The Women's Institute will have a booth at Appin school fair today, dispensing lunches, hot tea and coffee and other refreshments. $1-1

The foundation has been started for an auto factory at Mount Brydges, the site being located just opposite the Grand Trunk station.

An early and severe winter is predicted by those who have been studying the signs in the corn husks and in the early migration of birds.

After objecting to the second stanza of the National Anthem the General Anglican Synod decreed that it "may be sung with propriety."

Heard Walter McRae on "Canada and the Empire" in the Town Hall, Glencoe, on Tuesday evening, Oct. 19. Proceeds for the Red Cross Fund.

William Burr, who has been in the employ of the Woodburn Milling Company for a number of years, has left to take a position in the mill at Ayr.

Harvest home services will be held in St. Alban's church, Appin, on Sunday, October 3rd, at 3 p.m. Rev. W. Hartley, of Delaware, will preach.

A big drop of 30 cents per cwt. was announced for all classes of sugar on Friday. This makes a total decline in prices of 60 cents inside of a month.

Court for the final revision of the Glencoe voters' list will be held here on Tuesday afternoon next before the county judge. A large number of appeals have been entered.

The Red Cross Society of Burns' church, Mosa, wish all the ladies of the vicinity to contribute jars of preserved fruit or honey for the fruit shower at the house Oct. 18.

Reports from the rural districts are to the effect that quail are plentiful and are increasing rapidly. The prohibition against shooting them continues till September 15 of next year.

Miss Margaret McCallum, daughter of Mrs. Z. McCallum, who has been teaching a school near Comber, has given up teaching for a time and is at home recovering from an attack of appendicitis for which an operation was performed.

Win. Tomlinson, sr., of Dresden, has purchased Duncan Graham's fifty-acre farm in Ekfrid, two miles east of Glencoe, for $1,000, and will take possession in December. Mr. Tomlinson is the father of Wm. and J. L. Tomlinson, of Glencoe.

Tuesday morning fire destroyed the garage, livery stable and barn of John McArthur at Rodney. Seven horses were found smothered to death by smoke when rescuers broke open the livery barn. The loss is $5,000, with insurance $2,000.

The construction of the Tait bridge over the Thames has been much delayed in consequence of heavy rains preventing grading and the laying of the bed of the river with which to build the abutments. The bridge will not be completed for some time yet.

Big attractions at Wallace town fair tomorrow. Patriotic military field day, with matinee and evening performance by the 25th Regiment and Highland Pipe bands. Good speed program. Surplus proceeds for the patriotic fund.

Glencoe council meets on Monday evening.
Metcalfe council meets Monday, October 4th.
Melbourne fair is next. Don't miss it. Wednesday, October 6th.

Forty-five carloads of war horses passed over the Wabash on Saturday.

Now is the time to clean stove pipes and chimneys to avoid danger of fire. Fire did considerable damage in the Dispatch building at Strathroy on Tuesday evening.

Dr. Chas. Eade, of Simcoe, and C. H. Young shipped twenty war horses from Glencoe on Monday.

Lorenzo Kelley, of Pratt's Siding, was married a few days ago to Miss Kelley, of Lambton county.

Apples from the trees of N. Currie's road fence in Mosa won two first prizes at the Western Fair, London.

Simon Winger, Appin, has sold his farm to an Essex county man and is having a clearing sale on October 7th.

The Battle of the Marne was fought on Sept. 1, 1914, and the Germans began to retreat on Sept. 5, four days later.

John Jones, son of J. B. Jones, of Mosa, has been appointed collector of customs at Glencoe to succeed the late M. C. Campbell.

St. John's church will hold its annual harvest thanksgiving services on Sunday, Oct. 3rd. Rev. W. Hartley, of Delaware, will preach both morning and evening. The choir is preparing suitable music for the day.

When mother was a girl all she needed for school was a plain little gown and a demure little hair ribbon. But the girls of today want a tailored suit, several blouses to wear with it, a silk gown, one of crepe-de-chene, a one-piece suit, a short walking skirt to wear with a middie, different neck fixings, at least one evening frock, a warm coat, a sweater and some other unimportant things. It's funny what a difference just a few years make.

A correspondent writes:—Our township officials of Mosa and Ekfrid are not paying enough attention to the weed question. Take the wild carrot, for instance. Go almost anywhere and you can see it on the roadside. Now, this weed is taking the attention of other townships and inspectors are appointed to see that careless pathmasters and farmers allow none to go to seed and blow into adjoining fields. This weed threatens to pollute our two townships.

Sarah Whitlock, relict of the late John Whitlock, passed away at her residence on the Longwoods Road, Mosa, on Wednesday of last week, aged 79 years. Mrs. Whitlock was a pioneer resident of the section, having lived there nearly all her life. She leaves two daughters—Mrs. David Watterworth, of Mosa, and Mrs. Dan Thody, of London, and four sons—William, London; Walter, at home; Wallace, Detroit; and John, Mosa. Her husband died about 12 years ago. The funeral took place on Friday afternoon to Oaklawn cemetery, services being held at the Regular Baptist church, Woodgreen, of which she was a member.

Thomas B. Lee, 30 Front street, Toronto, who is collecting, sharpening and forwarding razors for the soldiers at the front, writes to The Transcript acknowledging receipt of a package of razors donated by subscribers of The Transcript. Mr. Lee in his letter writes:—"The young fellows will be appreciated and go much towards the health and comfort of the men who are fighting for us goes without saying, for, after all, anything that we can do here is very little in comparison with what they are doing for us at the front." Nearly 20,000 razors have already been collected, and it is hoped to eventually gather in at least 25,000.

"Willie, did you tie that tin can to the dog's tail?"
"Yes, sir," replied the small boy. "I'm trying to do a kind act every day. That dog chases every rabbit he sees. I tied the can to him so that it will make a noise and warn the rabbit."

While the apple crop in this vicinity this year is a light one, and a great many farmers have none at all, Walter Squire expects to have in the neighborhood of two carloads. Mr. Squire is getting the boxes on hand to pack, and intends to send them to the West. Mr. Squire, who has had some experience in the fruit business, packed in boxes instead of barrels are the more satisfactory to shippers and sellers.

A large congregation in the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening listened to an address by Miss Christine Rattie, head of the Redemptive Work Among Girls in Canada. In connection with Miss Rattie's work there are in Canada homes in Victoria, Calgary, Winnipeg, Toronto, Montreal and Sarnia, N. S. During 10 months of 1914 these homes received 220 girls and 124 children. Ninety per cent. of these are doing well, forty-seven per cent. are leading Christian lives. In the last four years 720 girls have been helped. A staff of seventeen workers, three of whom give their services free, are engaged in this work in gaols, prisons, courts and dens of vice.

The death took place Saturday at St. Joseph's hospital, London, after a long illness, of the wife of Alex. McIntosh, M. C. R. conductor, St. Thomas, in her 49th year. Besides her husband, she leaves two sons, George, of the Ford automobile works, Detroit, and Donald, with the First Continental in France; also three sisters and two brothers, namely: Mrs. A. McMaster, of Appin; Mrs. A. McKellar, of Detroit; Mrs. Dan Campbell, of Sault Ste. Marie; John McFarlane, of London; Hector McFarlane, of Spokane, Wash. Deceased was a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Donald McFarlane, of Appin. Mrs. McIntosh had been a resident of St. Thomas for 26 years, and was a member of Alma Street Presbyterian church and of the Maccabees.

W. S. Dingman, of Stratford, vice-president of the Ontario Licensing Board, has been appealing to newspapers to advocate substitutes for bars and hotels where intoxicants are sold. There is great need for such substitutes, and no real effort has been made to provide them. Here is one suggestion:—Even when there is no licensed hotel, the women could combine and organize a refreshment room close to the railway station. This would provide for the temporary needs of the traveler. At this room there should be a register of boarding-houses and houses providing sleeping accommodation. In this way, the traveler would not have to wander all over the country, with his suit case in his hand, seeking a place to lay his head. He could remain in the refreshment room, which would be a cheerful, comfortable place, until he had selected other quarters. If a regular temperance hotel is provided, it should follow the lines of a good licensed hotel. It should be cheerful and inviting, should have a rotunda with all over the counter, with milk, tea, coffee and other temperance beverages could be obtained, and lavatory accommodation. It should be as free to the public as a licensed hotel. The people should be encouraged to make it a club. And as there would be no objectionable features it could be a club for women as well as men. The temperance hotel ought to be the jolliest, most sociable place in town, with every facility not only for comfort, but for social intercourse.

TOOK THE ADVICE OF HIS FRIEND

Stomach Trouble and Rheumatism Relieved By "Fruit-a-tives"

MR. L. LABRIE

594 Champlain St., Montreal.

"I have been restored to health by taking 'Fruit-a-tives'. For two years, I was a miserable sufferer from Rheumatism and Stomach Trouble. I became very weak, had frequent dizzy spells and when I took food, felt weak and sleepy. I suffered from Rheumatism dreadfully, with pains in my back and joints and my hands swollen.

A friend advised me to try 'Fruit-a-tives' and from the outset, they did me good. After I had started the second box, I felt I was getting well and I persevered in the treatment. I can truthfully say that 'Fruit-a-tives' is the only medicine that helped me.

LOUIS LABRIE.

"FRUIT-A-TIVES" is the famous medicine made from fruit juices. 50c. a box, 6 for $2.50, trial size, 25c. At all dealers or sent on receipt of price by Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.
