during the life of this contest, and there is no advantage to members of the club in holding back the renewal business which they now have. It would be much better to have this turned in as soon as possible and get it credited as subscribers will be looking for some acknowledgment. From now to the end of the contest everybody ought to keep on the jump. These trips to Alaska or the value they represent ought not to be allowed to slip by, and members should devote every minute of their spare time to securing new and renewal subscriptions. When the end comes and you find that only a few more dollars would have made you a winner you will be very sorry for not having taken advantage of every possible opportunity.

tee, the Recruiting Committee has offered to co-operate with the Canadian Club in making the welcome a most popular one. Lieut.-Col. Beers is kindly arranging for the band of the 140th Battalion to be present on the arrival of the steamer.

Another Port Record.
The month of May has established another record for shipping through the port of St. John, no less than thirty-two steamers being loaded and clear. Of this number nine, or about thirty per cent, were loaded at the new wharves which were prepared through the foresight of Hon. J. D. Hays, minister of marine and fisheries. The revenue from the city wharves shows an increase over May of 1915, of about 50 per cent, the figures being: 1915, $8,225.24; 1916, $12,229. Prospects are bright for June, as there now eight steamers in port and several more are known to be on the way here.

TO WORK AGAIN TO FILL 115TH

Citizens' Recruiting Committee will Help Lt.-Col. Wedderburn to Complete Battalion.

The citizens' recruiting committee have jumped into harness again to help Lieut.-Col. Wedderburn finish the recruiting of the 115th Battalion. This was the decision arrived at yesterday afternoon at a meeting of the committee held in the Board of Trade rooms, at which there were present T. H. Estabrooks, Lieut.-Col. Sturdee, Captain Tilley, John Keefe, E. A. Schofield, Capt. Mulcahy, Captain Miller, Rev. Ralph Haughton, Douglas McArthur and S. H. Mayes.

There was a general talk as to the methods to be employed, and committees were named to make another effort to fill the ranks of the 115th. It was decided to make some feature which would once more awaken the interest in recruiting. It is hoped to endeavor to arrange some demonstration on the afternoon of the King's birthday, which is a public holiday, and also to link up forces with the ladies who are holding a garden party at Seaside Park on the 10th inst.

It was also decided by the committee to be present and assist in giving a reception to Dr. Kathleen Travis who will arrive from Boston on Saturday afternoon.

ASQUITH TO ASK VOTE OF MONEY TO SEND RELIEF TO SHACKELTON

London, May 31.—A committee has been appointed by the Admiralty to give information concerning the measures necessary for the relief of Lieut. Sir Ernest Shackleton and those of his men who are marooned in the Antarctic. Premier Asquith informed the House of Commons today of this development, and said parliament would be asked to provide money for the relief expedition.
