Moncton N.B., Aug. 14.—(Special.)—The tremendously high tides yesterday broke down many dykes and effected much damage along the water front near the Moncton Amateur Athletic grounds. A large section was broken in by the swollen waters which flooded the athletic grounds to such a depth that one hundred small boys went in swimming over the baseball diamond and tennis courts, making a unique sight.

Today a couple of feet of water remains in the field and half a hundred rafts may be seen floating about. In some houses of the vicinity the residents were obliged to vacate the first floor as the water came in in some cases to a depth of several inches. A half dozen streets in the vicinity were flooded. The road leading to Lewisville was rendered impassible, the railway track being utilized as a highway.

The police last night made a raid on Henry Cormier's hotel which was searched ,but nothing found. The proprietor of the Brunswick was arrested yesterday for Scott Act violation, but the case was dismissed.
