

NEWS OF INTEREST FROM STANDARD CORRESPONDENTS

APOHAQUI

Apoahqui, April 25.—The Easter services in the various churches were particularly bright and joyous, the music well rendered, and in keeping with the season.

At 8.30 a. m., Rev. Mansel Shawan conducted service in the Church of Ascension, which was beautifully decorated with potted plants and spring flowers. The pastor gave an inspiring and fitting address and the music was well rendered by a large choir.

The Presbyterian service at 3 p. m., was attended by a very large congregation, who assembled to hear the Easter message so vividly presented by Rev. A. V. Morash. Proceeding the sermon Miss Muriel Jones sang, "It Was For Me," Charles Brown, and in addition to the congregational singing, the anthems, "Hallelujah, Christ is Risen," and "In the Stone, the Watch, the Seal," were rendered by the choir, under the efficient supervision of the organist, Miss Greta Connelley.

The evening service in the Methodist Church was conducted by the pastor, Rev. L. Johnson Leard, who in the course of his interesting sermon, clearly expounded the Easter message of hope. The musical part of the service was lengthy and appropriate. The opening selection "Low in the Grave They Had Buried Christ, My Savior," was softly rendered by the full choir. "Come See the Place Where Jesus Lay," in which the solo part was sweetly sung by Miss Jones, was rendered for invocation after prayer, and the anthem "Awake, Awake for Golden Glories Break," in which H. Johnson took the solo parts, was heartily rendered.
