

TRIL

Public Hospital, but Lieut. Carr was later transferred to a military hospital. To Mr. Tilley, witness stated that in driving in the auto on the night in question he saw nothing derogatory to the driver having complete control of his car, but as he picked up speed (and if he had stopped when witness had shouted) witness would have certainly have endeavored to procure another vehicle, as he then felt that the driver was reckless, when attempting to turn a sharp corner at a high rate of speed.

Another thing witness alluded to was that while running back to the G. W. V. A. rooms to phone for an ambulance, and a doctor, he heard someone running behind him, and on turning around saw the defendant running after him. Witness asked him what he wanted, and defendant stated "My God, man, I am in a serious trouble, where will I get a car to tow away that wreck?" Witness told him to return to the scene of the accident and he returned. Upon returning to the scene witness noticed that the defendant was gone, nor had he seen him afterwards until yesterday in court, asked if he had seen Lieut. Carr after the accident, witness stated that he had seen him, having visited him in the hospital.

The charge against the defendant of driving a car without a license was then read, and the accused pleaded not guilty.

Wm. McQuade, inspector of motor vehicles, testified to the accused having been operating a car during the present year without a license, but had had one during 1918. A record was kept of all cars, license numbers, and licensed chauffeurs in the province, so that the records would show whether accused held one or not. Examining the records showed that the accused had not got his license renewed for 1919. Here the case was adjourned to be resumed again on Monday afternoon next, at two o'clock, when several other witnesses will be called.

The accused chauffeur is a son of J. D. Dickens, 365 Haymarket Square.

Is it always the Husband's fault?

Is the wife never to blame? Has a man no right to seek companionship and sympathy when they are missing in his own home? Is Clayton Spencero to be reproached for what he did? "What do men want, anyway?" Mrs. Haverford had asked. And Audrey, brilliant, audacious, under the impulse of her own hurt, had answered flippantly, cynically: "They want different things at different ages. That is why marriage is such a rotten failure."

Was she right? Must the modern man inevitably outgrow the woman he marries? Can the woman help it?

This is the problem—the great problem of modern married life, which Mary Roberts Rinehart has taken hold of in her latest novel. Fearlessly, she portrays this absorbing situation that confronts men and women today.

Clayton Spencer, brilliant, successful, eager for greater achievement—Natalie, beautiful, frivolous, selfish, the wife with whom he had not a thought in common—could there be greater tragedy? Was Clayton Spencer to be denied forever the love and understanding he craved? Could Natalie have satisfied the needs of his deepening years?

And when he finds the woman of his craving—the woman of greater heart and deeper understanding—what? Must he renounce her?

With the vigor and wholesomeness we have come to look for from her, with the compelling interest of her superb story-telling art, Mrs. Rinehart handles this problem of holding the man you marry.

"Dangerous Days" is a novel that every man and woman will want to read. It marks another milestone in Pictorial Review's progressiveness and vision—the progressiveness that women recognize as clearly in the forcefulness of Pictorial Review's fiction as in its broad comprehension of women's interests.

Begin this vital and compelling story in the March Pictorial Review today. You can complete it in three installments after that—a regular $1.60 novel in four big issues.

"DANGEROUS DAYS" By MARY ROBERTS RINEHART.

Author of "The Amazing Interlude," "K," etc.

ERA
USEVILLE

Underwater Girl, World's
e under the water.

BARNES and BERNER
Comedy Magical Feature

RIBUNOFF
Italian Violinist

The Woman in the Web

RIA

resents the Sweet Little lks' Star

LOVE
Romance
OF STANDING"

's Lovely Story
ment of lains."

H HEART-INTEREST

DINI Master
Mystery
from Under Water
Getaway Stunts
VILLAIN REAL?

's Two-Reel Ritz
MATRIMONY"
That Will Make
With Glee!

uesday
IN BOND"
Murray

PREME
Series
my Dale"

COMING MONDAY
"THOSE WHO PAY"

Featuring BESSIE BARRISCALE

Changes Weekly
Monday
Thursday

CARDINAL MERCIER

Cardinal Mercier and Marshal Haig

Also two stirring battle scenes in gorgeous colors

A notable series you will want to frame!

THE great soldier! The undaunted prelate! Our gallant American boys in desperate action! Not an American home but will want to frame these handsome portraits—these thrilling paintings.

Beautifully reproduced, the work of famous artists inspired by the greatest war in history, these pictures cannot be supplied except in the March issue of Pictorial Review. Secure your copy of this big issue today.

Field-Marshal SIR DOUGLAS HAIG

Cardinal Mercier

The Hero of Belgium

William Funk's famous painting of the fearless patriot who defied the German invaders. The pale ascetic prelate portrayed in gorgeous sacerdotal robes, makes a picture never to be forgotten for its spiritual force and richness of coloring. In Pictorial Review for March.

Field-Marshal Sir Douglas Haig

By England's greatest living portrait painter

Pictorial Review has secured the exclusive rights in this country to reproduce Sir William Orpen's great $10,000 painting in its actual colors. In this masterly portrait you can discern the iron resolution, the cool inflexibility of the soldier who led Great Britain's forces to victory.

"Our Engineers at Cambrai"

Your heart quickens at the sheer, amazing bravery of our boys, in Howard Giles' wonderful picture. Engineers, sent "over there" to build bridges, to locate camps, these boys of ours, when the Huns came swarming through the lines, beat them back with picks, shovels, any implement at hand! A picture that makes you proud you are an American.

"Kamerad"—Half a dozen Germans to two Americans!

Ever hear of Chateau-Thierry? Ever hear of our boys routing a nest of concealed snipers? You can actually see them at it in N. C. Wyeth's powerful painting. The shell-torn sky, the cringing enemy, the cool courage of the two Americans make a picture of the war you cannot forget.

STYLES FOR SPRING ATTIRE

The Fashion Department of the March number shows fourteen pages of style suggestions for spring—some of them in full color.

They give the authoritative information as to correct spring suits and dresses.

THE MODERN HOUSE AND HOME

Architect's plans for three easily built and inexpensive bungalows.

How to select china.

Making old furniture match and look like new.

Newest household linens.

Getting ready for house-cleaning time.

House budgets that save for luxuries.

Decorating to save fuel.

UP-TO-DATE COOKING

What can be done with a can of tomatoes.

Raisins Desserts Save Sugar.

Unusual Milk Ways.

My Kitchen Revolution.

FICTION THAT BRINGS US CLOSE TO HUMAN BEINGS

"The Molekin Coat"—that proved there's a cave woman in the mildest little wife.

"The Philanthropist"—or a destroyer of men— which?

"Homeward Bound"—the story of a boy and a city told in a delightfully new way.

WHAT THE WORLD IS THINKING OF

We've got to reconstruct the world! An inspiring article by Charlotte Perkins Gilman.

Will you tell about your baby to help other babies keep well? Will you make friends of your neighbors? Read what Cincinnati is learning about real democracy.

THE NEWEST SCIENCE AND OUR HEALTH

Milk is cheap at any price! Read what it does.

"The Insidious Tomils and Teeth"—Quietly, treacherously they undermine our health.

"How shall we feed our little Americans?"

You would gladly pay One Dollar each for these at any Art Store

PICTORIAL REVIEW

March issue—Now on Sale

If there is no Pictorial Review Pattern Agent or newsdealer in your town, send 20c for a copy or $2.00 for a whole year's subscription to Pictorial Review, 229 W. 39th St., New York City. Price in the United States, 20c—Price in Canada, 20c—Pay no more

H. V. MACKINNON & SON, Wholesale Distributors for the Maritime Provinces, St. John, N. B.