REXTON

Rexton, N. B., May 16.—Peter McCaie, one of the most prosperous merchants of this county, died suddenly at his home at Richibucto on Friday evening. He had suffered with heart trouble for some time, but was always able to attend to his business. On Friday evening he had been talking to friends who had called at his home, and after their departure, went upstairs to retire. He told his wife he was not feeling well, and she went downstairs to get some medicine for him, but when she returned she was shocked to find her husband dead. He was 66 years of age and was well and favorably known. He was a native of Richibucto village. Mr. McCaie is survived by his wife and two brothers. The brothers are Jacques McCaie, of Rogersville, and Justin McCaie, of Richibucto village. The funeral takes place this morning. Schooner Sweet Marie, which is a wreck on Kouchibouguac beach, was sold at auction in front of the court house at Richibucto, on Saturday, and bid in by T. C. Burns, of this town. The death occurred at Coal Branch, on Sunday, May 8, of Mrs. Hannah Tait, after an illness of four weeks. Deceased was a former resident of Hillsboro, Albert Co. She is survived by four brothers—Philip McKinnon, of Hillsboro; John McKinnon, of Winnipeg; Angus, of Windsor (N. S.); and William, of Sunny Beach, and one sister, who is a Mrs. Byers, of Boston. She was 63 years of age. Her husband died some years ago. The body was taken to Hillsboro on Thursday and interred at Grey's Island cemetery. Rev. Mr. Lawson conducted the services. James and Brian Tait, nephews of deceased, accompanied the body to Hillsboro. A number from Buctouche and vicinity went to Moncton on Wednesday to attend the play, La Fille du Maris, which was played at the Opera House to an immense crowd by Cercle Beauséjour. The play and specialties between the acts were greatly enjoyed. Miss Marion King, of Buctouche, is visiting friends in Chatham. Miss Pearl Wheaton, of Buctouche, has returned from a week's visit to Moncton friends. The schooner Loyal, Captain Arsenault, arrived from Charlottetown Saturday. The

A SURE CURE FOR WOMEN'S DISORDERS

Advertisement for 'ORANGE LILLY' medicine, claiming to be a sure cure for women's disorders. Text includes: 'ORANGE LILLY is a certain cure for all disorders of women. It is applied locally and is absorbed into the suffering system. The dead waste matter in the congested region is expelled, giving immediate mental and physical relief. The blood vessels and nerves are toned and strengthened, and the system rendered sound. As this treatment is based on strictly scientific principles, and acts on the delicate and intricate mechanism of the female system, it is not only a cure for all forms of female troubles, including delayed and painful menstruation, leucorrhoea, falling of the womb, and all other ailments, but is also sufficient for one month's treatment. A free trial treatment will be sent to any suffering woman who will send me her address. Enclose 2 stamps and name of the doctor.' Signed: FRANCES E. CURRAH, Windsor, Ont.

GENERAL SIR JOHN FRENCH WILL ARRIVE IN ST. JOHN ON WEDNESDAY

Distinguished British Soldier to Inspect Troops Here That Evening—Will Assist Earl Grey at Unveiling of South African Memorial in Toronto—A Great Soldier.

GENERAL SIR JOHN FRENCH Famous British Soldier Who Will Arrive in Canada on May 20—He Will Make an Extensive Review and Inspection of the Canadian Militia, and Will Inspect the St. John Troops on June 11 Next.

Ottawa, May 17.—Major-General French will reach St. John from Halifax, by way of Digby, at 5 o'clock on Saturday, June 11, and will inspect the 62nd Fusiliers, and the Third Artillery in the evening. He will spend Sunday in St. John and will leave for Montreal at 5 o'clock Monday afternoon. St. John is to be honored with a visit on June 11 and 12 from General Sir John D. P. French, the Inspector General of the Imperial forces. He will arrive in Quebec next Friday and is expected to spend two or three days in Toronto and Montreal. Sir John will arrive in Halifax on June 7 and after inspecting the troops there will come to St. John, arriving here at 5:30 p. m. Saturday, June 11. He will inspect the troops here that evening. As the dashing soldier who led the British forces at Elandslaagte in the Boer war, and who commanded the cavalry forces in the operations which led to the relief of Kimberley and the capture of Bloemfontein and Pretoria, the presence of Sir John French in St. John will be of intense interest to both military men and civilians. He was one of the most conspicuous leaders in the South African war, his name appearing frequently in the despatches. The itinerary of his tour in Canada embraces many places between Halifax and Calgary, including a visit to Petawawa. While in Toronto, he will assist Earl Grey at the unveiling of the monument to the South African heroes, which takes place May 24, in the presence of many federal and provincial functionaries, prominent citizens and detachments representing the various regiments. Inscribed on the granite base of the monument will be the names of every Canadian soldier who was killed in action or died of disease during the campaign from wounds or disease. The monument will cost about $38,000. Sir John will sail from Quebec for home about July 10.

Bray, chaplain: Hugh C. Wright, M. J. Howe Reid, D. M.; Alden Smith, G.; David Tingley, S.; Fred Smith, P. C. T. Robert J. Newcomb, one of the oldest and most highly respected residents of this parish, is very seriously ill at his home here, his recovery not being expected. Dr. Dash, a recent graduate of McGill, has arrived to take over the medical practice of Dr. Cammell, of Riverside, for the summer, the latter having made arrangements to spend some months at his farm on the Caledonia mountain. Dr. Carnwath will still attend at the hospital of Riverside in case of surgical operations. Downey Bros., of Curryville, with their crew, have gone to Moncton to commence work on the wharf there, which they are going to build. Hopewell Hill, May 16.—A very interesting lecture was given in the Methodist church here this evening by Rev. C. Fleming, of the same work in Newfoundland. Rev. Mr. Kirby presided. The lecturer gave the most interesting description of the characteristics of the people of the ancient colony, and a vivid description of the hardships of the missionaries, the speaker's own experiences furnishing striking examples. The choir furnished several selections, and a vote of thanks was tendered the lecturer at the close. Rev. Dr. Campbell, of St. John, will occupy the pulpit of the Methodist church next Sunday. The deal steamer Glendive is pretty well loaded at Grindstone Island, and will probably sail the last of the week. Woodstock, N. B., May 17.—The estate of deceased Mrs. Alice Maud, daughter of Mrs. Robert Fitzsimons, and Andrew Dunbar, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alex. Dunbar. The ceremony will take place at her home, Upper Woodstock, on Wednesday. Letters have been received from B. B. Manzer and W. B. Belyea and wives, who are touring Europe, stating that they were greatly pleased with their European trip and would be in London for the funeral of King Edward on Friday. They will arrive home during July. B. J. Kelly, who has been visiting his brother, Douglas Stevens, at Moncton, will leave for Montreal on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Stevens, who contemplated going west, have decided to remain in Woodstock and Mr. Stevens will go into the druggist business with his brother, Douglas Stevens. Misses Rosa and Helen Dibble, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Dibble, who have been studying nursing in New York, returned home today. To Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davidson there was born yesterday a daughter. Jerome E. Porter, J. P., Meductic, was in town today. H. W. Scovil, who has been quite ill, was able to attend to business today. There will be memorial services in the churches on Friday at 11, 4 and 8. The bells of the churches will ring until noon, when a royal salute will be fired by the Woodstock Field Battery, and the band will play on the J. W. Connell park.

KINGSTON

Kingston, N. B., May 16.—In order to grant a more lengthy holiday, the Kingston school will remain closed on May 23, and open again on May 25. The work of removing the draw from the old Perry Point bridge has been put back by the absence of Mr. Appleby, who is superintending the work. A special service will be held in Trinity church here, coincident with the burial of our late beloved sovereign. The flags on all buildings are at half-mast. Superintendent and Mrs. W. S. Carter are staying a few days at Mr. Carter's summer home here. Miss Jennie Kee, Miss Genevieve Crawford, William Crawford and E. C. Rice, Kingston, spent Sunday at Clifton, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. G. Hudson Flewelling.

RICHIBUCTO

Richibucto, May 16.—Peter McCaie, a respected and well-to-do resident of Richibucto village, died quite suddenly on Friday night. He had not been in his usual health for some time, and seldom went driving alone. He is survived by his wife. They had no family. He was something under seventy years of age. Arthur E. O'Leary has a fine new automobile. It came from Moncton on Friday morning. Madame Danis, of Paris, was a guest over Sunday at the Kent hotel. Rev. A. D. Archibald intends leaving tomorrow for Washington (D. C.), to attend a convention of the National Sunday School Association, which will meet there on the 19-24 inst. W. S. Loggie, of Chatham, spent Sunday in town. William Nordin, of the Swedish-Canadian Lumber Company, Norlin, was a guest over Sunday at the Kent hotel. William Rosch, who was ill so long at the Royal hotel, Rexton, but who had apparently recovered his health, took ill today at the Rexton station and doubts are entertained for his recovery. Gaspareaux are on sale in town this week. They are earlier but much smaller than usual.

PREPARE NOW TO MAKE EVERY MINUTE COUNT AT HARVEST TIME

Advertisement for McCormick Binder. Text includes: 'FOR you must make every minute count then to be sure of getting the full profit from your grain. Smooth, rapid, uninterrupted work is a necessity when the grain is ripe for cutting. Every delay due to a slow, inefficient broken-down machine will rob you of a part of the reward you have a perfect right to expect. You have used great care in preparing the ground—sowing the seed—caring for it while it is growing. Don't, through lack of foresight now, run any risk of making valueless at harvest time the hours of labor spent in preparing for it. Be prepared to get all the crop with a McCormick. Your grain may be tangled or down. It does not matter, a McCormick Binder will pick it up quickly and bind it in the best possible shape. The McCormick Binder is made to meet the requirements of the Canadian farmer. It does so as no other machine does. It has stood the test of time. Its light draft, strength and uniform good work will permit you to save all your grain with the least labor on your part. The McCormick line embraces a large number of other machines just as valuable as the binder, such as disc, chaff, mangle, cream separators, wagons, hay presses, manure spreaders and motor. Every McCormick machine is the superior product of expert designers and skilled workmen. Look over your machines today. See what you need to properly handle the harvest this year. Then call on a local dealer or write direct for further information. Take the step now that will insure your getting all the profit from your harvest. FREDERICTON

Fredricton, N. B., May 17.—Men from the drives of John Kilburn, J. A. Morrison, W. J. Noble and Seneior arrived in the city tonight and state that 12,000,000 feet of lumber of the operators named are hung up in Black Rapids and cannot be brought out except by very heavy rains. The water at the head of the lake is reported that only 1,000,000 feet of lumber is being practically all gone. The stream drivers say that Priestly Rapids were passed easily, but that the jam at Black River prevented the lumber coming through. Much of the lumber at Black River is owned by St. John firms. Messrs. Kilburn and Noble are expected to come down today. Mr. Morrison, it is said, will stay and try to get some lumber through. It is reported that only 1,000,000 feet of lumber is being practically all gone. ST. MARTINS

St. Martins, May 17.—Mr. and Mrs. E. Richardson, who have been guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Vaughan for a number of weeks, left on Wednesday for their home in Boston. Miss Annie Rommel returned from visiting friends in St. John, where she was Miss Hannah Vail returned from Amherst on Friday, and is the guest of her mother Mrs. Lydia E. Vail, for the summer. Frederick Brown left on Monday for Maine, where he will remain for some time. Mr. Isaac Melvin and daughter, Hazel, returned from Upham on Monday. Miss Lila White, who spent a couple of days at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. White, has returned again to her school at Yarmouth. Crawford Love is the owner of a hen which lays an egg which will be hard to beat. The eggs are on exhibition at the drug store. Two of them weigh 10 ounces and one over 5 ounces and measures 3 3/4 inches by 7. After a lingering illness of consumption, Joseph Hopley passed peacefully to rest at the home of his brother Clarence. Deceased was a general favorite of all who knew him, and will be much missed. He is survived by his father and four brothers—Clarence, Leonard and Ira, who reside here, and James, who resides in Maine. The schooner James Barber, Captain Walter Gough, which has been on De Long's block for the past week, sailed on Monday for Two Rivers, where she will load for St. John. The schooner G. H. Perry, Captain M. McDonough, arrived here Monday, bound for up the bay.

SALISBURY

Salisbury, N. B., May 18.—Hon. C. W. Robinson with a party of friends returned from Moncton yesterday afternoon, took supper at the Depot Hotel and returned home in the evening. Mrs. Lemuel A. Wilmot, of Boundary Creek, who is suffering with a serious case of blood poisoning, is now much better, she reported as some better this week. A couple of husky looking foreigners leading a brown bear are doing the rural districts in this locality. The recent fine weather has enabled the farmers in this locality to start the seeding operations and the work is now being pushed forward with considerable vigor.

MONCTON

Moncton, N. B., May 16.—The estate of the late David Wheaton, of Midgie, was probated at Sackville today before Judge Emerson. The estate was valued at $1,000 realty and $28,000 personally. The
