

WAGES BIGGEST FACTOR IN RAIL RATE PROBLEM

"When Are They Coming Down?" Asks Hon. Mr. Carvell at Hearing.

LIQUOR AND GOLD REVENUES DECREASE

Why Should Rates Increase, is Question, When Commodity Prices Are Falling.

Ottawa, Dec. 13.—The importance of wages paid to employees as a factor in fixing express rates, was emphasized by Hon. F. B. Carvell, chief commissioner, this morning when the application of express companies for forty per cent increase in rates was again before the board of railway commissioners. The final stage of the case, that of argument by counsel had been reached, and Hon. F. H. Phippen, counsel for the express traffic association was setting forth the reasons why the application should be granted, when the chief commissioner asked:

"How long are wages going to remain at their present level? It is said that everything else is coming down. When are wages coming down, too?"

Mr. Phippen found it impossible to answer the question, and the chief commissioner went on to say that high wages were a most important factor in express rates. "I wish the public would realize," he said, "there are objections on the part of the public to rate increases, but the public doesn't ask that wages be brought down."

Mr. Carvell was also curious to see what Mr. Phippen thought the express business would amount to in 1921. "The claim is made," he said, "that living costs are coming down to normal. Why should express rates be increased when other things are coming down?"

Although unable to forecast next year's business, Mr. Phippen said that obviously the revenue from liquor and gold shipments would be much reduced next year.

HUNGARIANS WILL DRIVE OUT ALL JEWS

Country Must be Kept for Natives Says Minister in His Address.

By LEON SCHALIT.
(Copyright, 1920, By Cross-Atlantic.)
Vienna, Dec. 14.—The Hungarian Minister Hader delivered the following antisemitic speech at a public meeting at Arad, Hungary:

"The Hungarian people want the benefits of their work for themselves, and when they shed their blood they want to shed it for their country. They want to be masters in this country, which the Hungarian people acquired and have guarded for a thousand years. They want, beginning with the head of the Administration, everything to be Christian and national in feeling, in thought, and in action. They do not want everything to belong to foreign usurpers and parasites."

Only Room for Hungarians.

"The Jews who shout when one of them is beaten in Hungary so that it can be heard in America, should understand that we want to impress upon all in our country that Hungarians only can live here. I only recognize a liberty of the press which has the liberty of the country at heart, a liberty of the press which gives us a Christian and National Press, without Jews."

"We shall crush the head of the serpent of Liberalism. A Press Institute must be created, and only such as can prove their patriotism, their integrity and knowledge, should be allowed to write in the newspapers. Only members of this Press Institute should be allowed to be journalists and every journalist should sign his articles and be responsible for them."

PONZI WILL BE JAIL LIBRARIAN

Erstwhile Financier Puts Away Broom and Mop to Start New Duties.

Plymouth, Mass., Dec. 14.—The county jail received a new librarian when Charles Ponzi, the get-rich-quick schemer became an inmate. After Ponzi had finished his morning chores today he put his mop and broom away and began the work of cataloguing the books of the jail library. As a young man just arrived in the United States he had performed duties of this nature for a university in the south several years ago.

Ends Stubborn Coughs in a Hurry

You feel chestiness, this old cough—many coughs have no remedy. Easily and cheaply removed.

You'll never know how quickly a bad cough can be conquered, until you try this famous old home-made remedy. Anyone who has coughed all day and all night, will say that the immediate relief given is almost like magic. It takes but a moment to prepare and really there is nothing better for coughs.

Into a 16-oz. bottle, put 2½ ounces of Pinex; then add plain granulated sugar syrup to make 16 ounces. Or you can use clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, instead of sugar syrup. Either way, this mixture saves about two-thirds of the money usually spent for cough preparations, and gives you a more positive, effective remedy. It keeps perfectly, and tastes pleasant—children like it.

You can feel this take hold instantly, soothing and healing the membranes in all the air passages. It promptly loosens a dry, tight cough, and soon you will notice the phlegm thin out and then disappear altogether. A day's use will usually break up an ordinary throat or chest cold, and it is also splendid for bronchitis, croup, hoarseness, and whooping cough.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine for throat and chest ailments. To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2½ ounces of Pinex" with directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money refunded. ARMS "BURIED AT SEA"

New York, Dec. 14.—Fourteen hundred weapons, consisting of machine guns, revolvers, daggers, black jacks, brass knuckles, razors and other non-descript articles, collected by the police from criminals during the year, recently were dropped to the bottom of the ocean beyond the three mile limit. The "burial at sea" is decreed by law.

Dunn Is Owner Of The Orioles

President of Baltimore Internationals Purchased Eddie Collins' Interests.

Baltimore, Dec. 14.—While a New York train stood in a Philadelphia station yesterday, Jack Dunn, president-manager of the Baltimore Internationals, completed a transaction with Eddie Collins, second baseman of the Chicago White Sox, which made Dunn virtual owner of the Orioles. In exchange for a certificate representing 75 shares of the club's stock, Collins received a check for $2,500 and Dunn, with other recent purchases, becomes owner of 1,800 of the 1,850 shares issued by the club, which he has managed for the last 15 years.

Dunn was on his way to the baseball meeting at New York and Collins is a resident of Philadelphia.

DEATH RECALLED THE MASSACRE CUSTER'S FO

Reputed Last Survivor in Automobile Accident.

BATTLE TOOK PLACE IN THE YEAR

Chief Sitting Bull, One of the Indian Leaders, Lived Years in Canada.

According to a press dispatch, "last survivor" of the Custer 1876 has just been killed in a crash year by an automobile accident. That he was the survivor of the fight is not quite because—if the history books are true—of Gen. George A. Custer's force of 277 cavalrymen then only two survivors—a Crow named Carley, who let down dropped himself in a blanket, and a Sioux named Red Cloud, who was in the gulch of a Sioux "Comanche," the war charge. Capt. Keogh. The circumstances led up to the engagement in Custer's force was annihilated. A year 1876 Sitting Bull, accompanied by two other Sioux chiefs, Red Cloud, Spotted Tail, visited Washington to discuss the matter of a treaty. President U. S. Grant. The States Government tried to sign the Sioux chiefs to sign a new treaty by which the gold mines of the Hills would be thrown open to white men.

Sitting Bull Feasted. But though Sitting Bull and his companions were feasted and entertained regally in Washington, the Sioux would not sign a treaty; they desired only to roam. They returned to Dakota, the old treaty in force, but many of the old warriors swarmed into the Hills with the natural result. Sioux came into force conflict with the white trespassers upon the grounds. United States were sent out against the Sioux. The Indian warriors from Upper Yellowstone into the mountains. Gen. Custer was forward with a body of cavalry out the Sioux forces, and in June found them encamped with squaws and families—all to have been estimated at 5,000. In the Little Big Horn river, divided his forces into three divisions, one led by himself, one for Reno, and one by Capt. M. The three forces were to strike simultaneously at the foe.

Blunder by Somebody. Somebody blundered—it is now who was to blame—result that Custer's division was wiped out of existence. There were no survivors of the disaster to Custer's force, which had to be gleaned from
